has been the death of the Duke of Wellington, which occurred on Tuesday, the 14th, from an apoplectic fit. Ilis funeral is to be a national affair, and of course one worthy the conqueror at Waterloo. The Marquis of Douro, who inherits the title of Duke of Wellington, has arrived in London, from Ostend. Lord Mahon is the literary executor of the late Duke.

In reply to an address in favor of the imperial regime, the President made the following significant reply : "When the general interest is at stake. I will try to anticipate publie opinion, but I will follow it in the case of an interest which may appear personal,"

The French papers contain little else than accounts of his receptions, which, at least, have all the appearance of being enthusiastic stated, he appeared much pleased. When last heard from, he was at Nevers.

Melancholy and Fatal Accident .- It is our painful duty, this week, to record one of the ost melancholy accidents that has ever occurred in this community-an accident that has robbed our town of one of the most distinguished, cherished, and useful citizens; sociefy of one of its brightest ornaments ; and happy family of a kind and indulgent arent. On Monday morning last, between and 9 o'clock, whilst the workmen employparent ed at the Hollidaysbarg Foundry were engaged in hoisting a casting weighing some 2500 pounds, the chain attached to the crane with which they were raising it gave way, and terrible to relate, the proprietor of the establishment, Hon. GEO, R. McFARLANE, who was superintending the job, was struck by, and caught beneath, the descending mass. Ile was released from his frightful situation as soon as possible and conveyed to his residence and a physician called in. Every-thing that skill and kindness could suggest was done to prolong his valuable life, But alas! it was of no avail. Death had marked him for his victim, and at quarter before ten this month, where he will remain for a few him for his victim, and at quarter before ten o'clock he expired. He retained his senses up to the last moment, and a few minutes before dying called his family around him, told them his hour had come, that he was not afraid to die, blessed them and bade them good bye, and calmly yielded up his spirit to that God who gave it .- Hollidaysburg Standard.

A whole Family Swept Away.-We are called upon to notice a most melancholy instance of mortality, in which the family of Mr. Daniel R. Rall, excepting an infant, a few months old, have been swept away. A few days since the death of Mrs. Rall was noticed. Mr. R. was subsequently attacked with the same disease, and after a brief sickness, died early on Monday morning, and at the same time his eldest son expired, two other boys having previously died. Within a few days, Mr. Rall, and his wife, and their three sons, Walter, aged 13, Irving, aged 7, and John aged 4 years, have died. The two younger children were attacked on Friday night, the father and eldest son on Sunday morning about 9 o'clock. All died between 7 o'clock on Sunday evening and five o'clock on Monday morning. The wife died on Thursday last. The deceased were buried on Monday afternoon.—Roch. Dem. Tuesday.

.... Curious Ecclesiastical Trial.

The Pittsburg Journal has the following statement respecting a very singular trial before the elders of a Presbyterian Church in Beaver county, which has just been concluded :

Two farmers, members of the same church, surrendered portions of their lands for the construction of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad. Mr. A. gave the right of way for nothing, and also grounds for a station which was needed on his farm. B. received five thousand dollars damages, and other con-siderations. A. went into the business of selling town lots around the station, and is uba, has also been launched on the Thames, The projected telegraph to America, by the ay of Iceland, has received a further impe-got tired of his bargain and entered suit against the Railroad Company for having defrauded him, and succeeded in working him-self into a most hearty hatred of rails, loomotives and everything connected therewith ; and when he saw that A. was pleased with the Railroad and was likely to make money out of the improvement, included him in his displeasure.

The suit against the Railroad has not progressed very rapidly, and in the meantime, Mr. B. thought there was a chance of punishing Mr. A. and bringing the Railroad into disgrace, at a single stroke; so he accused his neighbor and fellow-member, before the church, of grossly immoral conduct. A trial was granted, and before the assembled elders, Mr. B. solemnly accused Mr. A. of owning stock in a railroad that practiced and encouraged immorality; the Ohio and Penn-sylvania Railroad having, as he alleged, oken the Sabbath by running cars, and Along the whole route he was received with making repairs; and having injured the cries of "Vive l'Emperent!" with which, it is cause of temperance by carrying barrels of whiskey as freight!

It was admitted that the cars had run on Sunday when the Saturday night train un-avoidably fell behind time; that barrels of whiskey might have been shipped on the freight' train, and lastly, that Mr. A. was a stockholder :---then we need scarcely add : the elders most solemnly acquitted Mr. A. of the harge against him.

But Mr. B. will not permit the purity of the church to be sullied in this manner. He intends to appeal to the Synod which will assemble in this city next month, and after that will, no doubt, carry the case to the tribunal of all-the General Assembly.

A correspondent of the London Times gives the following account of a recent prizefight in England between two women! "About a month ago I was at breakfast with my family at Kensal Green, when I perceived a number of persons passing through the field adjoining my house. I endeavored to ascertain the cause. With much difficulty I did so. The stream of men and women had come to Paddington to a prize-fight between two-no, not men-women! One of my family, being incredulous, contrived to look across the fields, and there saw the combatants stripped to the waist, and fighting. Men took them there, men backed them, men were the bottleholders and time keepers. They fought for about half an hour, some say 5s, some say for a sovereign, and some say they will do it again. I saw the winner led back in triumph by men."

Attempted Suicide.-On Sanday, the 10th instant, a Mrs. Myers, residing in Jefferson county, Indiana, while her husband and sons were laboring at a distance, sent her youngest children out of the house, and taking an axe. seated herself upon the floor and commenced chopping her own head. In this fearful operation she was discovered by the children, Their cries alarmed some of the neighbors, who rushed to the spot, and found the unfortunate woman weltering in her blood, the scalp and outer table of the skull literally chopped to pieces. She had inflicted more than fifty ghastly wounds upon her head, rendering it a perfect mass of mutilated flesh, bones, and scalp, detached fragments of which were scattered upon the floor; and yet, strange as it may seem, none of the blows had penetrated to the brain. Insanity is assigned as the cause of this tragical event, although no decided symptoms of aberation were manifested by her previously. The unfortunate victim now lies in a critical situation, suffering intensely from her horrid wounds, and evidently beyond the chance of recovery.
