

THE GAZETTE.

LEWISTOWN, PA.

Thursday Morning, Nov. 20.

By a notice in the local column, it will be seen that Park Benjamin, a gentleman of high standing in the literary world, has been engaged to deliver a lecture before an association recently formed with a view of bringing before the public those intellectual treats, so highly appreciated in the eastern and western towns, but thus far a dead letter here.

The Cosmopolitan Art Association will make their next distribution of statues and paintings on the 28th January. This association offers rare inducements for becoming subscribers, furnishing magazines, &c. to the full amount of subscription and a chance for becoming owner of a fine statue or painting.

C. Ritz offers a stock of dry goods and hardware for sale or in exchange for land—John Lapp advertises several strays—a fine farm in Shirley township, Huntingdon county, will be sold next month—Teachers wanted in Granville township—the Harrisburg Telegraph invites attention to its prospectus.

Disappeared—The birds of passage who did the voting at the recent elections. John C. Kunkel is spoken of as the next candidate for Governor.

Gov. Pollock has appointed Thomas J. Power, of Beaver county, Adjutant General for three years from the 28th of October last.

A new building erected by Simon Scott in Lock Haven was blown down a short time ago.

Some speculators in Clearfield are getting up a Vigilance Committee against log floating.

There are reports this morning of a number of banks having failed, but what truth there is in the reports we cannot say.

The Seminary Buildings at Lewisburg, have been let to L. B. Root & Co. of Muncy, for $16,200, to be finished by next September.

CAUGHT.—We learn that Smith, the German who escaped from jail a short time ago, was recaptured at Shade Gap, and brought back to town yesterday. The colored man is still at large.

About five thousand dollars' worth of goods were stolen at the time of the recent fire at Bellefonte, O., and seventeen Irishmen are now in prison at that town awaiting their trial for the offence.

The most improved method of raising children nowadays is to let them run about the streets until a late hour—call swearing smartness, blackguardism precociousness, and every species of malicious mischief fun.

A young, stout, healthy-looking fellow, apparently capable of sawing and splitting three or four cords of wood a day, calling himself a "Jordan Brinder," asked us for a quarter the other day! We rather think he didn't get it.

The late news from Nicaragua announces the probable murder of C. W. Welber, who had joined Walker's army, and distinguished himself in a number of battles. He was the author of "The Shot in the Eye," "Bride of the Border," and "The Hunter Naturalist."

Singular Fact.—Macaulay, in his history of England, states the significant fact, that no large society of which the language is not Teutonic (Gothic) has ever turned Protestant; and that wherever a language derived from ancient Rome is spoken, the religion of modern Rome to this day prevails.

The Lutherans of Carolina, offended by the strictures of the Lutheran Observer (Baltimore) upon the conduct of Preston S. Brooks, have, according to the Newberry Mirror, resolved to establish a religious journal to promulgate and expound the gospel according to the patron saint of that little, moral, religious and political universe.

The official vote in Pennsylvania for President is as follows: Buchanan, 230,569; Fusion Fremont, 147,447; Fillmore, 55,891; Straight, 26,338; Fremont, 109; Gerret Smith, 18; Buchanan's majority over the Fusion ticket is 27,162, and his majority over all is 706.

Renouncing Mormonism.—The Manchester (England) Examiner says that at the present time considerable excitement exists among the Mormon saints of that town, in consequence of the large number of persons who have recently renounced their principles.—One reason of this reaction is said to be the "revelation" demanding a tenth of the earnings of the saints throughout Europe for the good of the Church in Salt Lake City. Those who do not pay are to be cut off from the Church.

The Sheriff of Centre county advertises the following real estate to be sold at Bellefonte on the 25th inst.: 4937 acres in Penn and Walker townships, as the property of Wm. L. Musser. Sundry lots in Milheim, with improvements, as the property of John G. Musser and John Kern.

Several tracts with improvements in Patton and Huston townships, as the property of Wm. B. Henderson and J. A. J. Fugate. 78 acres with improvements in Snowshoe, as the property of Samuel Lucas. 20 acres in Howard, and the interest of L. H. Muffley in a lot and house in Howardville, as the property of Wm. Wingart and L. H. Muffley.

A lot in Harrisonville, as the property of J. M. Blakeney. A house and lot in Worth township, as the property of Jesse S. Williams.

Book Notices.—We have before us a number of works from the press of A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, among which are Revised Editions of DAVIES' PRIMARY ARITHMETIC AND TABLE-BOOK, designed for beginners, containing the Elementary Tables of Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication, Division, and Denominate Numbers; with a large number of easy and practical questions, both mental and written.

DAVIES' INTELLECTUAL ARITHMETIC, or, an Analysis of the Science of Numbers, with special reference to Mental Training and Development.

DAVIES' SCHOOL ARITHMETIC, Analytical and Practical.

These works are designed as preliminary studies to the more advanced series of Mathematics, and to those who years ago acquired some knowledge of arithmetic between hard study and hard knocks, the improvement made in these books for imparting a knowledge of numbers is so apparent, that the wonder will almost arise how even dull children can now fail to learn. Everything is systematically simplified, so that the pupil may learn one thing at a time—learn that thing thoroughly—and then learn its connections with other things.

MONTEITH'S FIRST LESSONS IN GEOGRAPHY, containing easy lessons in the rudiments of Geography for beginners, and designed as an introduction to MONTEITH'S MANUAL OF GEOGRAPHY, combined with History and Astronomy, and designed for primary and intermediate classes.

MCNALLY'S COMPLETE GEOGRAPHICAL ATLAS, a comprehensive work, prepared with great care and accuracy for advanced classes in Schools and Academies.

These works constitute the most complete and cheapest Geographical Series yet published, each number being concise and systematic, and illustrated with a large number of correct and well-executed Maps and Engravings, so arranged that the Atlas and subject matter are under the eye of the pupil at the same time, a feature we believe not to be found in any other publications of the kind. Monteith's Manual of Geography, the second of the series, has proved so popular that it is now in use in many of the principal cities and towns in New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio, and from its adaptation to fit strongly upon the youthful mind the connection of fact and event with the place of occurrence, bids fair to supersede all others. McNally's Geography is based upon the following plan, by which it will be seen that it is at once simple and comprehensive:

1. The Definitions are brief and explicit.

2. The Exercises upon each map are systematically arranged upon the opposite page, including General Questions for review.

3. The Descriptive matter follows the map exercises, and contains nothing to burden the memory without imparting any geographical knowledge; while, at the same time, nothing essential is omitted.

4. The Pronunciation of difficult names is given on the page where they first occur.

5. The Statistical Tables are prepared from the best and most recent authorities, and are frequently referred to throughout the work.

6. In the execution of the Sectional Maps of the different States of the Union, within the county lines, a number, instead of the name of each county, is introduced: the latter can always be ascertained by a reference to the former in the "Table of Counties." This will be seen at a glance to be an original and most valuable improvement; for while the name of the county is virtually shown, it renders the maps more distinct, and admits of a more extensive introduction of important towns.

Several other works we shall notice in our next. All the works named, for the purpose of introduction, will in the first instance be furnished to public schools, academies, &c., at half price, thus avoiding a subject of much complaint on the part of parents and others when a new series of books is introduced.—We would recommend teachers, school directors and heads of families interested in education to call on Mr. F. J. Thomas, at Cogley's Express Office, Lewistown, General Agent in Pennsylvania for the sale of A. S. Barnes & Co.'s publications, who will take pleasure in giving any further information on the subject that may be desired.

"The Farm Journal and Progressive Farmer" continues to be freighted with useful and instructive matter for the Agriculturist, the Horticulturist, and the rural economist, to whose interest it is solely devoted. Every farmer who wishes to be "booked up" on the various discoveries in, and progressiveness of Agriculture, should subscribe for the Farm Journal. A new volume commences on the 1st of January next. Price $1 per year in advance. Address Samuel Emlen & Co., N. E. corner 7th and Market st., Philadelphia.

A Free Soil Stratum.—The northern tier of counties in Pennsylvania all gave majorities for the Union ticket. Erie gives 2572, Warren 850, McKean 293, Tioga 3152, Bradford 4655, Susquehanna 1325, Wayne 89, and Potter 601. Here is an aggregate of 13,535 majority against Buchanan in this range of counties. Taking in Crawford county, which really formed part of what was formerly the Connecticut Reserve, the aggregate would be 15,508. The southern tier of counties in New York State go for Fremont in the same style as our northern tier, including a majority for every county from the Catskills to Lake Erie.

Terrible Collision at Sea.—The French steamer Lyonnaise, from New York, bound for Havre, was run into at sea on the night of the 21 inst., by a large ship, and so badly injured that she was abandoned the next day. She had on board 40 passengers besides her crew. Sixteen persons from the steamer were picked up in a boat subsequently by a Bremen vessel, two others having died. On the 10th this vessel spoke the Hamburg barque Elise, on board of which fourteen of the persons were put and arrived at New York.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills Infallible Remedies for Salt Rheum.—Edward Jackson, of Galveston, Texas, suffered unceasingly for four years with salt rheum; so bad was he that for four or five months at a time he was compelled to keep to his bed, and the doctors told him candidly that he need never again expect to be well. Finding this to be the case he dismissed them, and immediately put himself under a course of Holloway's Ointment and Pills. These fine remedies soon made such an improvement in him that he was enabled to resume his occupation, and by continuing them for a short time, he was restored to the blessings of health, which he has enjoyed ever since.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

SUSPENSION OF THE LANCASTER BANK.—The resignation of the President of this institution on Friday last gave rise to some rumors affecting its standing, and a considerable run was made on Saturday. On Monday it was continued but with the impression on the part of most folks that the election of officers, which took place on that day, was the principal cause. Of all this little or nothing was known here until Monday afternoon, when news came to hand that the notes had been thrown out by the Philadelphia banks. As the greater part of our paper circulation was in notes of this bank, much alarm and anxiety were created as to the result. Up to Tuesday afternoon, the majority entertained hopes that the storm would blow over, but these hopes were dissipated by the announcement that the Bank had suspended. The following is the notice posted up on Tuesday morning at Lancaster:

"Notice: A run having been made upon the Lancaster Bank, and its notes having been refused by the Philadelphia Banks, the officers deem it impossible to meet the liabilities of the Bank as they are presented, and are, therefore, compelled to close the Bank. The note holders are advised not to sacrifice the same, as the assets of the Bank are supposed to be sufficient to meet the circulation and deposits. A statement, however, will be made to the public, as soon as the officers elect can make an examination of the condition of the Bank. H. RATHVON, Cashier."

On Tuesday several stores received the notes in payment for goods, but yesterday nothing could be done with them except at a discount of 25 per cent., at which rate the mill store sold goods and the Lewistown Mill furnished flour, &c. Both of our banking houses paid out a great part of their funds in this money, and in consequence of receiving it in payment of notes and on deposit up to Tuesday afternoon, have probably crippled their resources so that for some weeks at least no paper will be discounted.

What effect this suspension will have upon business here is as yet difficult to tell. Should the notes depreciate to any extent or become worthless, the loss will be severe, as almost every business man in the county, as well as a vast number of others, had sums in their possession varying from $5 to hundreds.—Even our humble self, who belong to a class that seldom have any money at all, was caught with $30, which had been laid by to meet a paper bill. A few instances have come to our knowledge where parties hold from $200 to $400—and another of two gentlemen about starting west with $1300. Coming from a quarter so unexpected, it will do much to impair public confidence in paper money, as our citizens had yet hardly gotten over the severe blow given to business and capital by the failure of the Lewistown Bank.

If the following from the Lancaster Examiner at all approximates the truth as to its circulation, the notes may be good:

"The liabilities of the bank, so far as we can learn, consist of about $700,000 of circulation and $250,000 of deposits. The notes in circulation will of course be redeemed, ultimately, at their full value, as they will be first paid out of the assets; and the stockholders are, moreover, individually liable to the note holders to the par value of the stock held by each one. That is, for every share of stock held by any person he is liable to the amount of $50 to make good the redemption of all the notes in circulation, in case the assets of the bank shall not be sufficient for that purpose. Under the worst possible aspect of the case, therefore, there is no room to doubt that the note holders will all be paid to the last cent. The only inconvenience they can suffer will be a delay of some months, more or less."

The stockholders will meet on Saturday to decide what course is to be pursued.

THE WEATHER.—The appearance of snow on the top of Black Log Mountain last week, together with chilling winds and cold rains, give unmistakable evidence that warm sunshine and pleasant weather have in a measure bid us adieu for a time, and that stern old Winter, with his mantle of snow and ice, has broken loose from his northern home, and is wending his way southward. Many no doubt have amply prepared themselves with wood and coal to meet his rigor, but others we fear have been far more intent on "saving their country," or electing some favorite to office, than to the comforts of home. These will of course grumble and growl should the "guide wife" fail to welcome them with a warm stove and plentiful meals, and perhaps attribute to her want of management what is in reality their own neglect. Such fellows ought to have no wives, no children, no home—they being mere excrecences on the earth; drones ever ready to spend money for good or bad whiskey, yet begrudging every penny calculated to render home happy; in short, genuine specimens of the genus laffer. Wake up, then, you lazy dogs, and look about the house of which you have the name of being the head; if you have not laid up a stock of wood or coal sufficient for two or three months, do it at once—if you have no money, go to work and get some, or else go hang or drown yourself, for you are of no more use to society than a miser who would skin a mouse for the sake of its hide and tallow.

HUNTING.—Deer are said to be quite numerous in Licking creek valley this fall, though we'll bet the hunters outnumber them two to one. Steeley, Riddle and Wagner came home the other day with a doe, and our neighbor, S. Miller, we hear shot a four prong buck in the beginning of this week. Pheasants and wild turkeys are also abundant along Jack's and Shade mountains, but extremely wild.

Quite a commotion was excited among the younger classes on Saturday evening by the supposed discovery of a comet in the western part of the heavens. It proved however to be the meteoric period, and was no doubt caused by electric flashes.

FIRE.—The light seen to the westward on Saturday evening proved to be a barn on the farm of D. Dull, occupied by Abraham Grassmire, in Bratton township, which, with several cows, a quantity of corn, oats, hay, fodder and straw was totally consumed. There was no insurance on the property. It is not known how the fire originated.

MIFFLIN COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.

The agent employed to canvass this county has made the following report, which will no doubt be highly gratifying to the ladies embarked in this noble cause:

Lewistown, July 10th, 1856.

Your Agent, upon closing his labors in your service, begs leave to present for your consideration the following report:

In so far as the results of my labors can be summed up in a statistical form, they are as follows:

Whole number of families visited, 1744
Number destitute, 139
Refused, 101
Whole number of copies sold, 604
" given, 101

Aggregate of sales, $299 02
Cost of copies given, 30 38
Donations received, 103 27

The amount of sales would have been much greater but for the fact that an agent for a publishing house in Philadelphia has recently passed over a considerable part of the county, selling and taking subscriptions for Bibles to be delivered during the season. The amount of destitution was also somewhat diminished by the same cause.

The labors of your agent have been quite barren of incident. The following facts are, however, deemed worthy of a place in this report, especially as they show that the labors of the Society have not been altogether unproductive of good:

In several cases the only Bible in the possession of families upon whom I called, were those presented by the agent who canvassed the county eight years since, and in every case which came within my observation, the books showed evident signs of frequent use.

In one instance the only copy of the Scriptures in the possession of the family was one given to the husband when on his way to Mexico as a volunteer. I learned from his own statement that he had passed many pleasant hours in its perusal in that far off land. He further stated that although many did not keep the books given them, yet others prized them and passed much of their leisure time in reading God's Holy Word, an employment to which they were probably but little accustomed while surrounded by the comforts of home.

In another case I found it necessary to call upon a family in the morning to whom I had given a Bible the previous evening. The weather being unfavorable the husband was unable to go to his accustomed employment, and on entering I found him reading his Bible while his wife and daughter sat listening with all the interest which new truths never fail to excite.

A few destitute persons have received the Bible with a cheerful indifference, but in the great majority of cases it was received with a hearty thankfulness which showed that the gift was highly appreciated and would be properly used. In many instances it has afforded me great pleasure to be the almoner of your Society, and I have not unfrequently wished that those members of your Society who have given much of their time and means to advance its interests, could have been present to share the pleasures which their beneficence excited, and thus realize, perhaps more fully than ever before, that it indeed "more blessed to give than to receive."

The thanks of your Society and my own are due to the Ministers and Members of the various Churches in the county, for their hospitality and liberality in sustaining the cause.

Our labors in your service are now closed, and it only remains to implore the blessing of God upon the seed thus sown, feeling assured that, although in some departments of Christian labor the seed-time is more immediately followed by the harvest, in none is effort more surely crowned with success.

THOS. C. SAUNDERS, Agent.

Married.—On the 18th inst., by Rev. Moses Floyd, Dr. ELIAS WELLES, of Menno township, to Miss SARAH McEILHENNY, of Union township.

On the same day, at the Lutheran Parsonage, by Rev. C. M. Klink, JOHN O. ZIMMERMAN and Mrs. SARAH KEELER, both of Philadelphia.

On the 19th inst., by the same, at the Black Bear Hotel, JOHN SHOWERS and Miss NANCY COULTER, both of Kishacoquillas Valley.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Lewistown Public Lecture Association have made arrangements to provide, during the coming winter, a series of Public Lectures.

To this end they will employ none but the most distinguished professional Lecturers.

Whether this enterprise will succeed or fail will depend on the public.

PARK BENJAMIN, Esq., a native of the West Indies, now, and for many years, editor of leading literary journals of New York, will deliver the first lecture—Subject, FASHION, a Poem—on Saturday evening, Nov. 22d, at 7 o'clock, at the Town Hall. Terms, for the present, single tickets 25 cents. To admit one gentleman and two ladies, 50 cents.

GEORGE W. ELDER, Pres't. D. W. Woods, Sec'y.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

Nov. 17.—The arrivals at Wm. L. Torbert's Avenue Drive Yard were as follows: 690 cattle, 4900 sheep, 400 hogs, 100 cows and calves and 70 Horses. Beef cattle sold from $8 to 9 25, and a few extra at $9 50 per cwt.—Market rather brisker than usual. Sheep sold readily and in demand at $34 50 per head; Lambs at from $2 75 to 3 75 each.—Hogs, $7 50 per cwt; market good.—Cows and calves in great demand, at prices ranging from $25 to 80 each. Horses selling quite briskly and at fair prices. Total stock, 340 cattle, 4900 sheep, 2000 Hogs, 150 cows and calves. The beef rates, have not been varied since the past month, the poultry and pork season having commenced, causing cattle to remain at low rates and dull.

Flour, Grain, &c.

Flour and Meal.—The foreign news has reduced the price of Flour 12 1/2 per bushel, and with a moderate export inquiry some 30,000 bushels in all have found buyers at $6 1/2 to 7 1/2 for mixed and straight brands; $6 87 1/2 for selected lots; and $7 47 1/2 for extra, mostly at $7 1/2 per bushel, including some small sales of Brandywine on terms not public, and fancy brands at $7 25 to 7 37 1/2. At the close, however, there were more sellers than buyers at $6 75 for standard brands. For home use prices have ranged at from $6 75 to 7 50 for common brands and extra, and $7 50 to $8 25 per bushel for fancy brands, as in quality. Rye Flour is scarce and wanted, and all offered found buyers at $4 12 1/4 to 25 per bushel, which is an advance. Corn Meal is dull and lower, and about 1500 bushels have been taken at $2 25 for Penna Meal, including Brandywine, on terms not public. The inspections for the week ending the 13th inst., are 15,670 bushels Flour, 100 half do. 1974 do Corn Meal, 20 puncheons do, and 165 do Rye Flour.

Wheat—Wheat is also rather lower; sales reach about 40,000 bushels, taken for shipment and milling, at 150 to 154, for fair to prime red, and 160 to 165 for white—closing, however, rather dull at our highest figures. Rye continues scarce, and the receipts have found ready sale at 7 1/2 for Southern, 7 1/2 for old Penna, and 80c for new. Corn is rather lower, but the demand is active, and about 50,000 bushels have been taken at 65 to 67 for Southern and Penna yellow, about 65 to 66 in the ears and from store, and 64 to 66 for white. Oats have declined, but at the close are rather better, and about 30,000 bushels have been sold at 42 to 45 for Southern and Penna. We quote to-day at 43c, about.

Wool—There has been some demand for Cloverseed within the last few days, and all offered has been taken at an advance on our highest figures. Sales include some 11,120 bushels, part to arrive, at $7 25 per bushel. Some 400 bushels have also been taken from second hands to go out of the market, on terms not public. Timothy is but little inquired for, and a few small lots have changed hands at $3 per bushel. Flaxseed is less active, and American is quoted at $2 05 per bushel.
