An administration notice also appears.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

The delegates to be elected on Saturday next and assemble in County Convention on the Monday following, will have an important duty to perform in selecting a ticket to be supported this fall.

Dr. Bower's course as a legislator was such as to call forth censure at the hands of many of his former supporters, and indeed exhibits him in that light which shows no confidence can be placed in promises made for him so far as his vote is concerned.

The Democrat, with its usual effrontery, asks whether we dare deny that the opposition formed the present tariff? Certainly we deny it.

The monthly report of the Canal Department sums up as follows:
July, 1858, Gross Earnings, $29,214.57; Expenses, $14,620.60; Net Earnings, $14,593.97.

An effort was made last winter to increase the postage on letters and newspapers. Every Senator who voted for that measure is called a Democrat.

THE CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION.

The Bellefonte Whig—which by the way is again in part in the hands of our friend who was once mistaken for a shoemaker instead of J. K. Shoemaker—endorses the nomination of Judge Hale with a will that shows Centre county to be right.

W. W. Brown of the Democrat, who was also a candidate, comes out in his last paper declining to be considered so, and endorsing Judge Hale as a man of the right stamp for the present emergency.

We did not intend to say anything upon this subject until the nomination was made, believing that the people have sufficient good sense to indicate the proper person through their delegates, without the assistance of newspaper puffs, which in many instances, instead of being the reflex of public sentiment, prove only to be the fruitless attempts of kindly disposed editors, to make great men out of small material.

It will be seen by the proceedings of the meeting referred to, which will be found in another column of this paper, that Hon. James T. Hale, has been nominated to the other counties of the district, by the opponents of the Administration in Mifflin, as their choice for Candidate for Congress, and that they have instructed their Conferees accordingly.

The Potter Journal also expresses its satisfaction at Mr. Hale's nomination, and adds its opinion that he is the best and strongest man in the district.

PROTECTION.

A year ago, says the Hardware-man's Newspaper, we had all the external symptoms of great prosperity. The national exchequer was overflowing.

That the population is rapidly increasing, whilst the means of employment are declining; That farmers are augmenting the supply of food, whilst the demand is constantly diminishing;

That the occupation of a large proportion of the merchants of the country will, necessarily, become unprofitable; That mercantile failures will, therefore, to a large extent, be unavoidable;

We answer unhesitatingly, that national policy of our government which has accepted the theories of the free traders of England, and, under the specious pretence of "buying in the cheapest and selling in the dearest market," really looks to widening the space by which the consumer and producer are separated, and so rendering the establishment of domestic manufactures impracticable.

THE TELEGRAPH CABLE.

The Great Work the Age Accomplished.
About five o'clock on Monday evening, the following despatch was received by the Superintendent of the American Telegraph Company.

"To the Directors of the American Telegraph Company.
Europe and America are united by Telegraph!
"Glory to God in the Highest, on Earth Peace, Good will toward men."
(Signed) "Directors of the American Telegraph Company of Great Britain."

At seven o'clock and five minutes that evening, we received the message of Queen Victoria, as follows:

"To the Honorable the President of the United States:
"Her Majesty desires to congratulate the President on the successful completion of this international work in which the Queen has taken the deepest interest."

"The President cordially reciprocates the congratulations of her Majesty the Queen, on the success of the great International Enterprise accomplished by the science, skill and indomitable energy of the two countries. It is a triumph more glorious, because more useful, than was ever won by the conqueror of the field of battle. May the Atlantic Telegraph Company, under the blessing of heaven, prove to be a bond of perpetual peace and friendship between the kindred nations, and an instrument destined by divine Providence to diffuse religion, civilization, liberty and law throughout the world.

"The Queen desires to congratulate the President upon the successful issue of this great international undertaking, in which the Queen has taken the deepest interest.
"The Queen is convinced that the President will join with her in fervently hoping that the Electric Cable, which now connects Great Britain with the United States, will prove an additional link between the nations whose friendship is founded upon their common interest and reciprocal esteem."

"The completion of this great work called demonstrations of rejoicing in all parts of the United States, and a general hope is expressed that nothing will occur to interrupt the transmission of messages.

"Edward McPherson, of Adams county, a young man of much talent, has been nominated for Congress in the Cumberland district.
"An ebony darkey will of course call all shades 'nigger,' and a regular soapstick imagine everybody else to be a soak.
"Is it rumored that the river dam below town is to be repaired, and also that a considerable force is to be put on the deep cut above Newton.

"Ludisill is receiving his fall supply of men's, boys and children's hats and caps, as well as sundry articles for the ladies. Give him a call.
"The Lecomptonites are backing water just now, the election in Kansas having knocked them into the middle of October, alias nowhere.
"The democracy at Washington have raised a rumpus by turning out some Irishmen from fat jobs and employing 'nagurs.' Pat swears vengeance, but will be right enough again when his vote will be wanted.

"Quite a race lately came off between a 'church expulsion' and a railroad train with an imposing stone loafer on board. We have not heard whether religion or 'drunk,' gained the day.
"The Lock Haven Watchman is wrong in calling our meeting a 'town meeting.' It was the regular county meeting, and of course had power to control anything pertaining to a political organization.
"A Valuable Tonic.—We believe no medicine has ever given such astonishing proof of its efficacy as the Oxygenated Bitters. In cases of Dyspepsia and general debility it acts in the most agreeable manner, restoring health and cheerfulness, when all other remedies have failed. Sold by Chas. Ritz, Lewistown.

On the 18th July, by the Rev. Mr. King, FREDERICK STINELEY to Miss SOPHIA KLINE, both of Snyder county.
Near Benedict's Mills, on the 12th inst., by Wm. Bell, Esq., DAVID BOTTORF, of Armath township, to Miss SUSAN PENNINGTON, of Centre county.
On the 26th March, by C. Hoover, Esq., JOHN CASH to MARY KEENER.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The Camp Meeting for Lewistown Circuit will be held near Gruver's Church, on Wesley McCoy's land, commencing on Friday, 20th inst. There will be a good boarding tent on the ground. Excursion tickets will be issued by the R. R. Co., and Geo. Rarick will convey persons to and from the camp.

The water in the reservoir has been gradually falling in consequence of the dry spell, and as it is desirable to keep a good supply there, the washing of carriages and other uses prohibited by the by-laws must be dispensed with for the present by all who have heretofore used it in that manner.

PRESENTATION.—The Employees in the Maintenance of Way Department, between Patterson and Huntingdon, under the Supervision of F. M. MICKEY, Esq., held a meeting in McVegetown on Saturday last, for the purpose of presenting to that gentleman a handsome gold watch, with a suitable inscription, chain and seal, as a token of their respect and esteem for him as an officer and a man. G. M. KULP, of Patterson, was appointed President; JON. RHULE, of Spruce Creek, and H. W. SNYDER, of Altoona, Vice Presidents, and W. J. CAMPBELL, Secretary. The President briefly stated the object of the meeting, after which the testimonial was presented to Mr. MICKEY on behalf of the employees, by J. J. MOORE, Esq., in the following speech:

Mr. Mickey.—In appearing here to-day, to present to you this evidence of the esteem in which you are held by those with whom the discharge of your official duties has brought you in contact, I perform a pleasing duty. To you, holding an official station, it must be pleasant to feel that your labors and services are properly appreciated, and especially so, when that appreciation assumes a generous shape, and comes an unasked and unexpected offering from willing hands and honest hearts.

In behalf of the Employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, on your Division, permit me to present to you in this public manner, this valuable gift. It is given to you as a token of their esteem for your uniform urbanity and kindness of disposition; for your faithfulness and merit as an officer of the road, and for the many virtues which you are known to possess. Its chief value consists not in the intrinsic richness of its materials, or its ornamental usefulness, but in the fact that it comes to you the spontaneous offering of those who know you well.

Trusting that to you it may, in after years, possess much value, not only as a memento of the past, but that it may also prove of service in the everyday walks of life, "to be always right and never wrong." I have only to add my own sentiments of kind regards to you as a man, and the earnest hope that in all your undertakings you may find the same appreciation that is exhibited here to-day.

When this Division was placed under my care, over three years ago, I was a perfect stranger to you all. I was aware of the great responsibility I assumed, but I then determined, so far as lay in my power, to do my duty faithfully towards all parties. By the consent of the then Superintendent and Resident Engineer, I instituted strict rules of discipline for your government. I very soon found it was only necessary for me to make known to you my wishes, and give you the proper instructions, and they were strictly and cheerfully obeyed. I soon found it a pleasure to be with and amongst you.

Distressing Drought in Virginia.—A gentleman from Sussex county, Va., one of the most reliable in the county, represents to the Petersburg Express a rather alarming state of things, as existing in that section. In some parts of the county, especially near Comman's Well, they have been without rain for weeks, and the effect upon the corn is truly lamentable. The same, says the informant, is the case in the vicinity of Cabinet Point, Surry. In many places we regret to hear that the farmers, despairing of gathering an amount of corn that will repay for the trouble, have cut down the stalks in the hope of making fodder. In other places, even though the most drenching rains were now beginning to fall, not more than half the usual quantity could be realized. Garden vegetables have also withered beneath the rays of the sun, and never failing streams have ceased to run, leaving their beds dry and parched. In many neighborhoods the wells are fast falling, and many entertain serious apprehensions that man and beast will suffer for water, unless speedily relieved.

The People's Delegate Convention met in Huntingdon county on Thursday the 10th inst., and placed in nomination the following county ticket:
Assembly—R. B. Wigton.
Commissioner—Jno. Finnen.
Director of the Poor—D. Clarkson.
Auditor—Thomas Grafius.
Coroner—William K. Rahn.
Congressional Conferees—Dr. B. E. McMurtrie, Gen. John Watson and P. C. Swoope.
The Conferees were instructed for John Williamson, Esq.

Oxygenated Bitters.
Read the following letter from Caleb Parker, Esq., of Concord, N. H., a man honored and esteemed by all who know him:

Gentlemen.—With no disposition to make my name conspicuous, I take the opportunity to state to the afflicted the benefit I have derived from the use of Dr. Green's Oxygenated Bitters, and to recommend them to others. For two years I have been troubled with indigestion and its attendant evils, such as flatulency, constipation, severe attacks of diarrhoea, accompanied with water brash at the stomach, which reduced me in flesh, strength and spirits, so low that I was nearly unfitted for business. I applied to several physicians from whom I obtained only temporary relief. I concluded, with the advice of friends, but without the least faith in their efficacy, to try the Oxygenated Bitters, from the use of which I found immediate relief, having no return of water brash after taking the first portion. My weight has increased some thirty-five pounds, and my health is perfect. I can truly say that I consider the Oxygenated Bitters the best tonic extant. I have recommended them to several, who have invariably found great benefit from their use. Yours respectfully, CALLEB PARKER.

The "Elixir" prepared by Dr. James Williams, for the cure of Dyspepsia, and nothing but Dyspepsia, (as advertised in another column), has by its own merits obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that physicians acquainted with its properties are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced by observation of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to a healthy function. Numerous cases of dyspepsia of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the medical faculty, have by the use of this Elixir been restored to perfect health, as attested certificates testify. For sale by Charles Ritz, Lewistown.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FOURTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1858.
MECHANICS, Inventors, Manufacturers and Farmers.—The Scientific American has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will appear upon a new volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. If the Mechanic or Artizan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the Household wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the Inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvement—if the Manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to employ the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other things, he will find all these desiderata can be found in the Scientific American, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.
