WHEREAS, A number of candidates have been announced for several of the offices to be filled this fall, and this meeting regarding a duplication of candidates in opposition to the so-called democratic ticket as suicidal to all concerned—therefore

Resolved, That it be recommended to all opposed to the present National Administration and to the county ticket nominated by the patent democracy, to meet in their several townships and boroughs on SATURDAY AFTERNOON, August 15th, 1857, at the usual places for holding delegate elections, and elect two delegates from each district to assemble in convention at Lewistown on Monday, 17th August, for the purpose of forming a county ticket; and that all candidates now announced, as well as those who may yet announce themselves, be and are hereby requested to submit their claims to

The above will remind our readers that the election of delegates to a county convention, to be held on Monday next, will take place on Saturday, when we hope all who feel interested in concentrating the strength of the opposition-if there is to be any opposition at all-against the nominated ticket, will take part in the matter and see that proper men are selected for the occasion. For our part, we should prefer to see the delegates to be elected unpledged to any for any office, so that when they meet for consultation, they can survey the field, without partiality, and having done so, if deemed expedient, recommend a People's Ticket worthy to be supported. Such a course is undoubtedly the proper one, for if half a dozen independent candidates run for each office, the result will inevitably be the election of the patent democratic ticket from a to z.

Several months ago, when the democracy were apparently united, but few would have been willing to risk a contest against a nominated ticket; but no sooner is the fact developed that the party is not on as loving terms as two darkies in a sugar hogshead, than half a dozen at once imagine themselves the men for the occasion, and seem determined if every one don't think with them, nobody else shall have even a chance. Now this is all folly. In the first place we want union, harmony, and concert of action; hence, when there are conflicting claims, an umpire ought to be appointed, who, judging to the best of his ability, must decide between them, and when fairly decided, without bargain or intrigue, all ought to submit. That umpire, in political affairs, is either the people in their primary elections, or a county convention. Of the gentlemen thus far named, we should be willing to support zealously a ticket so selected from among them, but as for embarking in a "wild goose chase" with half a dozen independents pitted against one nominated, we would quite as soon help our locofoco friends to beat them right, as aid them in their folly.

THE SPANISH COINS .- The business men of Trenton, N. J., have continued to receive the old Spanish coins at their former value, and there is now such an accumulation of them in that city, that a publie meeting is about to be called to take the matter into consideration. This is pretty much the case here so far as regards defaced quarters and levies, and must ultimately result in loss to some one. The Banking House, stores, tradesmen, &c. cught to set a day when they will cease to take them at their old rates, give notice of the fact, and then adhere to it. The post office and the lancaster Express says: "For thirty years past he had had a pious and exemplary Christian life, was in easy circumstances, and had no apparent cause for the morbid residual control of the lancaster Express says: "For thirty years past he had had a pious and exemplary Christian life, was in easy circumstances, and had no apparent cause for the morbid residual control of the lancaster Express says: "For thirty years past he had had a pious and exemplary Christian life, was in easy circumstances, and had no apparent cause for the morbid residual control of the lancaster Express says: "For thirty years past he had had had a pious and exemplary Christian life, was in easy circumstances, and had no apparent cause for the lancaster Express says: "For thirty years past he had had had no apparent cause for the lancaster expression of the lancaster expr take them, and those who go to the latter his mind."

Mrs. Couningham's Case.-The New York papers continue to be filled with the most disgusting details of the attempt of Mrs. Cunningham to foist an heir on the Burdell estate, brief mention of which we made last week. Her examination has resulted in her arrest, and if not saved by some technicality she will probably find rooms in the penitentiary. Her two elder daughters are said to be in the deepest distress, and the youngest, Georgiana, aged 14, has become so bewildered that she seems to be scarcely aware of what is going on. The daughters are generally acquitted of any complicity in the recent

Dr. Burdell's estate is estimated to be worth between $40,000 and $50,000, and comprises the houses Nos. 2 and 31 Bond street, with some real estate in Herkimer county and Elizabethport. The leading heirs are Wm. Burdell, a brother of Dr. Burdell, who resides in Ohio; Lewis Burdell, a brother residing at New York; bargains. He has also constantly on hand James B. Burdell a brother residing in Wisconsin; and four children of John Burdell, a brother deceased.

> The Elections .- In North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Kentucky the Democrats have swept the board. In Missouri Rollins, American, for Governor, is probably elected. He is in favor of the emancipation of slaves in the State.

In Iowa, returns from twenty-six counties give a majority of 3267 for the new Constitution, and the counties yet to be heard from will probably increase this majority. The struggle for and against the constitution seems to have been made a party issue, the Democrats unanimously opposing the ratification. If the new constitution is carried, the elections hereafter will be held in October.

GREEN HAIR.—The Bulletin Therapeutique contains a curious case of a worker in metals, who has wrought in cop-per only five months, and whose hair, which was lately white, has now turned to a decided green. that it owes its change of color. THE FATERE OF RATTLESNAKES .- On the 11th ult. ummer and consequent luxuriance of vegetation, render precautionary measures in this region absolutely necessary, as should a rapid decay take place there is more than usual danger of chills, fevers, &c. A few years ago, when the cholera broke out at Patterson, "fear" perhaps more than anything else, had the effect of inducing even those who seemingly delighted to live in dirt and filth to pay unusual attention to cleaning and liming their premises, but as the danger passed away and unusual good health prevailed for some years afterwards, too many are again relapsing into carelessness and indifference. This, in our opinto produce a sickly season as anything that human ingenuity can adopt; and if more disinfecting agents, we fear such a season will be chronicled this year. Some of the causes that may produce it are, it is true, beyond human control, but cleanliness in Wm. Creighton, Guardian of the estate of and around dwellings, out-houses, stables, John B. Alexander, was authorised to dispose pens, &c. is within the reach of all, and ought not to be neglected. "An ounc prevention," let all remember, "is worth a oound of cure."

Holloway's Ointment and Pills .- The taint of scrofula has been known to run through the blood of half a dozen generations. The eeds of all virulent eruptions and ulcerous distempers exist in the animal fluids, and will be inevitably transmitted from parents to children unless rooted out of the system by a preparation capable of utterly neutralizing the virus in the channels of circulation. -Holleway's Ointment is such a preparation and there is none like it in the whole range of pharmacy. The poison which produces and perpetuates external disease, cannot resist its diligent and antiseptic properties. scrofula, cancer, tumor, salf-rheum, &c., have become hereditary, it literally cuts off the entail. It is desirable that the Pills should be given occasionally in all cases which require the Ointment.

BEA. Du Vall's Galvanic Oil has done more good, performed more cures, and relieved more pain than any other medicine in the known world. It has cured a wonderful case of Spine Disease, in the person of Mary Ann Martie, Troy, and many others could be mentioned.
