LEWISTOWN, PA. Thursday, September 2, 1858.

Supreme Judge, JOHN M. REED. Canal Commissioner, WM. E. FRAZER. Congress, JAMES T. HALE.

Assembly, DAVID WITHEROW. Commissioner, JOHN PEACHEY. Coroner, JOHN MUSSER. Auditor, JOHN D. BARR.

OUR PLATFORM. PROTECTION TO ALL BRANCHES OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY, whether agricultural or mechanical, and the admission, duty free, of all articles in general use we do not raise or manufacture.

A CHANGE IN THE NATURALIZATION LAWS, so as to require a longer residence, or the publication of the intention with the names and residences of the witnesses. 2. Limiting the power of Naturalization to the Courts of Quarter Sessions, with authority only to grant papers at the first and second terms of each year.

We believe in the doctrine that the people of the territories have a right to say whether slavery shall or shall not exist there, when they form a State Constitution.

We are opposed to wars of conquest. We believe no member of Congress ought to be appointed to any office of emolument, during the term for which he was elected.

We are in favor of the U. S. Government issuing paper money, and doing away with all other banks of issue—leaving to private bankers the business of supplying the people with as much paper money as may be needed by obtaining it from the U. S. depositories in exchange for coin or on such security as may be designated by law. The penalty of counterfeiting or forgery to be death.

We are in favor of regulating the Liquor manufacture and traffic by laws declaring all adulterated liquors forfeited and liable to be destroyed, and making the sale of pure liquors free to all on the payment of a nominal license.

Notices of New Advertisements. J. Ard Matthews' notice that he has fallen on a fortune and requesting claimants and "friends in need" to call on him for their dues and assistance, was received too late for publication this week.

The County Superintendent gives notice that a Teachers' Institute will be held in Mevetytown, commencing on the 20th inst., and also of the times and places for holding the annual examinations of teachers.

Boats are wanted by the coal operators of the Broad Top region to carry coal to various points on the route to Philadelphia.

Dealers and others are referred to the advertisement of A. Winchester & Co.'s gentlemen's furnishing store, Philadelphia.

Why Should Dr. Bower be Re-elected?

We hope every taxpayer in Mifflin county will this fall ask himself the question why he should vote for Dr. Bower to represent Mifflin county in the next legislature? We have given substantial reasons why he should not be re-elected, by showing that his votes on most of the important questions up before that body were against the wishes and interests of a majority of the people, and thus far no defence of his inconsistencies has been attempted, but we have been met with the puerile cry that we are assailing his private character, and that the Dr. is a democrat! Such reasoning in years gone by was potent enough to cover sins of all kinds, but now, when small sums of money are becoming of essential importance to all classes, it is to be hoped that taxpayers will awaken to the importance of economy in legislation as well as at home. It is by such a test that Dr. Bower's course ought to be tried to ascertain whether he has been faithful to the few or the many. Examine his votes—inquire about his promises previous to his first election—compare them with his acts—and you can judge for yourselves whether if he were your agent on a farm or in some other important business, you would trust him again under corresponding circumstances.

Recipe for Cholera, Dysentery or Cholera.—Rhubarb, 1 oz; Ginger, 1/2 oz; Paregoric, 1/2 oz; Camphor, 1/2 oz; Laudanum, 3 drachmas. Dose, a teaspoonful three or four times a day.

The Press threatens to give Jesse to the candidate who treats bar-room and other loafers for electioneering purposes. We shall see.

Folks are rather hard upon the editor of the Tyrone Star. Somebody lately attempted to steal his character, and somebody is now stealing his wood.

According to the latest British advices, the iron trade has rather more orders, and the impression is that it is likely to be better. Do you hear that, laboring men?

The wife of Simon Kautz, of Pennsylvania, Snyder county, committed suicide on Wednesday two weeks, by hanging herself with a martingal at a rack in the barn. No reason, says the Selingsgrove Democrat, can be assigned by the family or any other person why she committed the deed. She leaves a husband and twelve children, the youngest being but five months old.

More Foreign Preferences.

A Second Water Pipe Business. Captain Meigs, who appears to be the principal favorite of the present and last democratic administrations, it seems some time ago gave another evidence of his preference for foreigners quite as exceptionable as his recent course in not stipulating that the great water pipe contract should be of American iron. The Cosmopolitan Art Journal, in a review of the new Capitol, justly censures the course pursued in decorating that building, and copies a letter from which we make the following extracts:

"The best artists of the country, with scarcely an exception, have offered their services, and asked to be employed upon the Capitol. Without an exception their applications have been rejected, and the work of decoration is going rapidly forward under the direction of an Italian, whose reputation is little better than that of a skillful scene painter, and who employs under him a crowd of sixty or seventy foreign painters, chiefly Italians and Frenchmen. The result of their labors is now visible here and there throughout the new wings in tawdry and gaudy ornaments, vile in taste, poor in design, and offensive in color. The most flagrant and conspicuous scene of their exertions so far is the Senate Chamber, an apartment about thirty feet by twenty in size. The decorations of this room have already cost $10,000, and the ornamentation, such as it is, is yet far from being complete. It is scarcely possible to imagine anything more absurd, or in more outrageous taste. Yet it is entirely in keeping with the general style of decoration of the Capitol, which is a servile, tasteless reproduction of the Pompeian style, with its worn-out fads, warlike gods, goddesses, nymphs, and monsters, of which all sensible, cultivated men have long been tired, and which have passed away from literature and art wherever literature and art flourish."

The responsibility for this deprecation of the Capitol rests, I am sorry to learn, upon Captain Meigs, the engineer in charge of the Capitol extension. I have heretofore defended him from attacks that were made upon the new Hall of Representatives. That Hall, after six months' daily observation and use of it, I maintain to be as well adapted to its purpose as any Hall well can be. For that, and for the general construction of the Capitol extension, Captain Meigs deserves high credit. He is a man of intelligence and unimpeachable integrity, who has most faithfully executed the important duties which have been committed to his charge. But his approbation or toleration of the monstrosities under the name of Art, which are being perpetrated under his eyes, shows that he has not the taste nor the cultivation which might entitle him to absolute and unquestioned direction of the decorations of the buildings. Such direction he has assumed. Throughout the Capitol in the matter of art his will is law, and no man is suffered to touch a brush who does not conform implicitly to that will. Our native artists of distinction, with reputations at stake, will not submit to the dictation of a man who may be a good engineer, but who is certainly no artist, and who just as certainly has no taste for art. The consequence is, that the Capitol is in the hands of a crowd of INFERIOR AND NEEDY FOREIGNERS, who paint what they are told to paint at so much a day for their work. If this is suffered to go on the Capitol will be for ages the laughing-stock of the cultivated world.

This penchant for foreigners and foreign subjects in a National building intended to last for ages, is singular, but in keeping with many other acts of this democratic administration, which seems to prefer anything foreign, down to heathenism, to American battles on sea and land, American portraits, American scenery, or American feelings. The people however are awakening from their lethargy, and having now the evidence before their eyes of what excessive importations of foreign goods, manufactured at low wages, produce, the cry will soon ring abroad from every hill and valley for a Protective Tariff, regardless of British, French, Dutch, Irish, or any other interests.

Senator Bigler on Weak Knees. It will be remembered that Senator Bigler of Pennsylvania, during the last Congress, was a most violent Leocomptonite, and aspired to be chief executioner of Walker, Stanton, and all others who revolted from the infamous plot to force Slavery upon Kansas. From that fact the following extract of a LETTER FROM MR. BIGLER TO MR. STANTON is peculiarly interesting, if not important, as a contribution to the secret history of Kansas affairs. The letter is dated Clearfield Pa., Aug. 14, 1857, and is doubtless authentic:

"Make my special regards to Gov. Walker, and say to him that he has the popular heart with him throughout the entire country except on the extreme South. Should this program succeed, he will have the most enviable prominence of any man in the nation. The Administration is a little weak at the knees, and wince under the Southern thunder, but it must stand up to the work."

Bigler don't deny this letter, but his organ at Clearfield is quite wrothy at Stanton for making known the contents of a private letter. There will be some other Leocomptonites "weak in the knees" before long.

KANSAS ELECTION RETURNS.

The Board of Election Commissioners, constituted by the "English Bill," have issued a proclamation, declaring the proposition rejected by nine thousand five hundred and twelve majority. The whole vote was thirteen thousand and eighty-eight. No fraudulent votes were received, but a few precincts were rejected on account of informalities. Nearly ten thousand majority in condemnation of the bribe tendered the people of Kansas by the Administration, to sacrifice their principles and make Kansas a slave State! Does anybody feel weak about the knees?

Telegraphic News from Europe.

The city papers at the close of last week contain the following despatches, transmitted through the Atlantic cable, which were furnished for general information to the associated press:

Triumph of the Atlantic Cable—Eleven days later—Highly Important News—Treaty of Peace Concluded between England & China—France and England Indemnified—Mutiny at Bombay Subdued.

VALENTIA, Ireland, August 25, 1858.—By the arrival of later advices from India and China at London, we have intelligence to transmit.

A Treaty of Peace has been concluded with China. England and France are to be indemnified for the expenses attending the war. Bombay dates to the 19th of July say that the mutiny was being rapidly quelled and subdued.

The London papers of yesterday (Tuesday) have a large and interesting report of Mr. Bright, the company's engineer, on the Atlantic telegraph.

The steamer Asia will leave Liverpool for New York on Saturday.

Another Triumph of the Telegraph Cable—London News of To-day—Six Days from St. Petersburg—Sickness of the King of Prussia—Return of the Emperor Napoleon to Paris—The Terms of the Treaty With China.

LONDON, Friday Morning, August 27.—The Emperor Napoleon will return to Paris tomorrow.

The King of Prussia is sick and unable to visit Queen Victoria.

Her Majesty, the Queen, returns home on Monday next.

The terms of the treaty with China open the trade of that vast Empire to all nations. The Christian religion is to be allowed. Foreign diplomatic agents are to be admitted, and full indemnity is to be made to England and France. There is no mention of America in the terms of the treaty.

ST. PETERSBURG, Saturday, August 21.—The announcement of the conclusion of peace with China gave great satisfaction to the Emperor and the whole Court.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, August 9.—The steamer Madras arrived at Suez on the 7th, with Bombay dates to the 19th of July.

There is nothing important from India to add to the advices of yesterday.

The last despatch left London in the morning, was received before the hour of noon and published in the afternoon edition of the city papers. The despatch not only brings news direct from London, but places us practically within less than twenty days of Alexandria, Egypt. It is worthy of remark, as a suggestive coincidence, that the first news despatch over the Atlantic Cable was an announcement of peace concluded, whilst the second informs us of the terms of the treaty by which the vast Empire of China will be thrown open to the trade of the world.

The Democrat of this week abounds in all kinds of charges against us, against Mr. Peachy, and against the opposition generally, backed by the usual number of "fibs" which annually appear in that print at this season. It considers our advocacy of a sale of all the public works full justification for Dr. Bower voting for what he promised he would not; goes in for the free whiskey bill of course; and defends the 50 cent militia tax under the pretext that it has been imposed long ago. That's true, but the difference is that it was not collected, while now it will be; and what that difference will be, can be inferred from the fact that in 1857 the amount paid into the State Treasury by this county for militia tax was but $135. As there are over 3000 taxables in Mifflin county, any one can figure out, after making due allowance for exonerations, what a compulsory collection will produce. It is now pay or go to jail, as a good many hard working men will find out, perhaps not before the election, but certainly before the present duplicates are settled.

The Edinburgh Review for July, contains a series of articles on themes of unusual interest, comprising Hugh Miller, Thier's History of the Consulate and the Empire, The Progress and Spirit of Physical Science, Canning's Literary Remains, The Health of the Army, The Celts and the Germans, Posthumous Memoirs and Songs of Beranger, Chronicles of the Teutonic knights, Froude's King Henry VIII, The Hindoo Drama, and Earl Grey on Parliamentary Government. This number commences a new volume, and the present time is therefore particularly suited for subscribing. The Westminster Review and The London Quarterly Review also commence volumes with the July number.

In order to issue these works at an earlier day after their appearance in Great Britain, Messrs. Scott and Company state that they have long been paying to the British publishers, more than $3000 a year for their profits.

The consecration of the Rev. Samuel Bowman, D. D., as Assistant Bishop of Pennsylvania, took place in Christ Church, Philadelphia, on the 25th ult., according to previous announcement.

The Junior of the Democrat and the Junior of the Press are at loggerheads just now as to who has the most weathertails. If their tales are to be believed, both must be somewhat inclined to "Mormonism."

The Democrat makes a sour face over its endorsement of Mr. Peachey two years ago. Mr. Peachey is now what he was then, an upright and honest man, and all that that paper can now say will not afford an iota of a reason why democrats should not vote for him.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Messrs. Shimp & Major commenced pork butchering last week, and furnished the first sausage and pudding at market this season on Saturday morning. The stock went off like "hot cakes." Beef, pork, veal and mutton can hereafter be generally had every Wednesday and Saturday mornings.

The Camp Meeting of the M. E. church for Kishacoquillas circuit commenced near Reedsburg on Friday last, and closed on Wednesday morning. There were some twenty-five tents up, and the attendance on Sunday is said to have been unusually large.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The 2d Quarterly Meeting of the M. E. Church will commence on Saturday morning next, September 4th, at 11 o'clock. Camp meeting prayer meetings will be held on Thursday and Friday evenings, in the Lecture Room of the church. All are invited to attend.

The Mifflin County Agricultural Society appointed E. E. Locke, Samuel B. Haines, and Dr. M. T. Mitchell, delegates to attend the election of three Trustees for the Farmers' High School.

The Juniata Fire Company will meet on this (Thursday) evening, when business of importance will be transacted.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Dickson A. Burns, brother of James Burns, Esq., died suddenly on Saturday morning last. He had arisen and was preparing to go to market, and while descending the stairs fell down. He called on those above, but before they reached him he had expired. He was about 43 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

A military light infantry company was organized at Belleville on Saturday last under the name of the Belleville Fencibles. Dr. E. Bigelow was elected Captain. Major Eisenbise, and the musicians and sundry members of the Logan Guards were present at the inspection.

Joseph, a son of John B. Selheimer, Esq., while climbing across the iron railing at the court house yard on Saturday last, was caught by one leg and fell with considerable force against the stone capping, injuring his nose so as to require stitching of the skin. He made a narrow escape of sustaining a life injury.

Rev. Thos. Stuart and lady returned from Kansas on Tuesday evening in good health. We are sorry to learn that the fire at Leavenworth, from which Messrs. Stuart and McCormick suffered so severely, was more destructive than was first reported. The firm lost about $15,000 above the insurance, but is going on again and will we hope retrieve the misfortune. Mr. S. designs returning to Kansas.

FIPS AND LEVIES.—The principal merchants and business men of this place yesterday signed a written pledge hereafter to take these nuisances only at five and ten cents respectively. This course it is hoped will drive them from circulation altogether. We would suggest in addition "selling" at 6¢ and 12¢ be also dispensed with.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Preparations are going on for putting up a distillery near the Reedsburg turnpike, outside the borough limits. This is rather an anomalous "improvement" at the present day, but as whiskey is to be a current article during Gov. Paeker's term, we suppose folks may as well get drunk on home manufacture as any other. Fisher, the brewer, we perceive is constructing a large vault for keeping lager, which, taken in connection with the above, would seem to indicate that whiskey and lager are the only paying business now going on. In West Third street, a building has been put up on the old brickyard lot, the lower part designed for dwellings, the upper as a hall for the King Cyrus Lodge of A. Y. M. (colored.)

Many kinds of Tonic are advertised that we are assured will strengthen the hair and prevent its falling out, but none that we have seen used does all that it promises, save that of Professor O. J. Wood. This we know is good from having tried it, and witnessed in several cases its truly beneficial effects. Dr. Wood was kind enough to send us a couple of bottles, and after finding that it prevented our hair from falling out, we presented a bottle to a friend who had been bald for at least thirty years. It has restored his hair entirely, and it is now as thick and glossy as when he was twenty-five. This we say in all sincerity, and we shall be glad to have our friends try it for themselves, as we believe it is just what it professes to be. See advertisement.

High Price for Negroes.—At the sale of the personal effects of B. S. Lamar, deceased, on Thursday last, in Backeytown District, Frederick county, three negro boys sold for $2,840. One aged about 17 years, brought $1,010, and the other about 8 or 9 years of age $725. These prices are unprecedented, and indicate a considerable rise in the market.—Westminster (Md.) Sentinel.

For the Gazette.

One of Dr. Bower's Legislative Essays. Editor Gazette.—In this part of the county we are at a loss to understand the utility and object of Dr. Bower's snake bill, or in other words, his bill legislating out of office the Poor Directors of Mifflin county. We frequently hear the question asked, Why was this done? The current report which is generally believed runs about thus. Some one, two, or three individuals in or about Lewistown, who have ruled the Democracy of this county for a number of years, had a personal grudge at one of the Poor Directors, and being foiled in every attempt to injure him, resolved to try what could be done by special legislation. To accomplish this object, a petition of some half-dozen signers, or thereabouts, was got up secretly and sent to Harrisburg in charge of the Doctor. He drafted the bill and hurried it through the Lower House. When it reached the Senate he went into the Senate Chamber and requested that it be passed immediately, giving assurance that there was no opposition to the bill in Mifflin county.

While the bill was yet pending in the Lower House, the trick was discovered, and the citizens of Lewistown being advised of the Doctor's doings at once got up a remonstrance, and in one day about one hundred and fifty signatures to the paper were obtained. In the valley remonstrances were also signed by almost every taxpayer who was applied to. These remonstrances were without delay sent to Harrisburg, and reached the Senate Chamber just too late to prevent the passage of the bill. When they were presented to the Senate, one of the members arose and expressed strong indignation at the fraud practiced on that body. The Governor was immediately apprized of the imposition and requested to veto the bill. After holding it over several days, one of the originators of the conspiracy, who had influence at court, informed the Governor that "it all came a law."

It is further rumored that as soon as the snake bill was discovered at Lewistown, the Doctor was written to and requested to stay proceedings until a general expression of sentiment would be obtained from his constituents, but the Doctor, true to his clique, turned a deaf ear to the multitude and had his bill passed for the express purpose of doing a personal injury to an honest, unsuspecting individual, and all this at the bidding of some two or three politicians to whom the election of John Cubbin was objectionable.

We hope this is not the true state of the case, and therefore call on Dr. Bower to vindicate himself before an incensed community. If he is slandered, let him give good reasons (if he can) for getting up and passing clandestinely this unequal bill, by which such men as John Atkinson, John Peachy, and John Cubbin, are, were legislated out of office, at an expense of several hundred dollars, so speedily that they were benighted before they dreamed they were in danger.

Refreshing.—The showers on Friday and Saturday last. The Bucyrus (Ohio) Journal office is offered for sale. See advertisement of Dr. Sanford's LIVER INVIGORATOR in another column. Snyder county will make its mark this fall on the Leocompton swindlers by an old-fashioned majority.

Smoky.—The Democrat's endorsement of Mr. Creighton as "respectable and intelligent."

The Altoona Tribune has doffed its neutrality and come out for Americanism and Protection. Right, friends—go ahead.

John H. W. Hawkins, one of the original "Washingtonians," died at Parkersburg, Lancaster county, last week, aged 60 years.

We regret to see by the last Bellefonte Whig that Mr. Shoemaker has disposed of that establishment, and bids the fraternity adieu. J. G. Kurtz and Wein Furney propose to publish a new independent political paper to be called the Central Press.

From C. C. Trowbridge, Esq., President Michigan State Bank. DETROIT, August 30, 1850.

Dr. Geo. B. Green—Dear Sir—Having been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and having been cured as I believe by your Oxygenated Bitters, I most cheerfully attest their efficacy. My case was a bad one. In the space of four months I lost my strength, and forty-seven pounds of flesh, and was compelled to abandon business, and remained an invalid for fifteen months. Travelling and absence from office duty had done something for me, but there seemed little probability of a cure until I began to take the Bitters. In one week I was greatly relieved, and in three weeks I was perfectly well, and have since regained thirty pounds of flesh. You are at liberty to use this, if it will at all further your laudable purpose of diffusing this valuable remedy.

Respectfully yours, C. C. TROWBRIDGE.

Such certificates as the above are not to be obtained in favor of a medicine destitute of merit, but are only given upon the most satisfactory proofs of their efficacy and success.

From the True Democrat, August 11, 1858.

For Director of the Poor, JOHN PEACHEY, of Menno township, one of the staunchest and reliable farmers of Kishacoquillas valley, was nominated, as a man EMINENTLY QUALIFIED TO PROTECT THE PUBLIC INTERESTS. An effort was last year made to elect a House farm, with a view of purchasing one more eligible and suitable, and therefore so important that A PRUDENT, SAFE, AND DISCRIMINATING MAN be elected as Director of the Poor, for should the project be carried out, a reckless disregard of the public interests, such as was manifested in making jail contracts, might plunge the county into an inextricable debt. ALL WHO KNOW MR. PEACHEY GUARANTEE HIS ABILITY AND INTEGRITY FULLY EQUAL TO THE DISCHARGE OF THE IMPORTANT TRUST THE Democracy desire to commit to his keeping.

The "Elixir" prepared by Dr. James Williams, for the cure of Dyspepsia, (as advertised in another column,) has by its own merits obtained for itself so high a reputation in Philadelphia, that physicians acquainted with its properties are using it themselves and prescribing it to their patients, convinced by observation of its great efficacy in restoring the disordered digestive organs to a healthy function. Numerous cases of dyspepsia of the most aggravated character, which were abandoned as incurable by some of the medical faculty, have by the use of this Elixir been restored to perfect health, as attested by certificates freely. For sale by Charles Ritz, Lewistown.
