

knife and carpenter's saw, and after much trouble succeeded in getting them sufficiently sharp to perform his bloody work. After cutting the body up he procured a common whiskey barrel, put the limbs in, after burning such parts of her clothing as had blood spots on them, and headed it up. On turning the barrel over he saw water and blood coming out from the bung hole. He took it out and threw in a quantity of flour to staunch it, put up all the cracks and painted it all over.

Early in the morning of the 16th of March, after keeping the body ten days in his room, he met a drayman on Clark street bridge, and asked him to take the barrel to the depot. The drayman consented, and went up to his room. He proceeded to roll it down stairs. Jumpertz, fearful that the barrel might burst, requested him to carry it down stairs, but he refused, and rolled it down the way he had commenced, the body rattling against the sides of the barrel, all the way down, filling him with dread and apprehension, lest the drayman should discover his secret. The body was finally got to the depot and shipped to New York that morning.

Thus ends for the present, this tale of blood and horror. The greater part of it is his own version, taken from his own lips. Whether he is guilty of the terrible crime of murder, the Courts will determine, and it is not for us to say, but his own story shows him to be a thoroughly vitiated and hard-hearted man.

NOTICES OF NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

An Election for officers of the Odd Fellows Hall Company will be held on the 20th instant.

A. Felix has fitted up two ice cream saloons at the intersection of Valley and Mill streets.

P. F. Loop notifies those indebted to him to pay up.

A change has been made in the arrival of the railroad trains.

A notice to taxpayers and one to the Masonic fraternity also appear.

THE USURY LAW.

The Assembly of this State, on the day before its adjournment, passed finally the bill relative to the rates of interest. It goes into operation from and after the 4th of July next, and establishes the rate at 6 per cent. per annum, where no express contract is made to the contrary. Where a higher rate than 6 per cent. is agreed on, the aid of law is withheld from the lender for the collection of the excess or usury; but where the usury is paid by the borrower, the aid of the law is likewise withheld from him for the recovery of it back, unless suit for the same is commenced within six months. In cases where usury is taken in advance, the borrower has a right to deduct and withhold the amount paid above 6 per cent. in the payment of the principal. The real object of this law is to facilitate usurious or illegal interest on money loans, although its apparent design is to check it. It repeals those portions of the old law that forbid the taking of more than 6 per cent., and indirectly legalizes contracts or "shaves" for the use of money at any rate of interest the parties may agree upon.

We have Blackwood's Magazine and the Westminster Review for April, from the press of Leonard Scott & Co., New York, on our table. The contents of the Westminster are as follows: 1. The Religion of Positivism; 2. Recollections of Shelley and Byron; 3. China: Past and Present; 4. Party Government; 5. The Boscobel Tracts; 6. Our Relation to the Princes of India; 7. Medical Reform; 8. Organization of the War Department; Contemporary Literature. The British Reviews are published by the above firm at the following rates:

For any one of the four Reviews,	$3 00
For any two of the four Reviews,	5 00
For any three of the four Reviews,	7 00
For all four of the Reviews,	9 00
For Blackwood's Magazine,	3 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews,	9 00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews,	10 00

Remittances for any of the above publications should always be addressed, postpaid, to the publishers, LEONARD SCOTT & CO., No. 54 Gold street, New York.

The Great Buffalo Hunt.—The headquarters of the great buffalo hunt, in which Mohamud Pasha, a bey of Congressmen and a lot of diplomatists are to take part next July, will be established at Breckenridge, which is at the head of steam navigation on the Red River of the North. From this point for full five hundred miles the Red River of the North, navigable for heavy draft steamers, rolls down the richest and most magnificent valley in the world. Its attractions for emigration are unequalled; rich in products, with a mild and even temperature. Through the country roam the buffalo and elk, the hunting of which will prove a noble sport to those composing the party. The expedition will leave St. Cloud, on the Mississippi River, about the middle of July, and proceed directly to Breckenridge, and Mr. George F. Boott, of Minnesota, offers to convey all editors of the press throughout the Union, who desire to accompany the expedition, from St. Cloud to the hunting grounds and back to St. Cloud free of expense. Proper vouchers will be required.

Hon. John J. Pearson, an able and upright Judge, is spoken of as a proper candidate for the Supreme Bench of this State. No better selection could be made.

THE LIQUOR LAW.

The Easton Times of Tuesday says an incident occurred in the Court there on Friday last, which has been the occasion of much lively discussion and remark, as well as no small amount of merriment at the expense of the Legislature in general and of Mr. Representative Goepf in particular. To fairly understand the "joke," it must be recollected that the new License Law originated in the House of Representatives, and was designed to inaugurate free trade in selling liquor—to take from the Courts all discretion in the granting of license—and to make it obligatory on them to grant to every applicant whose papers were in due form, without inquiry into the necessity of the house for the accommodation of the public. The Senate demurred to this feature of the bill, and amended, so as to allow an inquiry into the necessity of the license, but by the pertinacity of the House, was compelled to yield the point, and the free trade bill of the House became a law as now in force.

On Friday a number of new applicants came up before the court of Northampton county, and were confidently pressed, upon the ground that their necessity for the accommodation of the public was not to be considered—that having complied with the forms of the law, they were entitled to their licenses as a matter of course, and that the Court could not refuse them. Gov. Reeder, however who was adversely employed, took the ground that the Legislature were entirely mistaken as to the meaning and effect of the law they had passed—that it had no such operation as was generally ascribed to it, and that in fact, the Court was bound to inquire under the old law, whether the tavern proposed was necessary for the accommodation of the public, and if, in their opinion, it was not so necessary, they must reject any application.

The matter was argued on Friday evening and Saturday morning, and the Times says Gov. Reeder so clearly and conclusively established his position that there can remain no doubt upon the subject. Nearly, if not quite all the members of the bar concur in the opinion that the argument cannot be answered, and the citizens generally are of the same opinion. But what turns the joke completely upon Mr. Goepf is, that the Court subsequently gave their opinion, sustaining Gov. Reeder's position, and refusing to grant licenses to all the parties applying, except one, which is held under advisement until the 14th of June. The Times thus concludes:

"Singularly enough, the counsel for the applicants was Mr. Goepf, who was chairman of the Judiciary Committee in the House, and has the reputation of having prepared the bill. He is certainly an able lawyer, and a clear-headed logical man, and yet, we are told, he was unable to meet the position taken by Gov. Reeder, and argued the question in such a manner as to convey the impression that he was convinced against his will. We are not learned in the law, but we understand that the position is based on the legal operation of a proviso in the sixth section of the new law, and also by the argument that by the repeal of a repealing law the third section of the act of 1834 was unexpectedly revived. It is generally considered as a capital joke upon the legislature."

The third section of the act of 1834, above referred to, is as follows:

"No court shall license any inn or tavern which shall not be necessary to accommodate the public and entertain strangers or travelers."

Whether Gov. Reeder and the Court are right or not in their view of the law, the tables have certainly been nicely turned upon Mr. Goepf, the author of the new license law!

[If the above interpretation of the liquor law be correct, the temperance men who favored "free trade" in liquor with the hope that a reaction would thus be created and a prohibitory law passed, must try something else. To us such a doctrine appears unsound, because we have always considered it far easier to keep sober men sober than to reform drunkards.]

The officeholders at Washington now get the U. S. Marine Band to serenade Buchanan and call it a compliment from the people.

FIRST RESPONSE

To the English Lecompton Juggle!
We briefly noticed last week the rout of the Irish democracy in Philadelphia.—The Old line Whigs, Americans, Republicans, and Anti-Lecompton Democrats had united upon the following City Ticket:

Mayor—Alexander Henry.
Solicitor—Henry T. King.
Comptroller—George W. Hufty.
Receiver of Taxes—A. I. Flomerfelt.
Commissioner—E. R. Williams.

This ticket—forgetting all past foolish bickerings—they just went to work and elected by 4,000 majority, carrying 17 out of the 24 Wards. The Daily News says the result—upon the heels of the three days' old English bill—created a livelier thrill of joy than any event in the history of the City since the news of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. Forney glories over it as an anti-Lecompton victory and warning to Buchanan. The "Ledger" says:

As soon as the election became known, a procession was formed in the Fourteenth Ward, and, headed by a band, they proceeded to Third street, and serenaded the newspaper offices. At the office of the North American, Mr. McMichael, on being called for, congratulated the gathering on the signal victory gained. It would, he said, strike terror into the hearts of those assembled at Washington, and in 1860 he hoped they would erect their banners in the White House, with the inscription, "To American Labor." (Applause.)—This consummation could only be effected by a continuance of the present union.

Charles Gilpin also addressed the multitude; after which, the line of march was again taken up for Mr. Henry's residence, Pine street, above Fifteenth, when Mr. Henry appeared and thanked them for the honor they had conferred on him by electing him to the Chief Magistracy of the city, and he hoped, with the help of God, to faithfully discharge the duties he had imposed upon him. In regard to the election, he considered it more than a mere municipal contest; it was a contest which showed conclusively to those in Washington that the rights of freemen could not be invaded with impunity.

Henry T. King, R. T. Conrad and William B. Mann also addressed the assembly.

The stock of the Central Bank, Hollidaysburg, has at last been taken.

A young man in New York advertised for a wife. In less than two hours, we are told, eighteen married men sent in word that he might have them.

Jacob Swipes, a German butcher, residing near Detroit, eloped with the wives of a farmer named Fulmaer and a man named Snyder, on the 25th ult.

Miss Helen Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. Cunningham-Burdell, was married in Jersey City on Sunday last, to a young dentist of that city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Van Cleef.

6000 acres of public lands near Council Bluffs have been withdrawn from market since the passage of the Kansas bill, and now stand in the name of three members of Congress, of whom Mr. English is said to be one!

The locktenders between Pittsburgh and Johnstown have been discharged, and watchmen appointed along the line who walk the towpath for a specified distance daily. We think something like this has been adopted on this side of the mountains.

John R. Moore, of Danville, wants information of his son, aged about 19 years, small for his age, light complexion, light hair, and rather pleasant countenance, who ran away in February last, and it is said had engaged himself to work on a farm about two miles from Lewistown.

Among the bidders to supply the U. S. Treasury with gold coin in exchange for treasury notes, we notice some of our Pennsylvania banks. It seems to us they had better keep the coin in their own vaults, as there is no telling when it may be called for by note-holders or depositors.

The actual receipts of the U. S. Treasury for the quarter ending March 31st were, in round numbers, $7,500,000—the expenditures $17,500,000! One of Gen. Jackson's sayings was that those who trade on borrowed capital ought to break, and as Buchanan's administration promises to leave the people a nice legacy of debt, the sooner it breaks the better.

The militia bill passed by the last legislature imposes a tax of 50 cents on all subject to military duty between the ages of 21 and 45, and pays volunteers $1.50 per day for six days training, and also for six days regimental encampment parade. MORE ESCAPES FROM JAIL!—Strunk and Ambrose, two of the parties charged with stealing meat, &c. in one of the river townships, made their escape on Monday afternoon, at three o'clock, by breaking the lock of the yard gate, and before any effective pursuit was made reached the ridge. The prisoners it appears were set to washing and scrubbing their cells, and these two permitted to go into the yard when done, where in open daylight they projected and carried out their liberation. We would again commend to the Sheriff our remarks on a previous occasion respecting the confinement of prisoners. Good nature is well enough in its place, but when extended to men within prison walls, charged with grave offences, they will as certainly take advantage of it as that two and two make four.

The Public Pound used by the High Constable for the confinement of hogs taken up on the streets and alleys, has been twice broken open lately and the animals driven out. Like every thing else, good or bad, swine have their advocates for giving them free scope; and we believe it is about time for the Council either to give them their liberty altogether, or pass an ordinance authorizing their sale by the High Constable as soon as driven to the pound, with a proviso that the owner may reclaim on certain conditions after the sale, instead of as now before it.

HEAVY RAINS.—With the exception of Friday and Saturday we have had rain daily for more than a week, and on Tuesday evening an out-pouring which flooded the streets in a few minutes in all directions. An immense quantity of water continued to fall for at least an hour, swelling the streams to an unusual height. Yesterday morning Kishacoquillas creek was nearly bank full and the Juniata commenced swelling rapidly, and continued to rise up to last evening when it came to a stand.

RAISING SHEEP.—Benjamin Byler, of Kishacoquillas Valley, has a number of sheep, five of which have had lambs twice during the past year. This, although an occasional occurrence, is we believe rather unusual in such a number. [The accidental omission of the word twice in the above paragraph last week, destroyed its sense—hence its re-publication.]

EXHIBITION.—A Public School Exhibition will be held in the Stone Church near the Three Locks, in Oliver township, on Saturday evening next. The services of the Philharmonic String Band have been engaged, which will add considerable enlightenment to the exercises.

C. Hoover, Esq. has been appointed Treasurer of the School Board of this borough, the gentleman lately elected having resigned on account of being engaged in the sale of school books, which rendered him ineligible.

The Prayer Meetings in the Town Hall have been changed to from half past six to half past seven in the evening—a time far more convenient to our citizens than the middle of the day.

A son of Mrs. Freeburn came near his death on Sunday last by overheating himself on the river bank and taking a fit. By some it is alleged he went into the water and became chilled.

An unoccupied building in the narrows, once famous as the Seven Mile Tavern, was destroyed by fire on the 27th ult. It is not known how it originated.

James Collier, first Collector at San Francisco, whom the locomotives have for several years published as a defaulter, has had an award made by the Supreme Court in his favor of $8000. The U. S. Government officers must be a nice set of men to charge a man with owing from two to seven hundred thousand dollars when they owe him $8000. Had he been of the right stripe, the case would have been different.

Pigeons.—The pigeon roost in Decatur county extends over a distance of twenty-eight miles; it is about fourteen miles wide. The birds have not nested at this roost for thirty years until this Spring. Over this vast extent of country every tree has from ten to fifteen nests, and every nest at least one bird. The young are hardly able to fly, and the shooting is mere slaughter. The old birds leave early in the morning in search of food, and return in the evening.—Vincennes (Ind.) Gazette.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Look out for Counterfeits.—These can always be detected by the absence of the water mark, which appears in every leaf of the genuine book of directions. Unless the words "Holloway, New York and London" are visible in semi-transparent letters in each page, the medicine they envelop is spurious. To deplete the system by bleeding and violent purging is to deprive life's machinery of its motive power. Lost Voice Recovered!
NEW BEDFORD, August 10.
Mr. S. W. Fowle—Having seen many certificates published in relation to Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I take this opportunity of offering a word in its favor, which you are also at liberty to publish. A few months since my wife's lungs became so much affected by a sudden cold that she lost her voice, and suffered severely from pains in the breast. Her situation caused her friends much alarm. Having heard your balsam strongly recommended by those who had used it, I purchased a bottle of your agent in this place. She took it according to directions and it produced a wonderful effect. Before using one bottle she had completely recovered her voice, the pains subsided and her health was soon fully restored. Yours truly,

HENRY G. BRIGHTMAN.

The "Elixir" prepared by Dr. James Williams, for the cure of Dyspepsy, and nothing but Dyspepsy, (as advertised in another column), has by its own merits obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that physicians acquainted with its properties are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced by observation of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to a healthy function. Numerous cases of dyspepsy of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the medical faculty here by the use of this Elixir being restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify. For sale by Charles Ritz, Lewistown.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.
Dr. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN FEMALE PILLS are infallible in removing stoppages or irregularities of the menses. These pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case, and he is urged by many ladies who have used them to make these pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularity whatever, as well as a preventive to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these pills, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admission, although their mildness would prevent any injury to health; otherwise these pills are recommended. Directions accompany each box. Price $1. Sold wholesale and retail by F. A. HART & Co., General Agents for Lewistown, Mifflin county, Pa., and also agents for Belleville, Mitroy, Reedsville, Allegheny, &c. They will supply dealers at the proprietor's prices, and send the pills to ladies (confidentially) by return mail to any part of city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Lewistown post office. For particulars get circular of agents. See that each box has my signature. J. DUPONCO, Broadway post office, New York.
