"So long as the opposition keeps divided to two nearly equal segments the result will very much the same to the Administration if it had a majority. We hope that a little isdom will be learned by experience." To this the Louisville Journal adds:

"The Gazette is a Republican paper. We pe that counsel will not be lost upon its po-ical friends. A thorough union of the true en, the conservative men, of all parties, is acticable and desirable, and without it, ere can be no just hope of the deliverance the country from Locofoco misrule.'

Who are for the Union?-The followg paragraph, from the Louisville Jouris a full answer to the interrogatory, Who are for the Union ?"-" The Hon. m. L. Yancey, perhaps the most influen-Democrat in the South, is devoting all time and energies to getting up Southleagues for the dissolution of the Un-. He has formed and published a conation and laws for his leagues, and the mber of members is said to be daily and pidly increasing. And now it is a sigfeant fact, that, of all the Democratic litors of the South, Mr. Pryor, the Richand Greeater, is the only one who denounss Yancey's movement, and that he deances it avowedly upon the ground that thinks it calculated to retard, instead of stening the glorious cause of dissolution.' here are the Union savers?

Foreign News .- By the arrival of the nglo Saxon at Quebec, we have four days er news from Europe. The news posses some points of interest. The Lon-Times reviews editorially the lamenble condition of Mexico, and concludes

On Saturday, says the St. Louis Democrat, a stranger made his appearance in Lagrange, Missouri, and after making unsuccessful efforts to obtain employment, resolved to commit suicide. Obtaining a pistol, he placed the muzzle to his head and discharged the contents into his brain. Upon examination by a competent surgeon it was ascertained that the ball passed through his skull between the eyes, and lodged in the back part of the head. Part of the brain was scattered over the front of his hat. He was conveyed into the office of Mr. Gantt, of that city, and medical aid quickly called to the assistance of the sufferer. After lying in an insensible condition during the day, he recovered sufficiently to give the particulars which led to the commission of the act. He gave his name as - Brown, and claimed to be a native of Memphis, Tenn. Being poor and friendless, he had not eaten anything since he left Cairo, a day or two previous. Discouraged at not receiving employment, and too proud to beg, he determined to place himself beyond the pale of physical want, and shot himself as above stated, and now comes the most singular portion of this most extraordinary affair. Notwithstanding the loss of a portion of the brain and the perforation of the skull by the bullet, Mr. Brown is in a rapid way towards recovery. On Thursday he was able to sit up in bed and converse intelligently with all who called on him.

The Place for Fishermen .- Mr. Wm. Medary, who recently went from Reading to Freeport, Illinois, writes to the Reading Adler an account of a fishing excursion in which he and a number of Berks county people participated. Mr. M. says that he and several others caught five pike whose average weight was twenty pounds each. They also caught 300 cat fish, whose weight on an average was 18 pounds each, in a small stream called "Preston's Creek," about four miles from Freeport. These are considered small fish in comparison to some caught there.

WEST'S Patent Galvanic Cement Por Roofing.

THE undersigned having purchased the right for this Cement in Mifflin and Centre counties, are now prepared to furnish and put it on roofing wherever desired-the roof being sheeted by the owner. Scientific men under the direction of government, and architects and builders in various parts of the country, for years have been studying and experimenting to discover some composition or article for roofing, which would resist the our climate, and would unife the qualities of Imperviousness to Water, Incom-bustibility, Durability and Cheapness. No article now in use possesses these qualities. Shingles are not fire proof, and cannot be used upon flat roofs. Slate can only be used upon steep roofs. The contraction, expansion and rusting of metallic roofs are so great in this changeable climate that they soon become worthless, or the repairs will cost more than a new roof. The various cements and com-positions which have been introduced, can be supplied only to very flat roofs, and they are so affected by the action of the weather that they will melt and run in summer and crack in winter, and in a short time become crumbly and worthless. The inventor of the Galvanic Cement has labored twenty years to obviate these difficulties, and it is believed by those who have had opportunities to test the matter, that he has entirely succeeded. As now applied,

First-It is completely impervious to water. Water may continually stand upon the roof without affecting it in the least.

Second-It is fire-proof. It is so incombus tible that it will afford ample and perfect protection against fire, sparks and burning shin-gles from another building immediately ad-

Third-It is durable. It is not injured by atmospheric changes, having been tested for several years by the Patentee, at Syracuse, New York.

Fourth—It is cheap. Roofs will be put on for about half the cost of tin, and will last much longer. Fifth-Repairs are easily and cheaply made.

Sixth -It is sufficiently elastic to entirely resist the expansion and contraction by heat and cold, and will remain perfect and solid in the warmest and coldest weather. Seventh-It is adapted to all kinds of roofs, either flat or steep. Eighth-It is valuable for repairing old roofs. Old shingle roofs may be covered without removing the shingles. Old metalic roofs can be made perfectly tight and secure. Ninth—It is especially adapted to all kinds seaming around battlements, sky-lights and chimneys, and for the lining of eave troughs and gutters. Roofs which have given trouble for years, and which have continued to leak in spite of all efforts, can be made perfectly secure by this cement.

Tenth—It has been proved to be the best article ever used for covering car tops and steamboat decks.

Eleventh-This cement applied to new tin roofs preserves them from rusting, by furnishing a coat which is at once impervious to water and an almost perfect non-conductor of

Twelfth-It is the only roofing material patented which contains India rubber and For particulars of this cement, owners of

The OHIO CATAWBA BRANDY not only equals but even excels the best imported Brandies in purity and flavor. It is in fact the BEST Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of nany of our most distinguished analytical Chemists. The want of pure Brandy has long been felt in this con try, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be re garded as a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquor, and is of perfect purity and superior flavor. It is therefore fully entitled to the patronage of the pub-lic. We feel confident that its reception in this State will be as favorable as that which it has met with in the Great West, and that the time is not far distant when

TALK of beauty; it cannot exist without a fine head of hair. Then read the following, and if you ask more, ee circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt. PROFESSOR WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

We would call the attention of all, old and young, to his wonderf if preparation which turns back to its originature from the system. this wonderful preparation which turns back to its origi-nal color gray hair, covers the head with a luxuriant growth, removes the dandruff, itching, and all cutaneous growth, removes the acontinual flow of the natural fluids, and hence, if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from falling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the hald, the gray, or discussed in scalp, to use it; and surrely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks or the witching curl, ever be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands. The agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative a few weeks since:

Deep River, Conn., July 23, 1856.

Mr. Leavenworth—Sir:—I have been troubled with dandruff or scurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. is a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three inches in length where it was all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the earer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place; you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect,

PHII ADELPHIA, September 9, 1856. Prof. Wood—Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is pro-ving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative and now the top of my head is well studded with a prom-ising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving is benefit. VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1853. Prof. O J. Wood-As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have for several years been in the liabit of using other Hair Restora tives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every

tober it will be disposed of at public sale, of which due notice will be given. jy8

Consumption of Smoke & Gas & Saving of Fuel! THE subscriber takes pleasure in offering to his customers a new Patented Gas-burning Cooking Stove, undoubtedly the best stove made.

It is well known that all inflammable matter requires a certain amount of air to support comneutires a certain amount of air to support com-bustion, and if the supply is insufficient it is impossible to produce a flame. The heat of the fire, in ordinary cooking stoves, decomposes the fuel, and as all the fresh air is admitted under the grate, its oxygen is exhausted before it has passed through the fire chamber. The close flues at the top of the stove then act as an ex-tinguisher, tending to put out the fire instead of assisting the combustion. A large portion of the fuel, therefore, passes off in the shape of smoke, clogging up the flues of the stove so as to impede the draft and interfere with the baking,-or of invisible gas which combines with the lime and so destroys the mortar of the chimneys, loosening the bricks, and exposing the dwellings to the danger of fire. The introduction of an additional supply of cold air would cool the gas below the igniting temperature, but by the proper application above the fire of air previously heated to a tem-perature of several hundred degrees (which is one of the prominent features of the patent) the gases are inflamed in numerous jets, and their combustion is sufficient to heat the oven, even if the draft through the fire chamber is entirely closed. In addition to the ordinary direct draft under the grate and through the fire chamber, the gas-burner has an additional draft through the top plates, which is of itself sufficient to maintain combustion. The upper draft not only consumes the gases, but it helps to strengthen and preserve the centre pieces which are most exposed to the direct action of the fire, and which are made double instead of the usual single plates. By means of this draft alone, all the operations of cooking can be car-ried on when the fuel is but partially ignited, and the fuel consequently burns more slowly and more economically. A sufficient evidence of the effect of the gases in heating the oven is found in the fact that the oven will be ready for baking even before the fire is thoroughly kindled, and much sooner than in any other There is scarcely a doubt that before long the Gas-burning Cooking Stoves will supercede all others. The operation is so perfect and its consumption of fuel so small in comparison with other cooking stoves, and its heat so easily regulated, (burning more or less as desired.) that every one who uses one of these stoves will have nothing else.
