What the Farmers say : A late writer says that "the various species of vermi are multiplying at a fearful rate throughout the land. Their ravages have become a matter of serious dread.' A Postmaster in Hintois, writing to "Costar's" Depot, says, "The country is literally overrun with them, (rate, mice, &c. ") Another, from the same State, says, "The rats positively gnaw the halters off my horses while in the stable." An Ohio correspondent remarks, "They che rats) are everywhere—in the house, the barn, and under e "ary stump in the field." In the South it is still worse. THE first hospital surgeons and medical publicless. Europe admit the unparalleled anti-inflammatory a heating properties of this Gintment; governments as then its use in their naval and military services; and masses in this country and throughout the world representation. he utmost confidence in its curative properties. It is etrates the sources of inflammation and corruption which underlie the external evidences of disease, and neotro ize the flery elements which feed and exaspersic ti Rheumatism, Scrofula, Erysipelas. These are among the most terrible and a their worst forms, and when seemingly incurable, the nvariably disappear under a persevering application in this southing, healing antidote to pain and inflamma Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Stiff Joints. In cases of Sali Rheum, where medical waters, lorings and every recipe of the pharmacopus have proved a Deless, the Ointment will accomplish a thorough core. For ver Sores heal quickly under its influence, and its pelaxing effect upon contracted sinews is truly wonderful.

Discharging Ulcers.

A most remarkable and happy change is produced in the appearance of malignant ulcers after a few applica-tions of this Ointment. The surrounding redness van-ishes, and granules of healthy flesh begin to take the place of the discharged matter. This process goes on more or less rapidly until the orifice is filled up with sound material, and the ulcer radically cured.

A Word to Mothers. The young are most frequent sufferers from external injuries, and therefore every nother should have this healing preparation constantly at hand. It is an absolute specific for sore breasts, and quickly removes the encrusted sores which sometimes disfigure the heads and faces Significant Facts. This Ointment is universally used on board the Atlantic and Pacific whating fleet as a cure for scorbatic affect tions, and as the best possible remedy for wounds and bruises. Large supplies of it have recently been ordered by the Sultan of Turkey for hospital purposes. Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following Cases: Bunions Lumbago Sore Legs Braids
