MARRIAGE OF SENATOR DOUG-LAS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 .- Our Thanksgiving to-day was signalized at 2 o'clock, by the marriage of Senator Douglas, of linois, to Miss Ada Cutts, of Washington, fier which the married couple took the cars for their future residence, in Chicago. The bride was accompanied to the altar by several bridesmaids; but the Senator, being a widower, went alone. Only a few of his personal friends, including General Shields and Senator Slidell were present. The marriage ceremony was performed by Father Byrne, of the Roman Catholic Church, in the religion of which the bride was educated, at Georgetown Nunnery. Senator Douglas, himself, is not known to have any decided leaning towards any religious faith, though some of his friends draw a favorable inference from his recent land donation to a Baptist College in Chi-

In the matter of age and personal beauty there is a wide difference between the bridegroom and the bride. Miss Cutts is sail, elegantly formed, with a sweet, oval face, large brown eyes, and small Grecian forenead, around which are entwined the heavy braids of her glossy and abundant chesnut hair. On her clear, peachy comcomplexion there is a perpetual war of roses-the red and the white-each failing to maintain a sole supremacy. Altogether her tout ensemble, as the flunkeys say, fully vindicates the good taste of the "Little Giant."

age. Her father, James Madison Cutts, an officer in one of the departments at Washington, is a nephew of Mrs. President Washington.

As for Mr. Douglas, everybody ought to be familiar with his antecedents and appearance. In point of years, he has about twice as old. In person he is short and stocky.

Mr. Douglas is said to be worth at least fortunate speculation in Chicago lots, aside from the property, mostly in Louisiana plantations, left for his two little boys by his first wife - N. Y. Post.

CURIOUS EFFECT

Of a Powder Mill's Explosion .- The ceeded in its terrific effects any previous was torn into fragments. The second was thrown to a great distance and stripped of everything but his India rubber shoes .-Poor fellow! he had been at the dangerous work but one day. The mill that first exploded was running with no one in it at the moment. When this went off, the air was filled with flying, blazing timber, which in an instant communicated to two others. In one of these were the two unfortunate men who were killed. The other mill, the dry house, had but little powder in it, which blew off the roof; it then took fire and was consumed. A fourth mill had two hundred kegs of powder inside, which was not ignited, although the centre boarding was stripped off and many beams broken. Two men were at work in the wheel pit, and crawled out in the stunning noise to see the fragments flying in all directions. It was an awful spectacle Three mills exploded. The wind was very high and the woods took fire .-It was expected that the shattered mill from which the men had escaped would blow up every moment. The fire was seen exposed to the least spark. After watch- as command a ready sale. ing it for some time, a man, at the hazard of his life, took a bucket of water, and crawled on his hands and knees to where the fire was blazing, and extinguished it. It seems a little singular that from every building the pressure was outward. Boards Great damage was done to neighboring buildings. I saw a chimney that was affected curiously. It was set off on one side towards the mills just one brick, and left standing.

A Hard Hit .- A correspondent of the Wheeling (Va.) Intelligencer, in noticing an opening of the African slave trade, says "he is opposed to the removal of the unfortunate where the pious missionary of the Cross is the 15th inst. permitted to open up to them the way of salvation, by teaching them to read the word of

I never sold a bottle of it but that sold an other; after a trial it always speaks for itself. There are two things about this herb that appears to me surprising; first that it grows in our pastures, in some places quite plentiful, and yet its value has never been known until I discovered it in 1846—second, that it should cure all kinds of humor. In order to give some idea of the sudden rise and great popularity of the discovery, I will state that in April, 1853, I peddled it and sold about six bottles per day-in April, 4854, I sold over one thousand bottles per day of it.

Some of the wholesale Druggists who have been in prisiness twenty and thirty years, say that nothing in the annals of patent medicines was ever like it. There is a universal praise of it from all quarters.

In my own practice I always kept it strictly for humors -but since its introduction as a general family medicine, great and wonderful virtues have been found in it that I never suspected. Several cases of epileptic fits—a disease which was always considered incurable, have been cured by a few bottles. O, what a mercy if it will prove effectual in all cases of that awful malady-there are few who have seen more of it than I have.

I know of several cases of Dropsy, all of them aged people, cared by it. For the various diseases of the Liv-er, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Pam in the Side, Diseases of the Spine, and particularly in diseases of the Kidneys, &c., the discovery has done nore good than any medicine ever known.
