WEST'S Patent Galvanic Cement

For Roofing. THE undersigned having purchased the right for this Cement in Mifflin and Centre counties, are now prepared to furnish and put it on roofing wherever desired—the roof being sheeted by the owner. Scientific men under the direction of government, and architects and builders in various parts of the country, for years have been studying and experimenting to discover some composition or article for roofing, which would resist the changes of our climate, and would unite the qualities of Imperviousness to Water, Incombustibility, Durability and Cheapness. No article now in use possesses these qualities. Shingles are not fire proof, and cannot be used upon flat roofs. Slate can only be used upon steep roofs. The contraction, expansion and rusting of metallic roofs are so great in this changeable climate that they soon become worthless, or the repairs will cost more than

The various cements and coma new roof. positions which have been introduced, can be supplied only to very flat roofs, and they are all so affected by the action of the weather that they will melt and run in summer and crack in winter, and in a short time become crumbly and worthless. The inventor of the Galvanic Cement has labored twenty years to obviate these difficulties, and it is believed by those who have had opportunities to test the matter, that he has entirely succeeded. As now applied,

First-It is completely impervious to water. Water may continually stand upon the root without affecting it in the least.

Second-It is fire-proof. It is so incombustible that it will afford ample and perfect protection against fire, sparks and burning shin-gles from another building immediately adjoining. Third—It is durable. It is not injured by atmospheric changes, having been tested for several years by the Patentee, at Syracuse, New York.

Fourth-It is cheap. Roofs will be put on for about half the cost of tin, and will last much longer.

Fifth-Repairs are easily and cheaply made. Sixth -It is sufficiently elastic to entirely resist the expansion and contraction by heat and cold, and will remain perfect and solid in the warmest and coldest weather.

Seventh-It is adapted to all kinds of roofs, either flat or steep. Eighth-It is valuable for repairing old roofs. Old shingle roofs may be covered without removing the shingles. Old metalic roofs can be made perfectly tight and secure. Ninth-It is especially adapted to all kinds of seaming around battlements, sky-lights. and chimneys, and for the lining of eave troughs and gutters. Roofs which have given trouble for years, and which have continued to leak in spite of all efforts, can be made perfectly secure by this cement.

Tenth-It has been proved to be the best article ever used for covering car tops and steamboat decks.

Eleventh-This cement applied to new tin roofs preserves them from rusting, by furnishing a coat which is at once impervious to water and an almost perfect non-conductor of heat.

Twelfth-It is the only roofing material patented which contains India rubber and gutta percha.

For a specimen of this cement we invite owners of property to call at our mills, where a single coating, put on in December last, has kept the buildings perfectly dry through the winter. E. E. LOCKE & CO., Locke's Mills, Mifflin co., Pa. ap15

Studying closely the practices of Drs. Abernethy and J. Johnston, England, and observing the nature of the dis-ease in all its stages, during a sojourn in the southern and western portions of the United States, where it prevails to a greater extent than elsewhere, procured fro South America certain roots and herbs from which he prepared an "Elixir," which, after eighteen years' use in private practice, has proved itself more efficacious in the cure of Dyspepsy than any medicine that has ever been prepared in any age or clime for the same purpose.

Having submitted it, with an explanation of its comp nents, to a number of physicians of Philadelphia, among whom were the late Drs. Joseph Hartshorne and J. C. Morton, it has received their entire approval, and many of the medical faculty are now not only prescribing it for their patients but are using it themselves, personally and in their families. As a tonic it is unequalled, and its properties are of so invigorating a nature that it is given with perfect safety and success to the most tender infants with perfect safety and success to the most tender intants. The Elixir is very gradual, but certain in its action upon the organs of digestion, the increased secretions of the liver, pancreus and nuccous membranes of the stomach, and requires that only one dose be taken in twenty four hours; for confirmed Dyspepsy can only be cured by grad-ually restoring the organs of digestion to a healthy state. The great success met with in curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsy, accompanied sometimes with a high grade of hypochondriasis, has established the most un-bounded confidence in the curative properties of this Elixir, in corroboration of which read the following testi-

Williams-Dear Sir-For fifteen years previous to 1554, I suffered so much from dyspepsy that I became completely prostrated both in mind and body, and at length became so weakened I could not attend to my busi-ness, and was sinking into a decline, and it was believed I never could recover. The best medical did was procured I never could recover. The best medical aid was procured for me, and every means resorted to without any relief, till I was advised to use your Eitxir, and from the time I began taking it I gradually improved till I was completely restored to health. The dreadful sufferings I endured restored to health. The dreadful sufferings Lendured from dyspepsy I cannot describe; but I am confident that without the use of your Elixir I should be in my grave.
