LATEST NEWS.

FROM EUROPE. NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—The following despatch of news by the City of Washington...

The city of Canton was bombarded October 24th, by the English fleet under Admiral Seymour.

A great advance had taken place in the English markets in the price of teas.

Swiss affairs were unchanged, though there are rumors of a peaceable negotiation.

A new Minister to the United States has been appointed but his name is not yet disclosed.

The collision with the authorities at Canton was owing to the seizure of twelve British seamen on board a vessel in the river.

The matter was placed in the hands of Admiral Seymour on the 21st of October, and hostilities commenced on the 24th.

The forts of Canton had been taken and several of them destroyed.

The Governor, still rejecting Admiral Seymour's demand for satisfaction, a fire was again opened on the 27th against the city walls and Governor's palace.

The walls were breached and stormed on the 29th, the troops penetrating to the palace walls, but were withdrawn in the evening.

The British loss was only 3 killed and 12 wounded.

Attempts at negotiation continuing fruitless, the city was bombarded on the 3d and 4th of November.

On the 6th twenty-three war junks were destroyed by the British steamer.

Further time was then given, but the Chinese continued obstinate.

The Boque forts at Canton have been captured. The foreign factories have been vacated, property to a large amount has been destroyed, and commerce is completely paralyzed.

FROM NICARAGUA. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—The advices by the steamer Texas are to the 10th inst.

Gen. Henningsen, who so gallantly maintained his position in the Church at Granada, was reinforced on the 8th, and on the nineteenth day of the siege, succeeded in driving the enemy before him with the loss of 1400 men.

Gen. Henningsen's loss was 200, and the force against him was nearly ten to one.

He succeeded in removing all the military stores, artillery and public documents, to Rivas, where he joined Gen. Walker.

The town was evacuated by the enemy on learning the approach of the forces under Walker.

The seizure of the boats on the San Juan had cut off all communication with Walker. There were 300 recruits waiting at Punta Arenas for an opportunity to join Walker, and a steamboat was repairing to take them up the river.

This would require five days, though the work was hurried as much as possible.

The recruits had determined to start as soon as the boat could get ready.

A special despatch states that just as the Texas was about to start a messenger arrived from Walker, stating that he had apprehended something wrong from the delay in the arrival of the recruits, and having made a rapid movement, he succeeded in recapturing the fort of San Carlos, which had been taken by the enemy, and was coming down the river by forced marches, scattering all before him.

The latter portion of this despatch is doubtless furnished by an ardent partisan of Walker, and judging from previous reports from the same quarter its correctness may be questioned. If true, Gen. Walker is not so near being exterminated as has been generally supposed.

A number of returned Nicaraguans who arrived at New Orleans give contradictory but generally very dismal accounts of the state of affairs.

The capture of the boats on the San Juan was effected by a man named Spencer, formerly mate of one of the Company's boats, and the hands, assisted by 300 Costa Ricans. Besides all of the River boats.

The forts of Castillo and San Carlos were also taken. Both of Walker's large lake steamers were likewise captured, leaving Walker only a schooner and a few bungalows.

Several officers are also passengers on the Texas. Some say that Walker is a gone case, while others are more hopeful.

Zachariah Chandler, who has been chosen by the Republicans of Michigan to replace Gen. Cass in the Senate, for six years from the 4th of March next, is a leading and popular merchant of Detroit, and at the same time a zealous and energetic politician.

Mad dogs are plenty in Illinois. At Joliet, last week three children and a number of cattle were bitten; and at Augusta a single dog bit upwards of twenty cattle, hogs and sheep, most of which have since gone mad. The stock bitten was estimated to be worth $3,000.
