his Convention of Delegates, repreing the Freemen of Pensylvania, op d to the leading weasures of the late ional Administration, and the continuof the same destructive policy clearoreshadowed by the acts and declaras of the administration just inaugurated,

Resolve, That the maintenance of the nciples promulgated in the Declaration independence, and embodied in the deral Constitution, is essential to the servation of our Republican institutions; the Federal Constitution, the liberof the people, the sovereign rights of States, and the Union of the States, st and shall be preserved.

Resolved, That with our Republican hers we hold it to be a self-evident truth, all men are created equal; that they endowed by their creator with certain alienable rights; that among these are , liberty and the pursuit of happiness; at to secure these rights, governments are ituted among men; and that the priary duty and object of our Federal Govment is to secure these rights to all rsons under its exclusive jurisdiction. hat as our Republican fathers abolished avery in all the national territory, and dained in the Constitution that no pern shall be deprived of life, liberty or operty, without due process of law," it omes our duty to maintain this provisn of the Constitution against all attempts violate it, for the purpose of establishing avery in the territories of the United tates. That we deny the authority of ongress, of the Supreme Court, of a Tertorial Legislature, of any individual or maintained. Resolved, That the Constitution confers pon Congress sovereign power over the erritories of the United States, for their overnment; a power not controverted for he first sixty years of our national exisence, but exercised by the general cousurrence of all departments of the Governent, through every Administration from VASHINGTON to POLK; and that in the exreise of this unquestionable power, it is he duty of Congres to prohibit in the erritories, those twin relies of barbarism, olygamy and Slavery. Resolved, THAT WE ARE VET FREEMEN, nd that while we retain the inestimable ghts of Freemen, secured to us by the acrifices, suffering and blood of our Revoitionary fathers, we will not submit to lave a new Constitution imposed upon us by the extra judicial opinions of Judges of the Supreme Court—opinions subversive of the rights of human nature-in conflict with the truth of history, with he unbroen action of the government and the law of the land, as heretofore pronounced by he Federal Judiciary, and the Courts of learly every State in the American Union. Resolved, That the recent opinions of he majority of the Judges of the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction, and therefore no authority to pronounce the law arising herein, is but another step in consummation of that conspiracy against our free institutions, which had its inception in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise; that it is the direct result of the late triumph of the Slave Power in the election of its candidate, JAMES BUCHANAN, to the Presidency, and unless promptly repuked by the people at the ballot-box, may be folowed by other usurpation fatal to the independence of the Free States and the lib. erties of our people,

Resolved, That the constitutional rights the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them .-Their territory has been invaded by an armed force; spurious and pretended legislative, judicial and executive officers have authority, sustained by the military power four from the Free, but at least seven out of Kopenheffer Geremi- White Samuel of the Federal Government, tyrannical and the nine are devoted to slavery. unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced; the right of the people to ling nature have been imposed as a condi- next week.

Resolved. That we invite the affiliation and co-operation of men of all parties, however differing with us in other respects, in support of the principles herein declared; and believing that the spirit of our in sociation of individuals, to give legal exis stitutions, as well as the Constitution of nce to Slavery in any territory of the our country, guarantees liberty of connited States, while the constitution shall science and equality of rights among citizens, we oppose all legislation impairing their security.

A Novel License Law .- In the New York Assembly Mr. Hanford has introducd a bill to license the drinkers of intoxicating liquors. It provides that no person shall drink strong liquors without first btaining a license which may be granted by any Justice of the Peace, on the folowing terms:

For a license to drink lager beer, currant or any domestic wines, 50 cents. For strong beer 75 cents

For whiskey and home made liquors, For French or any imported brandy,

For Champaign, Burgundy, or any foreign wine, 85. No married woman is to obtain a license Bilton Robert gross intoxication; but this section is not Collins James to apply to a licenced clergyman or mem- Causon John ber of the Press. No dealer is to serve li- Crawford A or E F Rauch J quor to a person without the production of the beense, and then only such liquor as s pamed therein.

The bill was referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The Supreme Court .- The Supreme Court of the United States is constituted as follows: Roger B. Taney, of Maryland.

John McLean, of Ohio. James W. Wayne, of Georgia. John Catron, of Tennesse Peter V. Daniel, of Virginia. Samuel Nelson, of New York. Benjamin Robins Curtis, of Massachusetts. Robert C. Grier, of Pennsylvania. John A. Campbell, of Alabama.

Of the foregoing, Messrs. McLean and Taney were appointed by General Jackson; Heriey Jacob Hutchinson H C Messrs. Catron and Daniel by Mr. Van Buren ; Mr. Nelson by Mr. Tyler, Mr. Curtis by Mr. Fillmore, and Mr. Campbell by Mr. Pierce. New Arrangements.

March 12, 1857.

A FTER returning our sincere thanks to our numerous friends and customers for their continued patronage, I would inform them that I am still to be found at

The Old Stand With a desire to bring my business nearly to CASH, after the first of April our credit terms will be Thirty Days and accounts not to exceed Fifty Dollars. We hope still to conduct our business so that we shall enjoy the good will of our numerous customers, and that the num-
