FOR GOVERNOR: DAVID WILMOT, of Bradford county.
FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER: WILLIAM MILLWARD, of Philadelphia.
FOR SUPREME JUDGES: JOSEPH J. LEWIS, of Chester county. JAMES VEECH, of Fayette county.

Notices of New Advertisements.

By an advertisement under the proper head, it will be seen that an application for chartering a bank at this place, with somewhat novel (novel because secure) features in it, will be made to the next legislature of this State.—The applicants are men of property, and should the Legislature grant a charter on the terms proposed and the corporations go into operation, we have no doubt note-holders might feel perfectly at ease. The subject will however we presume be more fully explained hereafter, when the public will be enabled to judge of its utility and safety.

An Excursion Train over the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad will leave Huntingdon on the morning of the 4th July, which will afford visitors an opportunity of seeing the coal region at a cheap rate. It is well worth a visit, both on account of its coal and the road.

Those afraid of freckles and sunburn, or wishing to procure Davall's genuine Galvanic Oil, will call at the Bee Hive Drug Store.

A choice lot of Grindstones, suitable for mechanics and farmers, can be purchased at Mann's Axe Factory.

A partition and valuation of the real estate of David Hartzler will be made on the 18th July.

The goods in the People's Store are offered at less than cost.

Watts & Haffly give notice of a desire to close their accounts, "peaceably if they can, forcibly if they must."

Merchants dealing in salt are referred to the card of Carr, Giese & Co.

There was a change made in the arrival and departure of the cars on the 22d inst.

Kennedy, Junkin & Co. wish to buy 1000 pounds of wool.

Franciscus has received new lots of agricultural implements, lumber, &c.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.

In accordance with a custom adopted several years ago of not issuing a paper on 4th of July or Christmas weeks, no regular issue will appear next week. An extra, however, containing such legal advertisements as require publication, together with any extraordinary news, should such come to hand, will be sent out.

LITTLE DORRIT.—The last work by Charles Dickens has been re-published from advance sheets by T. B. Peterson of Philadelphia, at 50 cents in paper covers, and various other bindings at prices from 75 cents up to $5.—The work is a long one, the first part rather prosy, but the second decidedly good, winding up in that pleasant vein for which Boz is so famous. Copies of the work will be forwarded per mail, free of postage, on receipt of the price of the edition wanted. Address T. B. Peterson, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

Godley's Lady's Book for July contains 100 pages, 50 engravings altogether, and 60 contributors. The plates in the book are always good, and therefore need no commendation or special notice. This number commences volume 55, and is an excellent time for subscribing. Those who desire to do so will please call at this office, as we furnish both the Gazette and Lady's Book for $2.00 to present or new subscribers.

Conflicting Testimony.—Additional mystery, says the New York Commercial, is thrown around the "Burdell case" by the testimony given before the Surrogate. The murdered man appears to have been not only in two places at once—in Herkimer and New York—but to have been capricious beyond all precedent. The language, supported by the production of his letters, in which he spoke of Mrs. Cunningham and to her, was at one time fierce and almost brutal in its vindictiveness, and at other times tender almost to a woman. At one time he denies his marriage and at another he determines never to marry, and especially never to marry Mrs. Cunningham, and at another is openly making his arrangements for that event, and uniting his persuasions with hers to a lady to act as bride's maid. According to the sworn testimony of witnesses before the Surrogate, Dr. Burdell was ubiquitous in person, and in purpose and temper the climax of contradictions. We do not envy the excellent and learned Surrogate the task of deciding when sworn witnesses so widely disagree in their most common facts.

We caught 42 trout one afternoon recently, several of which measured over fourteen inches; and the beauty of the catching was that they were killed with a fly—not with a bait.—Standard.

Several is very indefinite—and as for killing 42 trout with a fly, that story may pass among the canal marines at Hollidaysburg, but with nobody else. We always kill ours with a hook, no matter whether a fly or bait covers it. Besides, we'll bet a four pound pike (not yet caught) our 12 1/2 incher outweighed any "Big Sarpent" of the Standard caught that afternoon.

Wm. Bratton it is said has got a call—to teach some young ideas how to blow.

SALE OF THE MAIN LINE.

The Supreme Court, on Tuesday last, decided against granting an injunction to prevent the sale of the Main Line, excepting only that part creating a contract with the Railroad Company, in case it became the purchaser, exempting certain property from State taxation forever. The Court decided—

1st. That the Legislature had constitutional authority to authorize the sale of the Main Line.

2d. That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company may lawfully become a purchaser at such sale.

3d. That the Legislature have constitutional authority to repeal the tollage tax.

4th. That the Legislature cannot bind the State by contract from imposing equal taxes; and that the condition of sale to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in that respect is void, and an injunction to that extent is granted.

5th. That in all other respects the sale may go on, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company may bid and purchase on the same terms as other corporations or individuals.

The order made by the Court is as follows: ORDER. It is ordered that upon the complainants, or either of them, filing a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by this Court, or any Judge thereof, conditioned to indemnify the defendants from all damages that may be sustained by the injunction granted in this motion, an injunction be awarded, commanding the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and its officers and agents named as defendants in this bill, to make no bid for or purchase of the Main Line of the Public Works under that part of the proviso in the third section of the act of 16th of May, 1857, which requires the said Company to pay in addition to the purchase money at which the Works may be struck down, the sum of one and a half millions of dollars, and in consideration thereof assumes to discharge forever the said railroad company, and also the Harrisburg, Portsmouth, Mount Joy and Lancaster Railroad Company from the payment of all taxes upon tonnage and freight over said railroads, and also to relieve the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company from the payment of all other taxes or duties on its capital stock, bonds, dividends or property, except for school, city, county, borough or township purposes. And also commanding the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and its officers and agents aforesaid, strictly to abstain from accepting any assignment on the terms stated in the aforesaid part of the said proviso, or executing, or delivering to the Treasurer of the State any bonds of the said Company, for any greater amount than the sum at which the Main Line of the Public Works may be struck down at a public sale, on a fair and equal competition with all other bidders. And also commanding the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company and its officers and agents aforesaid, strictly to abstain from accepting any transfer of the said Main Line of the Public Works from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, under the great seal of the State, founded upon, or in consideration of any purchases upon the terms herein prohibited. And also commanding Henry S. Mayne, the Treasurer of the State, strictly to abstain from accepting the delivery of any bonds executed by the said Pennsylvania Railroad Company upon the terms herein prohibited, or for any greater amount than the sum at which the said Main Line of the Public Works may be struck down at a fair public sale of the same, upon equal terms to all persons and corporations desiring to purchase.

And also commanding Andrew G. Curtin, Secretary of the Commonwealth, strictly to abstain from making any transfer of the said Public Works under the great seal of the State, upon the terms herein prohibited, or for any greater amount than the sum at which the said Works may be struck down at a fair public sale as aforesaid.

This Injunction to remain in force until hearing, or the further order of this Court.

Watermelons have made their appearance in the market at Savannah, Georgia.

Though writers talk of Kansas becoming a free state, we should like to see the figures before we'll believe it.

Dr. A. Rodrigue, formerly of Hollidaysburg, died in Leocompton, Kansas, on the 11th of June.

The Wheat Crop of South Carolina, it is said, will be the largest, this season, ever harvested in that State.

A well executed ten dollar counterfeit note on the Homestead Bank (Pa.) is announced in the New York papers.

Bad policy.—To make the enlargement proposed by our friend of the Lebanon Advertiser.

The Americans of Massachusetts have nominated H. N. P. Banks, late Speaker of the House at Washington, as their candidate for Governor.

Jacob Kishel, of Miles township, Centre county, killed a bear on the night of the 5th inst. after the animal had killed a number of his sheep. It weighed 470 lbs.

Strawberries.—Nine hundred and thirty-three barrels of this delicious fruit were sent to New York, last Saturday, from Keyport, N. J., per steamer.

The shipments of coal from the Broad Top mines for the week ending Thursday, June 18th, were 2,376 tons, for the year 33,158 tons.

H. C. Strouman of York, and Henry Frysinger, editor of the Lewistown Democrat, have been appointed to clerkships at Washington with salaries of $1200.

The Cincinnati bankers have thrown out the notes of the Seneca County Bank, Tiffin, Ohio, owing to the fact that only a portion of its bonds are in possession of the Auditor of the State.

Good news for Loafers.—The decision of Judge Pearson that a tavernkeeper has no right to turn any one away, no matter whether he thinks him or her able to pay for their lodging or not.

Struck by Lightning.—Last week, says the Bedford Inquirer, Mr. Spies, of Hopewell township, Bedford county, with three daughters were in the field planting corn. A thunderstorm arose and they all sought protection under a large tree, when they were struck by lightning. One of the daughters was instantly killed, and the father and other daughters were insensible for some time afterwards.

VALUE OF THE PUBLIC WORKS.

Mott in a Tight Place! There seems to be some difference between a Canal Commissioner when under a common and an uncommon oath, as it appears that Mr. Mott, President of the Canal Board, in his petition to the Supreme Court respecting the sale of the Main Line of the Public Works, states, upon his oath, that—

"The canals aforesaid are 285 miles in length, requiring heavy expenditures for repairs and expenses, and have not for many years yielded income sufficient to pay the cost of keeping them in navigable order."

Notwithstanding this hard swearing, Mr. Mott last year reported to the Legislature that the receipts of the canals proposed to be sold were as follows—see Canal Commissioner's Report, 1856:

Receipts, $249,891 93
Expenditures, 198,015 37

Alleged profits, $51,876 56

What do the taxpayers think of these statements? Mr. Mott swears the public works have never yielded enough to pay for keeping them in navigable order, yet as canal commissioner and politician he says they do pay! And then he don't want them sold because they don't pay. We should guess that Mr. Mott must be one of that class whom an old acquaintance of ours used to designate as "smart man, d—n fool!"

Mr. Mott seems to have been equally unfortunate in making an exhibit of "injuries" the State would receive from a sale, which the following will show:

The value of personal property, locomotives, cars, &c., on the Main Line, is stated in Mr. Mott's exhibit at $1,770,000 00

The true amount, at a fair valuation, as shown by the affidavit of Mr. Thomson and Mr. Foster, will not exceed 450,000 00

Mott's estimate is over-rated $1,320,000 00

It was admitted in court, by Mr. Mott's counsel, that his estimate was over-rated, but to what amount was not known.

Mr. Mott states the tonnage tax of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the year 1856 at $226,018 51

The true amount is 197,298 95

Mott's estimate is over-rated 28,719 56

The tax on dividends for 1856, is stated by Mr. Mott at 96,000 00

The true tax was 50,584 00

Over estimate by Mott $45,416 00

The tax imposed by law is five per cent. on the dividend. The stock is $12,646,000. The dividend declared is 8 per cent. This amounts on the whole stock to the sum of $50,584, as is shown by the books of the company—is sworn to by the officers—and will be seen by arithmetical calculations.

In a statement of Mott's Exhibits, purporting to be made up and certified by the Auditor General, a balance of $395,550 01 appears in favor of the State.

The expenditures being set down at $28,854 96

Mott states them at only $27,426 44

Being an under statement of $101,428 52 expenditures, and a consequent exaggeration of the net revenue to that amount.

It will also be remarked that even the Auditor General's statement, though $101,428 52 more than Mott's estimate, does not include any allowance for relaying the south track of the Columbia Railroad—or the new street in Columbia—or the new railroad of the Portage—nor any allowance for interest, nor any item carried to construction account. Making the proper charges to expenditures, there would be no balance in favor of the State, but an annual loss of at least half a million.

The losses by fire of the Lycoming Mutual Insurance Company for the past year amount to $135,718 22. The assets not being sufficient to meet the liabilities, a new assessment has been ordered.

A young lady, who had "mysteriously disappeared" from New York, was seen recently at Catskill, with a married man, who had also disappeared in the same way, from a wife and several children living at Ashland.

The Selingsgrove Democrat devotes a column and a half to a denial of our assertion that Mr. Wilmot acknowledges our naturalization laws defective, &c. There are none so blind as those who will not see.

In Marion county, Ohio, a few days ago, a man sued another for the rent of a house. On the trial, evidence was adduced that the house was haunted, and the jury decided that the defendant be paid $15 damages, instead of paying rent.

Jacob Matthias, Esq., Cashier of the Bank of Westminster, Md., in attempting to get on the cars while in motion at Hanover, York county, was thrown on the track, had both his legs cut off, and died in a few minutes thereafter.

A Water Spout.—Reports of remarkable atmospheric phenomena come from different portions of the country. In addition to the whirlwinds, hailstorms, &c., already noticed as having occurred in New York State and Connecticut, we have accounts of a water-spout in Massachusetts, and tremendous storms at the South.

A Painful Bereavement.—We have already recorded the death of seven children of the Rev. B. Hutchins, of Albion, Illinois, formerly of York, Pa. The Grayville Herald contains an obituary of the eighth, a daughter seven years old. Within a few weeks the parents have buried eight out of nine, all from scarlet fever.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Bobbing Round.—The Aurora editor thinks he will vote for Hazlehurst for Governor next fall. This announcement is quite as gratifying (perhaps more so) to the canal patriots as if he had announced his determination to vote for Packer, they caring not little for whom their opponents vote, so that they don't add to Wilmot's pile. He's the one they fear, and nobody else.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Jones's History of the Juniata Valley.—This work, containing a History of the Early Settlement of the Juniata Valley, has again been brought before the public by the liberality of Major B. F. Bell of Bell's Mills—than whom a more noble specimen of manhood Blair county cannot produce—and those desiring a copy of the work can procure it at the reduced price of $1 50, from Geo. W. EXGLISH, Esq., who has been appointed agent for its sale. Mr. E. is now in this county with a supply on hand. The book is well got up, neatly bound, and although not so full in some parts as might be desired, yet will afford the present generation an inkling of the toils and hardships endured by the forefathers of many now living in peace and plenty in spots where once was heard the shrill war-whoop of the aboriginal inhabitant. Chapters 7, 8 and 9 are particularly devoted to Mifflin county, and the reader will find this locality referred to in various parts of the work, which is highly creditable to the head and energy of its author, U. J. Jones. We will receive subscriptions for the book at this office, and obtain copies for those who may not meet with Mr. English.

KILLED BY THE CARS.—An unknown man was discovered on the railroad track on last Thursday morning, a few miles below town, having been apparently struck by the cow-catcher of one of the night trains, from the effects of which he died. An inquest was held over the body by Coroner McCord, but beyond being a German Catholic, no clue was obtained as to his name, business, destination or where from. He was destitute of money, and from the manner in which he was struck, it would appear as if he had been getting on the track, but whether intentionally or in ignorance of his danger it is difficult to tell.

ANOTHER BLACK BOTTLE.—Having used up the contents of Zerbe & Co's black bottles, one of a larger size made its appearance in our office a few days ago, labeled genuine Cogniac Brandy, being a specimen of that kept for medicinal purposes at the Bee Hive Drug Store, where everything and a little more seems to be kept for sale cheap. This bottle, we must confess, has put us in a quandary. It is a long time since we tasted anything of the kind, and not being on the sick list just now, we hesitate considerably between keeping it for "medical purposes" or mince pies, or giving a taste to sundry editors between the mouths of the Juniata and Allegheny, some of whom we know pretend to be judges of the article. Will some of our brethren give us advice on the subject?

We again spent a few days in the woods last week, but found the undergrowth, thorns, fern, &c., a serious impediment to sight and locomotion. The party, consisting of only three, caught some fine trout, and altogether had a pleasant trip. The recent warm weather however has had the effect of waking up snakes, and those who now frequent the wild woods, especially where springs abound, had better keep a sharp lookout for rattlers, vipers, and copperheads. On our return home we killed one of the first named, with ten rattles, after a considerable chase, the fellow at first being more disposed to run than fight.

P. M.—The race for Postmaster at Lewistown, which had been on the carpet for some weeks, came off on Thursday last, and resulted in Dr. S. S. Cummings coming out ahead 1 1/2 inches of the present incumbent, and about 2 1/2 ahead of the other candidates. It is not positively known how the doctor succeeded in beating his competitors, as all the remainder had reputations for good bottom, but we hear it rumored that his medical skill compounded a dusty powder which he managed to throw into his opponents' eyes, and thus blinded them a little. Well, we are half sorry that the thing is over, as, with the comet, it afforded a subject for conversation and surmise to half the population when nothing else of interest could be got up, all of which is now laid on the shelf. For depriving them of this resort, the Dr. ought at the least to treat the town to ice cream and strawberries some fine evening between this and the fourth of July. The office we believe will be removed to his former location in the house of M. Montgomery, Esq.

Most of the business places will be closed on the 4th.

It is rumored that a "Horn Band" is about being formed, one of the by-laws of which provides that each member shall pay for his own "horns." General Treater is to be Captain.

THE MUSIC OF THE RAIN.

BY AMARINTE AVOURNEEN.

White the resper bells were ringing,
When the birds had ceased their singing,
To my heart sweet music was bringing
Voices which were ever ending;

Came the music of the rain,
My childhood-days so bright and fleeting
They rain-drops seemed repeating,
Waking joy at thoughts of meeting
Those I never may see again.

Mem'ries sweet and sad were blending,
Joy and sorrow both were blending
Like the stars of Heaven beaming,
Sweet the music of the rain.

From my heart I may not sever
Mem'ry's index, pointing ever
Backward to the joys that never
Will revisit me again.

To-day is full of sorrow,
Like the stars of Heaven beaming,
When I first saw you in morning
Whisper ever, hope in me.

Like sweet hap-drops touched all lightly—
Come the faint-drops we're sighing—
Drops the fair-drops smiling brightly,
Dripping from each waving tree.

Jewels blossoms brightly gleaming
Like the stars of Heaven beaming,
While a muffled voice is humming
Still to him the mystic strain.

Music of these flowing numbers
Lulls the heart to dreamy slumbers,
Waking still a thousand wonders
Of the magic voice of rain.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

June 22d.—At the Avenue Drove Yard, yesterday, 450 hogs were sold, at prices ranging from 10 to 12 1/2. The market closed dull, with prices tending downward. There was an abundance of sheep, but very little activity in the market; about 8000 were sold at from $2 50 to 5 50 apiece, or from 8 to 10c per lb, net. 150 cows of first quality were sold at from $40 to 60; middlelings, at 20c 3/4; dry cows, from $15 to 25. The tendency of all kinds of stock was downward, and there is a prospect of beef and mutton soon reaching old fashioned prices.

Union Drove Yard.—The arrivals at Singler's Union Drove Yard for the week ending June 22, 1857, were 2575 hogs and about 50 horses. Hogs are selling readily from $9 1/2 to $1 1/2 per 100 lbs net; about 800 were sold to the packers, and the balance were sold to the butchers.

Flour, Grain, &c.

The Flour market is very dull, and prices rather favor buyers. There is very little inquiry for shipment, and the only transactions reported are a few hundred bbls extra at $7 1/2 to $8 1/2 bbl. Mixed brands of superfine are offered at $7 3/4 to $7 50 without finding buyers. Small sales for the supply of the retailers and bakers within the range of our former quotations. There has been more inquiry for Rye Flour, and 300 bbls sold in lots at $4 75. Corn Meal is scarce and firm at $4 75 bbl.

Grain.—The market is poorly supplied with Wheat, and it is wanted. Small sales of red at 1850/1850c per bu, and 400 bu prime white at 190c. Rye is steady at 110c. Corn has again declined 1 cent—sales of 2000 bu yellow at 85c about, a small lot at 87c, and some white at 85c. Oats are lower—4000 bu prime Penna sold at 59c, and 2000 bu Delaware at 58c per bu.
