BUDISILL,

E AST Market street, Lewistown, opposite the Post Office, has just returned from the city with a large and elegant stock of Fashionable

HATS, CAPS, STRAW GOODS, &c., suitable for spring and summer wear, which, notwithstanding the advance of gimost everything else, he will dispose of at low pri-ces. His store has been fitted up with large cases, with glass fronts, so that the stock can be examined at a glance.

*.*He will manufacture to order any description of hats, (having the best of workmen in his employ and an abundant supply of material,) should his extensive stock fail to furnish a suitable article. Parents are especially invited to call and examine his variety of Children's Hats and Caps, comprising a first rate stock, from which they can make choice to please themselves.

His Omish friends will find they are not forgotten, and they may rest assured of finding an article to their taste, or can have one made at short notice.

Thankful for the patronage heretofore so lib-erally extended to him, he solicits his friends to call-those indebted to square up and begin anew-and any number of visitors from this or the neighboring counties, to take a look at him day or evening.
