The official despatches give the details of an attempt, on the part of the Chinese, to re-take the Tee to-tum Fort and an attack on the British ships by a vast number of Chinese junks. The attack was well concerted, being made at low water, when the large ships could not manœuvre, but was brilliantly repelled. Admiral Seyur had abandoned the Dutch Fort and Pactory Gardens, and strengthened his tions lower down the river. Recruits were expected from Singapore. All the western suburbs of Canton were burned the 12th January, by the English. A rge fire had also occured inside the city. he Mandarins of the various districts d issued the most blood thirsty edicts ainst the English and had offered rewards ssassinations and incendiarism.

Gov. Geary could not, of course, have accomplished these results without coming into collision and exciting the enmity of the factions opposed to him, nor perhaps was his course entirely free from errors that pertain to human actions generally, and of the prompt exercise of power in circumstances of doubt and difficulty, but, giving all these considerations their proper weight, the fact still stands prominently out that mainly to his efficient and manly administration of the Kansas government of, on thefirst Monday of April next:series of exciting occurrences, the true merits of which it was difficult to understand, but which, occurring at a period when the country was involved in a heated political struggle, were exercising a disastrous influence in exasperating and perpet- Derry-Joseph Gruver, uating sectional differences. This was an accomplishment that it would be ungrateful to easily forget, and which should now have a potent influence in inducing the administration to send him back to the Governorship with such ample support as would at once settle the question as to the supremacy of the laws in that region. No other appointment, however good in itself, would so effectually quiet the renewed agitation in Kansas .- Baltimore American.

The Bellefonte Whig gives an account of a number of persons in "the great State of Snow Shoe," Centre county, disposing of Mc Veytown-Edwin Harner, a Mrs. Shealer, who, we presume, is a rather "gay" lady, in a very novel manner a few weeks ago. After having divested her of all her clothing, they gave her first a coat of honey and then a coat of feathers. The lady was lodging at a Mr. Foust's house, the roof of which was torn off, and his stable burned, by the regulators.
