Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10 .- The steamer altie has arrived with Liverpool dates to England .- The feature of news which xcited the most attention in England was an official paragraph in the Paris Moniteur mplaining that the English press pubshes calumnies against the French govnment, and holding out the menace that continuance of such conduct will break up the Anglo-French Alliance. This paragraph caused much excitement both in ngland and France, having even affected he Bourse. It is reported that the Engish government will ask an explanation of his threat to dissolve the alliance.

The total exports for the first nine nouths of the present year amounted to £84,906,605, against £69,226,837 for the the same period of 1854 the increase has been £8,248,681.

The chief feature of the import market continues to be large arrivals of Breadstuffs. Other articles of consumption have also been freely taken, especially coffee, tea, sugar, wines, spirits and tobacco.

Terrible Earthquake .- A severe earthquake had taken place, which was felt throughout Egypt. Two hundred houses were demolished in Cairo. The city of Rhodes was in ruins. Some damage was SHanufactured Cobacco. also done in Smyrna. Fortunately but few lives were lost.

The earthquake also did great damage in Malta, Messina, Pazzaio, Syracuse, Catania, Candia, Cerigo, Gran Michael and other places in the Mediterranean .--Houses, churches and mills were reduced to ruins. Fifty lives are known to have been lost.

Several vessels and steamers in the Mediterranean felt the shocks severely. On board many of the steamers the machinery was stopped.

The shocks extended from the 11th to the 16th of October. During the whole time Mount Etna was emitting dense volomes of smoke.

In various parts of Italy, also, the For Public & Private Parks, Balshocks were felt. At Brindisi the people put to sea in boats. At other places the people fled from their houses and encamped for many days in the fields. Another shock visited Naples on the night of Oe-tion of toher 16th, causing great consternation among the inhabitants.

Persia .- Despatches received at London and Paris on Tuesday, state that the kind of work. French Ambassador to the Court of Persia had returned from Teheran to Constantinople. It is said that His Excellency has engaged the Shah to make peace with dressing the subscriber, stating what class of England.

The preparations for the English expedition to the Gulf were continued. The Persians were fortifying Herat.

France-The Credit Mobilier will probably be wound up, as in the present momentary pressure in France its functions FITHE subscriber offers for sale or rent all cannot be continued without danger.

LONDON, Wednesday, Oct. 29th -Comapencial letters from Paris describe trade in France as generally suffering from the difficulty in obtaining discounts caused by the stringency of the rules of the Bank of France.
