PROGRESSIVE AGRICULTURE. The N. Y. Observer says the following good things of progressive agriculture :

Under its influence spring up tasty and convenient dwellings, adorned with shrubs and flowers, and beautiful within with the smiles of happy wives, tidy children in the lap of thoughtful age-broad hearths, and acts as well as words of welcome. Progressive agriculture builds barns and puts gutters on them, builds stables for cattle, and raises roots to feed them. It grafts wild apple trees by the meadow with pippins or greenings-it sets out new orchards, and takes care of the old ones.

It drains low lands, cuts down bushes, buys a mower, house-tools and wagons, keeps good fences, and practices soiling .-It makes hens lay and chickens live, and prevents swine from rooting up meadows. Progressive agriculture keeps on hand plenty of dry fuel, and brings in the oven wood for the women. It plows deeply, sows plentifully, harrows evenly, and prays for the blessing of Heaven. Finally, it subscribes for good religious, agricultural, and family journals, and pays for them in advance, advocates free schools, and always takes something besides the family to the county fair.'

THE SECKEL PEAR .- The seckel is the best native pear known; has a high, spicy, honeyed flavor. It bears its fruit in clusters at the ends of the branches. It ripens from the first of September to the last of October. It was sent to Europe by Dr. Hosack, in 1819, and the fruit was pronounced by the London Horticultural Society exceeding in flavor the richest and best of their Autumn pears. The fruit is very small except on rich land. The following account is given of the origin of this pear : 'About 80 years ago, there was a well known sportsman and cattle dealer in the city of Philadelphia, who was familliarly known as 'Dutch Jacob.' Every season, early in the autumn, on returning from his shooting excursions, Dutch Jacob regaled his neighbors with pears of an unusually delicious flavor, the secret of whose place of growth, however, he would never Stoves for parlor, store, office aid shop, at HOFFMAN'S. satisfy their curiosity by divulging. At length the Holland Land Company, own-- ing a considerable tract south of the city, disposed of it in parcels, and Dutch Jacob then secured the ground on which his favorite pear tree stood, a fine tract of land near the Delaware. Not long afterwards it became the farm of Mr. Seckel, who introduced this remarkable fruit to public notice, and it received his name. Afterwards the property was added to the vast estate of the late Stephen Girard. The original tree still exists, (or did a few years its pears were quite lately exhibited at the annual show of the Pennsylvania Horticultaral Society .- Country Gentleman. Soft Corn, or Nubbins .- A farmer says: "If I were asked the question, what could I feed soft corn to with the most advantage, I would say, to milk cows, as they will eat both cob and corn, and it not only increases the quantity of milk but adds very much to the quality of butter; besides, milch cows late in the fall need something of this kind, as they leave pasture to go to hay, or they will soon fail in their milk, particularly if they have been milked all summer. If you feed nubbins to hogs, as is commonly done, they only eat a part of the corn and not the cob, and of this kind of corn. there is a vast deal of substance in the eob."

Hover's Dye. "GIRARD ROW, CAESTNUT STREET,)

Philadelphia, December 22d, 1853.) In regard to Hover's Hair Dye, I can state un-besitatingly, that it contains no deleterious ingredients, and may be used with entire safety, and with the utmost confidence and success." W. D. BRINCKLE, M. D.

HOVER'S WRITING AND INDELIBLE INKS are so well and widely known as to require no eulogy of their merits; it is only necessary to say that the steady and increasing demand gives the best evidence that they maintain their char-acter for superiority, which distinguished them when first introduced, years ago.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS. M. M. FAXON'S

Attachment of Vulcanized India Rubber Spring to the Tubes of Grain Drills. THE undersigned, having perfected an arrangement for the attachment of a Gum Spring to the Tubes and Drag Bars of Grain Dellis, is happy to inform Farmers and all others interested in the growing of Wheat and other grains, that he is prepared to furnish GRAIN DRILLS, with the above article attached, at the shortest notice, at his Foundry, in McVeytown, Pa. Seedershave become an almost indispensable article to the Farmer, and he will find that the attachment of the Gum Spring will enhance its value at least one-half. All the deten tion and trouble caused by the breaking of wooden pins is entirely done away with by this arrangement, and a man, or boy, can perform nearly double the labor that he could under the old plan, with much greater case, both to himself and horses. There need he no for of the Spring breaking, for if there is an article that will neither break, rot, or wear out, the Gum Spring is that article, and I hazard nothing in saying that my Grain Drill is the sim-plest in construction, most economical in performance, and therefore the most durable ever offered to the agricultural public The feed is so arranged that it will sow 1, 14, 14, 14, and 2 bushels per acre. Persons desiring one for the coming seeding are requested to send in their orders as early as possible. Direct to McVeytown, Mif-flin county. Pa., or F G FRANCISCUS, Lewistown; E. L.
