Notices of New Advertisements.

Mrs. E. F. Bair, dressmaker, may hereafter be found at Mrs. McKee's boarding house, Main street, above the Lewistown Hotel.
E. C. Hamilton, at the late stand of P. F. Loop, offers boots and shoes at greatly reduced prices.

A notice of application for the incorporation of the Mifflin County Bank also appears.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—In accordance with our custom for several years of taking a week's holiday on the 4th, no paper will be issued from this office next week. An extra containing such notices and advertisements as need publication, will however be issued.

PENSIONS AND LAND WARRANTS.—The following, clipped from recent Washington items, may be of interest to some of our readers:

The President has signed the bill extending the provisions of the first section of the act of 3d February, 1853, so as to continue for life to the widows the half-pay allowed by said act, and, where there are no widows, to the children under sixteen years of age. Widows receiving pensions under special acts are also included in this beneficent measure.

He has also signed the bill declaring the title to land warrants to vest in the widow, heirs or legatees in all cases where proof was filed, but the warrants not issued during the lifetime of the claimant, and makes them personal chattels. The warrants issued under the act of March, 1855, are assignable.

FAREWELL TO ADAM J.

No Gazette next week—Good Chance for him to Blow.

Our doggerly boy at Mifflintown, who has been yelping and snarling at us for several weeks, while laboring under an impression that we had ceased to notice him, got to crowing last week like a dunghill fowl with nothing to contend with, or perhaps to render the simile more appropriate, like a poor inebriate who unexpectedly found a whiskey jug, danced, whistled and sung around it at interludes of a few minutes, during which he drank and drank again, until in his ecstasy he thought it was his own—but suddenly found his dreams dissipated by a "fire in the rear" in the shape of a boot toe. The appearance of the Gazette we learn laid him out for forty-eight hours, when having slightly recovered by the aid of "Junia water," he waxed wrothy, and forthwith hunted up "Rochester's works" and other favorite authors, from which we infer that the SQUIRT will be changed this week into "The Venus Miscellany."

Well, keep your courage up, Adam—lie it out—swear it out—do anything else but drown yourself, either in the Junia or a whiskey barrel—but by all means lie it out, for that is your forte. Remember, it sounds beautifully for you, who published yourself over your signature as a LYING LIBELLER, to talk about truth; it sounds beautifully for a POLITICAL SWINDLER to talk about honesty; it sounds beautifully for a POLITICAL HARLOT to talk about principle; it sounds beautifully for the SON of an Irish tavernkeeper who never shouldered a musket in defence of his adopted country to call the descendants of an American born citizen, one who was twice in the service of his country, descendants of revolutionary Hessians; it sounds beautifully for a PROFANE MOUTH to talk about decency and virtue; it sounds beautifully for one who has several times professed to be a CONVERTED MAN and then sank deeper and deeper in degradation, to talk about the attributes of Heaven; and above all does it sound beautifully for one who was known within the past few years as a poor, inebriated WHISKEY SOT, making an exhibition of himself that would have shamed many of the most hardened and depraved, to talk about character and respectability! But go on, Adam, go on—the day is not distant when your present readers, who as yet know you not, will learn what a beautiful expounder of democracy they have—perhaps by acts of your own, perhaps by some little paragraph headed "MORE of Rum's Doings."

The most important item of foreign news by the last arrivals is the sailing of the fleet of vessels engaged in submerging the telegraph cable. It was supposed they would reach mid-ocean on the 20th inst., and that the Niagara would arrive off Trinity Bay by the 29th inst. The news from India details further British successes. The extensive war arrangements making by France has attracted the attention of Parliament.

A little girl named Augusta Blecksmith was killed by the mail train on Monday, below Harrisburg, while crossing the track. No blame is attached to the engineer. An accident also occurred at Mapleton last week by which a few passengers were injured.

Drunken Persons.—The streets on Monday evening were full of drunken persons, whose noisy demonstrations were a shame to the community, and a disgrace to our citizens. Some of them—the greater portion—were young men of hardly more than twenty-one years of age. Are these young men aware of the discreditable position they place themselves in by this conduct, or do they, as many seem to believe, think it is mainly to get intoxicated!—Harrisburg Herald.

Gen. Packer is a gentleman of some experience in legislation—is a man of ability, and generally regarded as a useful citizen. He is now the Governor of the people of a great State, and when he read this paragraph in his organ did not the conviction strike him that when he signed the free liquor bill he aided these young men in procuring that which will destroy both body and soul. And what is true of Harrisburg, is true of all places in the State; drunkenness is increasing, bringing shame and dishonor to many a family that had hoped for a better future under the salutary laws passed a few years ago, and which but needed enforcement to render them effective. Let the lawmakers—the Governor, and members of the Legislature who voted for the free whiskey bill, among whom we are sorry to say were our member and senator—look on such scenes as the above and ask themselves, in the still hours of night, whether they are altogether guiltless in producing them?

Pic Nics at Granville and other favorite resorts are again the order of the day.

The democrats of McKean county, opposed to the Lecompton swindle, have called a meeting to appoint delegates to the State Convention which is to assemble at Harrisburg on the 14th of July.

They have a two-headed girl in Louisville. From the description given by the Democrat of that city, she must be a young lady capable of getting up a private evening party on her own individual resources.

The democratic papers are just now rejoicing because Lane, who is no doubt a ruffian, shot a neighbor in Kansas for trespassing, and they thereupon shout look at the free State men, as if one act on the part of a free State man justified hundreds of worse ones on the part of the slavery ruffians.

The Yaqui Indians are at war with the people of Sonora, California. These Indians entered Santa Cruz de Mayo and killed every man there was in it, got all the women and children together, shut them up in the church and set fire to it and the rest of the town.

About a year ago, James Dean, who was working as a journeyman carpenter at Chicago, Illinois, received a legacy of about $200,000 by the death of an uncle in Australia. He died a few days since from the effects of dissipation.

A lady in New York having bought some clams recently, her little son, six years of age, ran his tongue into one of them to get the juice, when the clam shut and nearly cut the little shaver's tongue off before his mother could free his hold.

Culpable Negligence.—We are satisfied that in most cases where coughs end in consumption a timely resort to some potent yet simple remedy, like Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, would have saved the life and health of the patient. For sale by C. Ritz, Lewistown.

The Scissors, Reporter and Editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin will open their eyes still wider when we inform them that the subject of their notice actually refused to take possession of a good farm, left him by will, because he did not want to be "bothered" with so much property. Wouldn't that have been a chance for "stocks"—Bank of Pennsylvania, for instance?

The American Agriculturist will be published hereafter in German as well as English. Terms, cash in advance, $1 per annum, or six copies for $5. Address O. Judd, 189 Water street, N. Y. The German edition commences in July, and we think hundreds of our German readers would benefit themselves by taking it from the beginning.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

FOURTH OF JULY.—From present appearances the coming 4th will be more generally celebrated here than has been the case for some years, as in addition to the Sunday Schools the Fire Companies and Military have parades in contemplation. The Lutheran Sabbath School purpose going to Banks's grove, the Methodist to Granville.

THE CROPS.—Our farmers have commenced cutting grass, which at present stands in good condition. For several days the weather has been remarkably fine for corn and wheat, but it would appear as if the weevil is just obtaining a fair foothold, the wheat fields being literally alive just before night with the insect that deposits the egg. Fair weather with fast ripening may however do much towards saving the grain from the depredations of this pest or scourge.

FIRE CRACKERS.—The abominable practice of firing off crackers has already commenced, and unless checked by some conflagration or serious accident by scaring horses, we suppose it will be continued by every boy from three years old up who can raise a penny until the 4th of July. It is certainly surprising that parents and others will furnish money for such trash when so much better use could be made of it, and still more surprising that young children are suffered to handle and fire them off before their faces without reproof. In addition to the danger to property and the risk of scaring horses, the material of which they are composed is poisonous, and in one instance that we remember-caused the death of a child.

Our community was considerably startled on Friday afternoon by the announcement that DANIEL FICHTHORN had died suddenly at Jack's Creek. In company with Alex. Eisenbe he had started off in the morning for the purpose of spending the day in fishing, &c., and while seated along the creek at a considerable quantity of sorrel, familiarly known as sour grass. About 2 o'clock he was seized with violent cramping pains and immediately taken to the building at the dam, occupied by Wm. Palmer, where such restoratives as were at hand were administered, but he soon became conscious that his end was approaching, and after giving some directions respecting his affairs, expired. No post mortem examination was made, but the general impression prevails that he was poisoned by the sorrel or some other herb he inadvertently laid his hands on, though this is evidently an error, as poisonous plants do not act on the muscular system. Mr. F. was a native of Berks county, and had resided in this place for a number of years engaged in various pursuits. His remains attended by a large number of deeply afflicted relatives and several hundreds of our citizens, were interred in the Methodist Cemetery on Sunday last.

DEATH OF JOS. INGLIS.—The Pittsburgh Gazette of Thursday 6th says: "A man died on board the steamer Potomac, while on her way hither from Cincinnati. She arrived here yesterday at noon. The name of the man was Joseph Inglis. He had on his person a certificate of good character, written and signed by J. W. Shaw, Chief Burgess of Lewistown, Pa., bearing date March 4, 1850. The letter says that 'as Mr. Jos. Inglis is about leaving his native place for the far distant West, it gives me great pleasure to recommend him as a man strictly honest and upright in all his dealings, and of industry, veracity and integrity.'"

Inglis appeared when he came on board the Potomac in Cincinnati, to be in a very pitiable condition, exceedingly hungry, and yet very sick. He took a deck passage, and wrote, in a very neat and even beautiful hand, a note to Captain Harry, asking for some food. (It is customary for deck passengers to supply their own food.) We saw his note, and from the appropriate language in which it was couched, Inglis was a man of more than ordinary education. In fact, there were evidences in certain papers found on him, that he had been a teacher and, probably, of the German tongue. He had no money. He was supplied with as much food as he needed, and Captain Harry thought that he, perhaps, hastened his end by the quantity he devoured. On Sunday afternoon he became very delirious. He made an attempt at one time to jump overboard. On Sunday night he died. As soon as possible the Captain made port (at Parkersburg) and there, at his own expense, had the man properly and decently buried."

[The deceased was formerly a resident of Kishacoquillas Valley, having lived we believe with some of the Kyle family and perhaps others, and sustained a fair character when he left this place in 1850.—Ed. Gazette.]

DEDICATION.—On Friday last, the East Kishacoquillas Presbyterian Church was dedicated in the presence of a large assemblage of people—the discourse being delivered by Rev. G. W. Thompson, of Juniata county. After the services, $1,200 were subscribed towards the defrayment of the debt of the church, which being $1,000 leaves a balance of $200 in the treasury.

At a meeting of the Normal Class, in Lewistown, on Friday morning, 18th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were reported and adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the members of the Normal Class, believing it but just to tender an expression of our sentiments to our Teacher for his disinterested labors; and to the School Directors of the Borough of Lewistown, for the use of the Logan School House; therefore,
Resolved, That our sincere thanks are due and are hereby tendered to our much esteemed Teacher, Prof. A. D. Hawn, for the able and efficient manner in which he has conducted our exercises.

Resolved, That we congratulate him on the success which has attended his labors as County Superintendent, and that our best wishes and sympathies go with him in his arduous endeavors to elevate the standard of Common School education in our county.

Resolved, That Normal instruction is of the greatest utility as a means of qualifying Teachers for their high and noble calling; and we hope the day is not far distant when we will have a permanent school for the training of Teachers established in this normal district.

Resolved, That we earnestly request the friends of education, and especially those who have had experience in teaching, to contribute regularly to the columns of the public press, so that all may have the benefit of their experience and reflection.

Resolved, That we cherish the memory of the many pleasant moments we have spent together, and those sentiments of regard to which our association, as a Normal Class, has given rise.

Resolved, That our thanks are hereby tendered to the School Directors of the Borough for the use of the Logan School House.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the editors of our county papers for publication.

KINDNESS TO OUR FELLOWS.

Messrs. Editors—I offer you a few thoughts on the subject of Kindness. What a barren world this would be were it not for that spirit of kindness which is found to exist to a great extent in the human breast. There are, it is true, some human hearts that show no symptoms of kindness, and for all they care, the world might go down to perdition. But happily for our race, there are but few of such. It is the law of kindness that binds families, communities, societies and churches together, thus affording an opportunity for the people to become enlightened, religious, and great and good. Without kindness, there can be no benevolence, no charity, no love, no harmony, no union, no peace, no religion, and no good towards God or man. Who, then, will be unkind? Think back over the past, and see if you can call to mind any instance where you have acted unkindly to any one—little child, young or aged person—and if you find you have, pray God to forgive you, and solemnly vow that you will do so no more. I have known persons who would have given almost anything within their power if they could but have recalled unkind words spoken and unkind actions that wounded the feelings of others, who are now beyond the reach of reparation. It must be an unfeeling heart indeed that will not respond in kindness to the enquiries of little children, or take some pains to instruct the ignorant, and be polite and attentive to strangers.

The life that is worth living for is made up, after all, of little kindnesses and little attentions to one another. And particularly are they cherished and appreciated in times of trouble, sickness, or distress. Be kind always. Be kind to every one and every living thing, and verily I say unto you, you shall not lose your reward. SOL.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Despatches have been received from Mr. Dallas, at the State Department, covering the response of the British Government to the letters of Secretary Cass upon the recent searches of American vessels in the Gulf. The pith of these despatches is that, while England disavows all authority for any offensive acts that may have been committed, and while standing ready to make all the reparation that may be required, she is not, at the same time, willing to abandon the right of visiting all vessels that may be suspected of being engaged in the traffic of slaves. In other words, the most effective measures will still be used by her suppression. It is, however, the desire of the British Government that these visits may be made in the most acceptable manner; and to secure this, the English Minister for Foreign Affairs would be pleased to receive such suggestions as the Cabinet of the United States may be disposed to make. The tenor of these despatches being entirely unlooked for, has created no little feeling on the part of the President, who, it is confidently predicted, will insist at once upon the abandonment of the position which England asserts her intention of adhering to. In other words, the right of visit will not be conceded by Mr. Buchanan in any shape whatever.

A lamentable accident occurred near Lake City, Minnesota, a few weeks ago, by the upsetting of a sail boat, by which four young ladies lost their lives. Two of them were sisters from Mazepa, a small village near Lake City, the others daughters of Judge Stout. Their bodies were recovered a week afterwards, when, as may well be imagined a sad funeral procession wended its way to the church yard. They were with a party on an excursion to Maiden Rock, and on their return a sudden flaw upset the boat, precipitating two young men and five ladies into the water, three of whom only were rescued in a sinking condition. By a private letter we learn that one of the lost was engaged to be married in a short time to Alex. Jacobs, Esq., formerly of this county.

The Fulton Republican objects to Juniata county having the candidate for Congress in that district. Take your best man, friend, wherever you can find him.

Tornadoes at the West.—Our exchanges are burdened with accounts of storms of rain and wind. Particularly in Illinois have these storms been disastrous. In Hennepin hardly a person escaped damage to his property by the storm of Sunday, May 30th. In Peru a large beer brewery was demolished, the roof to a steam flour mill blown off, the roof to the Catholic church blown off, and many buildings blown down by their foundations. At Wyoming the steeple of the Methodist church was blown off, and a house blown down, burying the family but not killing them. The house of Rev. Philander Chase was blown five rods from its foundation, carrying two persons in it, who were badly bruised.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—It is a melancholy fact that many medicines prescribed in ordinary practice create terrible diseases. Quinine saps the bones; mercury contracts the joints, softens the liver, creates virtual ulcers, and injures the ossious system; iron and colchicum not infrequently produce paralysis. Now in all the diseases, internal and external, for which these destructive drugs are given, Holloway's Ointment and Pills will work a safe and rapid cure. Nay, more—in cases where mercury, quinine, iron, colchicum or opium have injured the general health, or produced specific maladies, the restorative properties of the Ointment and Pills will repair the mischief.

Bleeding at the Lungs Cured.
Seth W. Fowle, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Having been attacked with Hemorrhage of the Lungs, which left me with a troublesome cough and the usual debility consequent upon such an attack, and having cured myself by the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I feel it a pleasure and a duty to testify to its merits. My general faith in patent medicines is small, but for those who are suffering under pulmonary attacks I am persuaded that the Balsam is an excellent preparation. Yours very truly,

The "Elixir" prepared by Dr. James Williams, for the cure of Dyspepsy, and nothing but Dyspepsy, (as advertised in another column,) has by its own merits obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that physicians acquainted with its properties are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced by observation of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to a healthy function. Numerous cases of dyspepsy of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the medical faculty, have by the use of this Elixir been restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify. For sale by Charles Ritz, Lewistown.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.
Dr. DUPONCO'S GOLDEN FEMALE PILLS are infallible in removing stoppages or irregularities of the menses. These pills are nothing new, but have been used by the Doctor for many years, both in France and America, with unparalleled success in every case, and he is urged by many ladies who have used them to make these pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularities whatever, as well as a preventive to those ladies whose health will not permit an increase of family. Pregnant females, or those suffering themselves so, are cautioned against using these pills, as the proprietor assumes no responsibility after the above admission, although their usefulness would prevent any injury to health; otherwise these pills are recommended. Directions accompany each box. Price $1. Sold wholesale and retail by F. A. HARTD & CO., General Agents for Lewistown, Mifflin county, Pa., and also agents for Belleville, Mifflin, Reading, Allentown, &c. They will supply dealers at the proprietor's prices, and send the pills to ladies (except by mail) by return mail to any part of city or country, on receipt of $1 through the Lewistown post office. For particulars get circular of agents. 25-cent each box has my signature.

I. O. OF O. F.

The undersigned committee, appointed by Lewistown Lodge, No. 97, I. O. of O. F., on Saturday evening, June 19, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the lodge in relation to the death of Bro. DANIEL FICHTHORN, have prepared the following:

WHEREAS, In the mysterious workings of Providence, our esteemed and worthy Brother, Daniel Fichthorn, was suddenly and unexpectedly called from time into eternity; therefore,

Resolved, That we lament with heartfelt sorrow the death of our beloved Brother, and that we deeply sympathize with the bereaved widow and lonely orphans; and while they lament the absence of the departed husband and father, may they look to that God who will protect the widow and befriend the orphans, a firm reliance on whom, with the sympathy of kind friends, and the usual ministrations of the Brotherhood, will have a tendency to soften the harsh features of sorrow, with a Christian resignation to the will of Divine Providence.

Resolved, That during his long connection with us as a member of our order, he has gained our lasting confidence by his upright conduct and truthful conversation, and won our esteem by his pleasant manners and generous disposition. We therefore cherish his memory with fondness in our hearts, and there may it remain, of which the evergreen is the pledge, forever.

State Convention.

The United American, Republican, People's Committee of Superintendence of the City of Philadelphia, earnestly desire to extend and perpetuate that union of elements of opposition to the present National Administration, which in this City has resulted in such brilliant success, do hereby respectfully suggest, and recommend to the State Committees representing those several elements of opposition, that they call upon the present National Administration, who are especially to its despotic and fraudulent policy, and its wilful neglect of all just claims of domestic industry; and who are in favor of the Sovereignty of the People over their own local concerns; of American institutions as against the policy and intrigues of foreign Governments; and of adequate protection to our home labor, to assemble their respective Senatorial and Representative Districts to choose Delegates to a State Convention, to meet at Harrisburg, in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at 10 o'clock, P. CARLISLE, May 31, 1858.

To the Americans of Pennsylvania:

The above recommendation having been submitted to me for my approval, after consultation with the majority of the members of the American State Committee, and a large number of the prominent Americans of the State, I cheerfully admit it as our call for a State Convention, and urge the members of the American party throughout the State to participate in the election of delegates to the Convention.
