LEWISTOWN, PA. Thursday, March 12, 1857.

TO OUR PATRONS. We have this year, in addition to our regular expense to meet nearly $300 on the 1st of April, and we trust ther fore that our patrons who have heretofore so liberally responded to this annual call, will do so again. The past few years, with their high prices, have been trying ones to us for while everything else has gone up our terms for the paper and prices of Job work are the same as when we could purchase flour at $4.50 and $5.00 per barrel, butter at Take cents per pound, and many other things in proportion yet with all this, such notices as "We want money," "We wust have money," &c., are never found in the columns of the Gazette unless it be at this season. This is not becaus we do not need it, (for to tell the truth we have been a bo rower in 1856,) but because these constant "duns" are colly looked upon by the public, and seldom produce any good.

say. They are few in number, but totally regardless whether they pay or not. The day has arrived when we MUST dispense with SUCH "patronage," and we here give the notice that we shall take an early occasion to strike their names off the books.

A large number of subscriptions in the Western States &c. will expire during the months of February, March and April, and as these are discontinued at the expiration of the time paid for, (except in a few special cases,) those wishing the paper continued will please remit a gold d lar, wapped in a piece of paper and enclosed in a letter. No western small notes will be taken in payment. -----

Notices of New Advertisements.

The Lewistown Academy, which, under the prudent management of Mr. Warner, is rapidly recovering the ground lost during the past few years, will open for the spring session on the 1st of April.

The Tuscarora Female Seminary, a favorite and well conducted institution in Juniata county, will commence the summer session on the 5th May.

The Freeburg Academy, we are pleased to learn, has already acquired a high reputation under the superintendance of Geo. F. McFarland, A. M., and is in a flourishing foundation. A Normal Department will hereafter be considered with this school, a feature worthy the attention of Bachers, who will find the location well adapted for study and improvement.

COUNTY MEETING.

The citizens of Mifflin county in favor of appointing delegates to the Union Convention are requested to meet in the Town Hall, Lewistown, on MONDAY EVENING, March 16. 1857, for the purpose of electing Delegates to said Convention.

The extraordinary decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, reversing the set- of Georgia. tled practice of the government from its foundation to the present day as respects ginia. colored men, will be read with feelings of Connecticut. regret by thousands who, in special wonder, ask themselves what meant the Declaration of Independence in 1776 when it declared all men to be created equal and endowed with certain inalienable rights? The most extraordinary part of this decision however is the declaration of the Supreme Court that the first Congress, composed of many eminent men of the revolution who had aided in framing the Constitution, did not understand its provisions-for such in fact is their decision! By it too, the idolatrous Chinese, the beastly Mormon, the priest ridden ladrones of Italy, the semi-civilized horde of Mexican thieves. and indeed all others but tinged with a white skin may become citizens of this country by wholesale, but no matter what his intellect. the colored man is henceforth declared by the preme Court to be an "animal" incapabl of becoming a citizen of the United States, though he may pay taxes, fight her battles, wrong hereafter?

Ma. Holders of Lancaster Bank notes, says the Lancaster Examiner, should understand that if they demand payment at the bank, and have an endorsoment to that effect made by the cashier, the notes so presented will bear six per cent interest until paid-or until a final dividend is made of the assets. The notes, it will be understood, will bear interest only from the time payment is demanded; and those on which no demand is made, will of course not hear interest.

The question of pay and allowances to Lieut. Gen. Scott was fortunately settled during the closing hours of the late session of Congress. The arrearages due the veteran. it is understood, will amount to about thirtytwo thousand four hundred dollars, and his annual pay and emoluments will hereafter be fifteen thousand dollars. A grateful nation, we are sure, says the National Intelligencer, will cordially approve this proceeding, and eem it far less a measure of liberality than f justice.

VIVIA: the Secret of Power. By Mrs. E. D. N. Southworth, author of "Lost Heiress," "Deserted Wife," &c. Neatly bound in cloth for $1.25, or in two volumes, paper cover, for $1.00.

It seems the aspiration of Mrs. Southworth is ever to rise from excellence to excellence, and to make each succeeding work superior to all that have preceded it, and as she generally succeeds, her last work is, in almost every case, her best. In striking originality and beauty of conception, and strength and viridness of delineation, as well as in her peculiar power of fascinating the minds and hearts of her readers, Mrs. Southworth stands alone. THE DRED SCOTT CASE. Washington, March 6.—The opinion of the Supreme Court in the Dred Scott case was delivered by Chief Justice Taney to-day. It views of the Court. They have decided the following all important points:

First—Negroes, whether slaves or free—that is men of the African race—are not citizens of the United States, by the Constitu-

Second-The ordinance of 1787 had no independent constitutional force or legal efwhat his property, or what his acquirements, feet subsequently to the adoption of the Constitution; and could not operate of itself to onfer freedom or citizenship within the North west territory, on negroes not citizens by the Constitution

Third-The provisions of the act of 1820, and shed his blood in her defence! If this commonly called the Missouri Compromise, is right, what, in Heaven's name, will be in so far as it undertook to exclude negro slavery and communicate freedom and citizenship to the negroes in the northern part of the Louisiana cession, was a legislative act exceeding the powers of Congress and roid, and of no legal effect to that end.

In deciding these main points the Supreme Court have determined the following inciden-

First-The expression "territory and other property," in the Constitution applies (in terms) only to such territory as the Union possessed at the time of the adoption of the Constitution.

Second-The right of citizens of the United States emigrating into any Federal terri-tory and the power of the Federal government there depend on the general provisions of the Constitution, which defines in this as in all other respects, the powers of Congress. Third-As Congress does not possess power itself to make enactments relative to the persons or property of citizens of the United States in Federal territory, other than such as the Constitution confers, so it cannot constitutionally delegate any such powers to a Territorial government organized by it under the Constitution.

Fourth-The legal condition of a slave in the State of Missouri is not affected by the temporary sojourn of such slave in any other State, but at his return his condition still depends on the laws of Missouri. As the plaintiff was not a citizen of Missouri and therefore could not sue in the Courts of the United States, his suit must be dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

The delivery of this opinion occupied about three hours and was listened to with profound attention by those in the crowded court room.

NET AND SEINE FISHING .- By an act approved April 27, 1855, the following section of an act to prevent the destruction of trout in the Letart Spring, in Cumberland county, was extended to the "tributaries running into the Juniata river, in Mifflin county :"

"If any person shall enter into and upon the premises of any owner of land on the said Letart Spring, at any time of the year, for the purpose of fishing in said Letart Spring, in said county, with seines or nets of any description, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten dollars for every such offence.

By the wording of this section it would appear that the act extending it to Mifflin county, not only prohibits net and seine fishing for trout in the tributaries of the Juniata, but for all other fish-in short, it prohibits net and seine fishing altogether in those waters, except with the approbation of the land owners, on whom it now rests to permit it .-As spring is the time when most fish ascend was a full and elaborate statement of the the waters of the different streams for the purpose of spawning, it is the very time of year when such fish ought not to be caught; and we have no doubt should the act be faithfully carried out for a few years, the Kishacoquillas, Jack's, and other streams would sconagain be alive with suckers, fall fish, &c.

For the Lewistown Gazette.

Mr. Editor-Having taken a stroll into the untry last week on one of those tine day in pursuit of pigeons, it brought me into that romantic place, Dry Valley, whose inhabi-tants are noted for that kind openheartedness which makes the stranger feel at home; and and as it was the eve of the exhibition of two of their public schools, I was invited to witness the performance, to which I readily consented, having had the pleasure of being present at a Sabbath School Exhibition at the same place last fall, of which I gave you an account at the time. Public Schools in the country being conducted on rather a loose system as a general thing, I did not expect nuch, but was most agreeably disappointed. the arrangement throughout being admirable reflecting much credit on the teachers, Messrs. Creighton and T. G. Bell, who I learn are held in high repute as such, and judging from the masterly performance of the scholars they are deserving.

The school met in Dry Valley M. E. Church which was decorated with much taste by the girls of the Valley, and to enliven the scene the performance was intermixed with songs, accompanied with music from the melodeon, which was performed by Miss H. Alexander and Miss Hoover-the latter for skill of per formance and melody of voice being hard to excel. But sir the whole thing was excellent, there were sixty pieces, Dialogues, Recita-tions, and Addresses, spoken by the scholars in a masterly manner, and listened to by at least four hundred people with perfect order.
