Notices of New Advertisements.

By an advertisement under the proper head, it will be seen that an application for chartering a bank at this place, with somewhat novel (novel because secure) features in it, will be made to the next legislature of this State .--The applicants are men of property, and should the Legislature grant a charter on the terms proposed and the corporators go into operation, we have no doubt noteholders might feel perfectly at ease. The subject will howjudge of its utility and safety.

An Excursion Train over the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad will leave Huntingdon on the morning of the 4th July, which will afford visitors an opportunity of seeing the coal region at a cheap rate. It is well worth a visit, both on account of its coal and the road.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.

In accordance with a custom adopted several years ago of not issuing a paper on 4th of July or Christmas weeks, no regular issue will appear next week. An extra, however, containing such legal advertisements as re quire publication, together with any extraordinary news, should such come to hand, will be sent out.

SALE OF THE MAIN LINE. The Supreme Court, on Tuesday last, decided against granting an injunction to pre-Railroad Company, in case it became the purchaser, exempting certain property from State taxation forever. The Court decided-

1st. That the Legislature had constitutional authority to authorize the sale of the Main Line.

2d. That the Pennsylvania Railroad Company may lawfully become a purchaser at such sale.

3d. That the Legislature have constitutional authority to repeal the tonnage tax.

4th. That the Legislature cannot bind the State by contract from imposing equal taxes; and that the condition of sale to the Penn- sold were as follows-see Canal Commissionsylvania Railroad Company in that respect is void, and an injunction to that extent is granted. but

5th. That in all other respects the sale may ge on, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company may bid and purchase on the same terms as other corporations or individuals.

VALUE OF THE PUBLIC WORKS. Mott in a Tight Place!

There seems to be some difference between vent the sale of the Main Line, excepting a Canal Commissioner when under a common only that part creating a contract with the and an uncommon oath, as it appears that Mott, President of the Canal Board, in Mr. his petition to the Supreme Court respecting the sale of the Main Line of the Public Works, states, upon his oath, that :---

"The canals aforesaid are 283 miles in length, requiring heavy expenditures for repairs and expenses, and have not for many years yielded income sufficient to pay the cost of keeping them in navigable order."

Notwithstanding this hard swearing, Mr. Mott last year reported to the Legislature that the receipts of the canals proposed to be them in navigable order, yet as canal commissioner and politician he says they do pay! And then he don't want them sold because they don't pay. We should guess that Mr. may not meet with Mr. English. Mott must be one of that class whom an old acquaintance of ours used to designate as "smart man, d-n fool !"

Mr. Mott seems to have been equally unfortunate in making an exhibit of "injuries" the State would receive from a sale, which the following will show :

ation, as shown by the affidavits of Mr. Thomson and Mr.
Foster, will not exceed 450,000	00

Mott's estimate is over-rated $1,320,000 00

It was admitted in court, by Mr. Mott's counsel, that his estimate was over-rated, but to what amount was not known. Mr. Mott states the tonnage tax of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for the year 1856 at $226,018 51 The true amount is 197,298 95

Mott's estimate is over-rated 28,719 56 The tax on dividends for 1856, is 50.584 00

The tax imposed by law is five per cent. on the dividend. The stock is $12,646,000. The dividend declared is 8 per cent. This amounts on the whole stock to the sum of $50,584, as is shown by the books of the the State, founded upon, or in consideration company -- is sworn to by the officers-and will be seen by arithmetical calculations.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Jones's History of the Juniata Valley .-This work, containing a History of the Early Settlement of the Juniata Valley, has again been brought before the public by the liberality of Major B. F. Bell of Bell's Millsthan whom a more noble specimen of manhood Blair county cannot produce-and those desiring a copy of the work can procure it at the reduced price of $1 50, from GEO. W. ENGLISH, Esq., who has been appointed agent for its sale. Mr. E. is now in this county with a supply on hand. The book is well got up, neatly bound, and although not so full in some parts as might be desired, yet will afford the present generation an inkling of the toils and hardships endured by the forefathers of many now living in peace and plenty in spots where once was heard the shrill war-whoop of the aboriginal inhabitant. Chapters 7, 8 and 9 are particularly devoted What do the taxpayers think of these state- to Mifflin county, and the reader will find ments? Mr. Mott swears the public works this locality referred to in various parts of have never yielded enough to pay for keeping the work, which is highly creditable to the head and energy of its author, U. J. Jones. We will receive subscriptions for the book at

> KILLED BY THE CARS .- An unknown man was discovered on the railroad track on last Thursday morning, a few miles below town, having been apparently struck by the cowcatcher of one of the night trains, from the effects of which he died. An inquest was held over the body by Coroner McCord, but beyond being a German Catholic, no clue was obtained as to his name, business, destination 00 00 or where from. He was destitute of money, and from the manner in which he was struck, it would appear as if he had been setting on the track, but whether intentionally or in ignorance of his danger it is difficult to tell.

ANOTHER BLACK BOTTLE .- Having used up the contents of Zerbe & Co's black bottles, one of a larger size made its appearance in our office a few days ago, labeled genuine Cogniac Brandy, being a specimen of that Wheat, and it is wanted. kept for medicinal purposes at the Bee Hive at 185@186c ? bu, and 400 bu prime white Drug Store, where everything and a little more seems to be kept for sale cheap. This bottle, we must confess, has put us in a 96,000 00 quandary. It is a long time since we tasted anything of the kind, and not being on the sick list just now, we hesitate considerably between keeping it for "medical purposes" or mince pies, or giving a taste to sundry editors between the mouths of the Juniata and Allegheny, some of whom we know pretend to be judges of the article. Will some of our brethren give us advice on the subject?

Whispers ever, hope in me

Like sweet harp-strings touched all lightly-Dreams the fairies weave us nightly-Come the fain-drops smiling brightly,

Jeweled blossoms brightly gleaming Like the stars of Heaven beaming, While a muffied voice is seeming
