Mem: Mr. B. a Presbyterian Methodist Protestant Episcopalian.

P. S.—Am doubtful whether to enlighten daily papers on these points or not. After dinner, spoke of Archbishop Hughes; knows him well; rather likes him; thinks him a good friend of his. Catholicism very grand and picturesque, and awe-inspiring. Cannot say he believes in all the dogmas of that Church, but does believe in that article of faith which teaches that one substance can be converted into another. Has experienced the truth of that fact in his own person. Witness his conversion into the Cincinnati Platform.

Mem: On consideration, have decided to say nothing about this in the newspapers.

WHEATLAND, THURSDAY.

Had a private interview with Mr. B.—Asked for a collectorship—application a leetle too late. Asked for a consularship—would do everything in his power—was ardently desirous of gratifying his friends at Bangtown and would take their recommendation into profound consideration; but the leaves and fishes, numerous as they were, would not begin to feed such a multitude of hungry clamorists, and therefore, somebody must be disappointed. He trusted it would not be his Bangtown friends; but he seriously advised that friend to return forthwith to Bangtown and wait with philosophic patience until a distribution took place.

BANGTOWN, April 1st, 1857.

Have waited. Have not got the collectorship. Have not got the consularship. Put in for Postmaster at Bangtown.—Didn't get that. Didn't get anything.—Yes! Promises! Can't live on them.

Old Buck is a great humbug. Never had much sense. Always thought so.—He squints, is wry-necked, wears a dirty white neckcloth, is by no means pleasant in his manners, is a formalist, is insincere, will make a wretched President. Wonder how people came to vote for him. Get no support from Bangtown, that's certain.

Notices of New Advertisements.

Miss H. E. Sears, Physician, will be in this place every Friday and Saturday.

Mr. H. Young, of Lancaster, is selling Books very low, both at auction and private sale.

Leonard Scott & Co., New York, offer new inducements to subscribers for the British Periodicals.

Those interested in the estates of A. P. Jacob, Esq., late of this borough, and Wilson Hazlett, late of Menno township, are referred to notices in another column.

THE BRITISH MAGAZINES.—Our readers will notice in our advertising columns the advertisement of Leonard Scott & Co. of New York, republishers of the five leading British periodicals. By this means these works are furnished to readers in the United States at a small comparative cost, and comprising sterling literature with essays reflecting the sentiments of the leading British writers, will, unlike much of the trash published in magazine form, bear re-perusal years hence.

T. B. Peterson, 102 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, will publish on Saturday, January 1st, a work entitled "LOVE AFTER MARRIAGE, and thirteen other choice Novels of the Heart;" by Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz.—The author was one of our most successful writers. Indeed there is not a woman in America whose tales have been more steadily and uniformly popular. There is breathed into the pages of her works a sentiment of the pure, the exalting, the truly religious, which is seldom found in any works of fiction. They are full of sweet scenes of domestic love, purity, and joy, which win the heart of the reader. The above work, neatly bound in cloth for $1.25, or in paper cover for $1, will be sent to any address, free of postage, on remitting the amount to the publisher.

The National Intelligencer publishes a long list for proposals for carrying the mails in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New York.

Captain Rynders of New York, a noted democratic bully, says Mary is a white-livered politician and Pierce a "small potato Jackson." Rynders is a filibuster, and thinks we ought to help the buccaniers in Nicaragua out of their scrape.

A man named George E. Haines, residing at Safe Harbor, Lancaster county, was killed last week by a young man named Clarkson Laird, who fired a gun at two men while prowling around a barn.

The Huntingdon Journal says David Bergstresser of Stonerstown, was accidentally shot last week by a pistol in the hands of Mr. Graybill, who thought the revolver was discharged. Mr. B's wound is not mortal.

During a row on New Year's day at Selingsgrove John Miller stabbed B. F. Wagenseiler in the arm, cut out Francis M. Steadman's right eye, and slightly cut Wm. Gundrum on his thigh. Snyder county is becoming civilized.

We learn from the Lock Haven Democrat that a man by the name of John F. Smoke, residing in Keating township, Clinton county, was killed by his son, on New Year's day, probably accidentally with a revolver which was discharged while the old man was attempting to take it from him.

James S. Green, democrat, has been elected to the U. S. Senate from Missouri.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION.

ELECTION OF GEN. CAMERON.

Considerable anxiety was manifested among the democracy, immediately after the October election, as to who should be the next U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, and as the time approached for the meeting of the Legislature, this anxiety continued to increase. The prominent candidates were Henry D. Foster of Westmoreland, Hendrick B. Wright, Mr. Robbins of Philadelphia, and John W. Forney. Mr. Buckalew had also been in the field, but was induced to withdraw. At this stage of the contest Mr. Foster probably had the lead, but a rumor soon got abroad that Mr. Buchanan was in favor of Forney, and, whether true or false, that settled the matter, for who would not oblige a President elect by so small an act as a vote when he says he would "feel complimented and obliged" by such a proceeding. The following is said to be the substance of the letter written by Mr. Buchanan to Mr. Mott, President of the Canal Board:

"As my position on the subject of electing a United States Senator may be misunderstood, I beg you to say to my friends that Col. John W. Forney, in my opinion, will best serve my administration of all those named, and I will feel complimented and obliged for the votes of any friends in his favor for that office. Mr. Robbins, Mr. Black, and so on, are very fair men, but Col. Forney's claims are far superior to those of all others."

JAS. BUCHANAN.

When the democratic caucus met at Harrisburg Forney was nominated on the first ballot, as had been foreseen by the friends of Mr. Foster, some of whom accordingly did not attend, and thus held themselves ready for a "free fight" on the day of election, which was fixed by law to take place on Tuesday last. In the meantime another difficulty sprung up by the Senate refusing to take up the resolution to go into convention. The motive for this was to give the House time to dispose of the contested case from Philadelphia—the sitting member, Ramsey, having about as much right to a seat as any other man who chose to enter the hall and take one would have. He is however a good looking, while Mr. Smith, who had a majority of the votes, is not—and as this one vote might elect a U. S. Senator, the anxiety of the Forney men to go into an election can be duly appreciated. Subsequently, after keeping the Forneyites in hot water until the last moment, the Senate on Tuesday went into joint convention for the purpose of electing a Senator of the United States in the room of Mr. Brodhead. The contest was entirely between Gen. Cameron, the American Republican candidate, and Mr. Forney, the nominee of the democratic caucus. On the first ballot General Cameron was elected by a majority of one vote. The vote stood:

For Simon Cameron, 67
" John W. Forney, 58
" Henry D. Foster, 7
" William Wilkins, 1

—thus giving to General Cameron a majority of one vote. General Cameron received the whole American and Republican vote of both Houses. Three democrats voted for him—Wagonseller and Lebo of Schuylkill, and Maneer of York. Seven democrats voted for Henry D. Foster, to wit—Creswell of Blair, Fausold and Hill of Westmoreland, Backus of Clearfield, Smith of Cambria, and Calhoun and Nicholson of Armstrong. Henry D. Foster voted for William Wilkins.

This result presents a strange contrast to the proceedings a few years ago when, with a large majority on joint ballot, the opposition was unable to elect Gen. Cameron by party dissensions among themselves. The lesson then taught was however of some service, and a united minority as now effected what a hutch patch majority could not then do—thus in some measure making amends for the injustice then done Gen. Cameron and the injury entailed on the party.

Forney however was the wrong candidate for the democracy to bring into the field. He has been connected for years with one of the factions into which the democratic party in this State is divided—factions which, though acting together to secure the spoils, hate each other thoroughly—and has frequently denounced the other division in acrimonious language not likely to be forgotten. Those familiar with the politics of this State for the past twenty years must know this, and we have no doubt could the fact be ascertained, his defeat is as much a feather in their cap as it is to the American Republicans.

By the way of St. Louis we have by telegraph accounts of terrible sufferings on the Plains. Fears are expressed for the safety of some of the United States Surveying parties. The winter had so far been of unexampled severity.

The European news, with the exception of the difficulties between Prussia and Switzerland, is of no importance. The Swiss are arming, and should the Prussians advance into that little republic we hope they will be welcomed with "bloody hands and hospitable graves."

The Legislature will probably pass an act on the subject of commitments for contempt, limiting confinement to 30 days. It is intended to reach the case of Gen. Small, who has been imprisoned by the Supreme Court for several months.

DIED.

On the 1st inst., CHARLES EDWIN, son of Cornelius and Mary I. Barlow, aged 15 months.

On the 23d ult., in Menno township, JOHN GETTYS, aged 73 years.

At her residence in Bellefonte, on the 9th inst., Mrs. MARY BLANCHARD, widow of the late Hon. John Blanchard, deceased, in the 58th year of her age.

In this place, on the 3d inst., LYDIA, daughter of John Chappell, aged 2 years, 4 months and 14 days.

Proceedings of Congress.

In the Senate on the 9th Mr. Seward introduced a bill to expedite telegraphic communication with Europe. It provides for the extension of government aid to the submarine telegraph company upon conditions to be agreed upon by the President and in accordance with similar terms on the part of the British government. The House invalid pension bill was passed. The consideration of the Iowa Senatorial case was then resumed, and subsequently decided that Mr. Harlan was not entitled to his seat.

The House after passing some private bills and being on the point of adjournment was thrown into excitement by a proposition to appoint a committee of investigation in relation to charges of venality and corruption on the part of some members in connection with the Minnesota railroad grants. The action was based on an editorial of the New York Times, but a more direct implication was subsequently made by Mr. Paine, of North Carolina, who stated that a proposition had been made to him, by a member of the House, to give him $1500 as a consideration for his vote in favor of the bill. The announcement raised quite a storm of excitement, and the House was forced, in spite of a very evident disinclination on the part of some members, to adopt the resolution providing for an investigation.

It is stated that the House Committee on Territories have resolved to report against the annexation of Carson Valley to California, but as a measure of relief to the people of that Valley from the oppressive immorality of their Mormon neighbors, have determined to recommend the passage of a bill for the prevention and punishment of polygamy.

LATEST NEWS.

The steamship Asia arrived at New York on the 12th inst., bringing Liverpool dates down to the 27th ult. With regard to the most interesting points of European politics, the renewal of the Paris Conference, the Neufchatel embroglio, and the Anglo-Persian war, the intelligence is little more than a budget of rumors. No day had been fixed for the opening of the Paris Conference, but it was believed that France and England were agreed upon the course to be pursued, and hence an early meeting is anticipated. Prussia and Switzerland continued their preparations for war, but it was thought the powers would combine to prevent actual hostilities. A variety of rumors prevailed as to the position of Great Britain towards the contending parties, the latest of which was that England had offered her mediation, and it had been accepted by Switzerland. The Persian Government is said to have assented to some of the demands of Great Britain, relating to the restoration of Herat, &c., but refused others. In the meantime Russia was making a reconnaissance with the view to some strategic movements in favor of Persia. These various causes of difficulty appear to have originated some loose apprehensions that the peace of Europe may be again disturbed, but on close examination they scarcely afford ground for any serious belief that such a result is probable. Prussia and Switzerland will hardly be allowed to embroil themselves or others upon a question of mere local import, the Paris Conference will undoubtedly settle the Bolgrad and Isle of S. reports questions without resort to any means more serious than the replications of diplomacy, and as for the war with Persia it may last for a decade and yet be fruitless if any result that will affect the repose of Europe. Its theatre is too distant, and the objects it proposes to accomplish too unimportant, except to the Honorable East India Company, to permit of it producing any serious effect.

State Teachers' Association.

The Pennsylvania State Teachers' Association, which was lately in session at Harrisburg, adjourned on Friday, 2d inst. The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President—Wm. Roberts of Philadelphia. Vice Presidents—A. Owen, Huntingdon; Mr. Hickman, Union; J. J. Stine, Mifflin; Rev. S. Crumbach, Lancaster. Corresponding Secretary—Joseph Fell, Bucks. Recording Secretaries—J. J. Stutzman, Somerset; R. N. Ditt, Huntingdon. Treasurer—Amos Row, Lancaster. Executive Committee—Prof. Stoddard, J. Black, A. D. Harton, A. K. Brown, B. M. Kerr.

The Association fixed the place of the next annual meeting at Indiana, on the 7th day of January, 1858, and the semi-annual meeting at Chambersburg, when the following subjects will be discussed:

Relation between the common schools and the higher institutions of learning, by W. H. Batt of Philadelphia. Report on Practical Instruction in Christian morality in common schools, by S. F. Colt of Towanda. Can the instruction in the higher schools in rural districts be made to bear on the agricultural improvements of those districts, by A. L. Kennedy, Philadelphia. Condition and wants of the German school of Pennsylvania, by Rev. Wm. A. Good, Reading. Bright and dark side of the teacher's profession, by Prof. McParla Snyder. The claims of teaching to rank as a profession, by J. P. Wickens, Lancaster. The relation of the body to the mind, or of physical to intellectual training in a system of education, by Dr. A. H. Grimshaw. The effects of general intellectual culture upon manual labor, by T. H. Burrows, Lancaster. Method in teaching, by A. Burr, Allegheny. Rights of pupils, by Albert Owen, Huntingdon. The Bible as a means of education, by Wm. Brickley, Dauphin. The best method of examining teachers in accordance with the school law, by Joseph Fell, Bucks.

The following committee was appointed to attend the New York State Teachers' Convention, to be held at Binghamton: Dr. J. H. Burrows, H. C. Hickok, Wm. Roberts, Dr. C. S. Early, B. M. Kerr, and Col. A. G. Curtin.

The following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the officers of the association to be elected for the following year be appointed a committee to draw up and present to the Legislature a memorial expressive of its views in favor of an appropriation by the State in aid of Teachers' Institutions.

Resolved, That in order to acquaint the Legislature more fully with the wishes of the teachers and friends of education in the State, we will circulate in our several localities, petitions like those now in circulation in the county of Washington, asking such aid.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Dr. Joseph Henderson will deliver the first of a course of lectures on "Geology" this (Thursday) evening, in the Apprentices' Hall.

MERCANTILE APPRAISER.—The Commissioners have appointed Wm. F. Shaw Mercantile Appraiser for this county for 1857.

ICE.—Cubbison has been busy for several days in filling his ice house, as well as sundry private ones, with an excellent article from the river. The blocks are clear as crystal, free from snow and slush ice, and can hardly fail keeping folks cool during the coming summer however hot it may be.

The dry and frozen earth has had considerable effect on streams and wells, many of which are next thing to dry. The reservoir is also low, not so much from the failure of a supply as the number of leaky hydrants which have been affected by the cold weather. The Water Company has appointed Mr. Miller to examine the hydrants, with directions to shut off such as are leaky.

Books! Books!—Mr. Young, of the firm of Murray & Co., Lancaster, has taken the rooms in the diamond formerly occupied by Johnson & Clarke, and opened a large stock of books and stationery, comprising a general assortment of both, which are open during the day for private sale and auctioned off every evening. Those desirous of buying cheap will of course call, and being determined to close out his stock here bargains may be looked for by everybody and "the rest of mankind."

COURT.—The business transacted in the Quarter Sessions comprised a few cases of ordinary character, which were disposed of in the usual way. In the Common Pleas the case of Ziegler & Willis vs. Marks & McBarney was taken up on Thursday and continued to occupy the court until Tuesday last, when the jury brought in a verdict of about $1100 for plaintiff. This case arose out of a contract for furnishing castings and machinery for Marks' steam mill.

From the Auditor General's Report, copies of which were received from Messrs. Banks, Sellers and Purcell, we glean the following items of matters relating to Mifflin county:

A CARD.—The Ladies of St. Mark's Church return their grateful acknowledgments to the citizens of Lewistown and vicinity for their generous contributions, which enabled them to give a series of entertainments for the benefit of their Church, as well as to those who so generously patronized and encouraged them. The amount realized from their effort has fully equalled their highest hopes, and is but another evidence of the proverbial liberality of the people of this community. Where the generosity of the people has been so general it would be invidious to particularize, and we therefore beg all to accept our hearty thanks for the whole-heartedness which has so evidently characterized their appreciation of the object of our effort.

THE LADIES OF ST. MARK'S CHURCH.
[The receipts we understand amounted to nearly $500.]

The termination of the Lewistown stage route has been changed from Northumberland to Lewisburg, by means of which Winfield (or Dry Valley) and New Berlin both indulge in the luxury of a daily mail. The coach is run by Mayes, Specht & Walter.

Pennsylvania Railroad.—Monthly Statement.—Receipts of the road for the month ending December 31, $386,868 98; same month last year, $434,569 69; decrease, $47,700 71. Receipts from January 1, 1856, to January 1, 1857, $4,800,068 74; same period last year, $4,315,334 69; increase, $484,734 05.

ILLINOIS LANDS.—The attention of farmers and others about removing to the west, or desirous of making safe investments, is requested to the advertisement of Joseph Milliken, Esq., offering for sale 20,000 acres of Prairie Lands in Central Illinois. These lands are located in a climate congenial to our own, near the great lines of railway that traverse the State, and for fertility and easy cultivation are unsurpassed. Among those who have already made purchases are Wm. Mitchell of Lewistown, Joseph Tice of Granville, John M. Bell of Derry, and others, who examined them in person and will cheerfully testify to their value. The lands will be sold low, and offer the strongest inducements for emigrants from this and neighboring counties to form neighborhoods, and thus in a measure relieve the tediousness arising from settling among strangers in a strange land.

Holloway's Pills.—Astonishing Cure of a Bilious Complaint.—Mr. Patrick M. Kennan, of Columbus, Ohio, suffered for upwards of three years from violent pains in the head, a foul stomach, bad digestion, disordered liver, and general nervous debility. He tried various remedies for the mitigation of this compound disorder, but he only became worse instead of better, although he also consulted several doctors. Finding that the medical faculty could not cure him, he had recourse to Holloway's Pills, by continuing with this remedy for a few weeks, he entirely regained his health, and ever since then he has not had the slightest return of his complaint.

FEMALE AGENTS WANTED in every Town or Village of the Union, to sell Dr. SARGENT'S INVIGORATOR. Many of our Lady Agents are making more than a living from its sale. No money required until the medicine is sold; simply a good reference accompanying application. The Invigorator will cure Sick Headache. Take one or two teaspoonsful at each attack and it will soon disappear. For an overloaded stomach, or when food rises or sours, take the Invigorator after eating. For Heartburn, Palpitation, or Difficult Breathing, take a teaspoonful once or twice daily. For loss of Appetite, Languor or Listlessness, the medicine is invaluable. British Quarterly Reviews.
Great Inducements to Subscribers.
COST REDUCED 50 TO 75 PER CENT.
L. SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

1. The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2. The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3. The North British Review (Free Church.)
4. The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine ( Tory.)

These Periodicals only represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics form only one feature of their character. As Organes of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as it were, ever before the eyes of the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, than could the world, as can be possibly obtained from any other source.

Early Copies.
The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reviews, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of subscribers as soon as the original editions.
