ABOUT WEEDS.

Do you ask where the weeds are! Sorry to say, in your plowed fields, your meadows and pastures, and garden. See! right in plain sight, in yonder pasture, thistles flourish bravely, both the native American and the foreigner, mullens, docks, white daisies. Johnswort and what not. Haven't time to grub them up? Perhaps you have't time to exterminate them all root and branch, in one year; but you can make a beginning on them. Every farmer ought to feel a little ashamed, or at least uneasy, if he is not gaining some headway against this invading army. He ought to be able to say, at the end of every season, that he owns more free territory than he did at the beginning. And if he cannot root out all the weeds in one year, or two years, he ought to exterminate some of them, and let none go to seed.

Did you ever stop and think what gross feeders these invaders are? They carry off yearly a great deal of nourishment which ought to have been saved for the benefit of your wheat, corn, potatoes, and the like .-Thirty or forty dollars worth is annually lost on some farms that we know of. Lost, and worse than lost! How these farmers would murmur against Providence, if a flood, hail storm, or drouth, caused them a loss of half the amount! But they take the damage from their own carelessness very quietly.

Now, let us speak a word in season. Grub up at once, the roots of every weed you can find time for; and if you can not kill all, be sure to prevent their ripening seed. Set that down as a rule never to be violated. Now in this very month of August, when every growing thing is hastening to maturity, make an onslaught upon the barbarians. Heap high your trophies on the battlefield; and ere long fire them, and offer them up as a sacrifice to Ceres. It will please the old heathen mightily .- Am. Agricul-

DROWNING THE SQUIRREL.

When I was about six years old, one morning going to school, a ground squirrel ran into his hole in the road below me. They like to dig holes in some open space, where they can put out their head to see if any danger is near.

I thought: Now I will have some fine fun. As there was a stream of water just at hand I determined to pour water into the hole till it would be full, and force the little animal up so that I might kill it.

I got a trough from beside a sugar maple, used for catching the sweet sap, and was soon pouring the water in on the poor squirrel. I could hear it struggle to get up, and said: 'Ah, my fine little fellow, I will soon have you out.' Just then I heard a voice behind me:

Well, my boy, what have you there?

I turned and saw one of my neighbors a good old man, with long white locks that had seen sixty winters.

'Why,' said I, 'I have a ground squirrel in here, and am going to drown him out, if I can do it.'

Said he.

'Jonathan, when I was a little boy, more than fifty years ago, I was engaged, one day just as you are, drowning a ground The pure Old Virginia Diadem Twist squirrel, an old man, like me, came along, and said to me: 'You are a little boy; now if you were down in a narrow hole like that, and I should come along and pour water down on you to drown you, would you not think it was cruel? God made that little squirrel, and life is as sweet to it as it is to you, and why will you torment to | Epp's death a little innocent creature, that God has made?"

'I have never forgotten that, and never shall. I have never killed any harmless creature for fun since. Now, my dear boy, I want you to remember this while you live and when tempted to kill any poor little animal or bird, think of this; and mind, God don't allow us to kill His pretty little creatures for fun.'

More than forty years have passed, and I have never forgotten what the good man said, nor have I ever killed the least animal or bird for fun since.

Now, You see it is ninety years since this advice was first given, and it has not lost its influence yet. How many little creatures it has saved from being tortured to death I cannot tell, but I have no doubt a great number; and I believe my whole life has been influenced by it.

Now, I want all the little boys, when they read this to keep it in mind; and when they see pretty birds or harmless animals playing, or hunting their food, not to hurt them. Your Heavenly Father made them, and He never intended them to be killed for fun .- Child's Paper.

DYSPEPSIA,

S shown by the statements of the Board of Health of New York, caused the death of 76 persons out of 611 deaths in one week, and 131 deaths by consumption in of those who die of consumption, it becomes the duty of every one to use such precautions against and remedies for dyspepsia as science and experience have placed be-fore them, and which have proved to be efficacious. Of this character is DR. WILLIAMS' ANTI-DYSPEPTIC ELIXIR, in corroboration of which read the foll

Dear Sir-My wife had been suffering with Dyspepsia very severely for a long time, and has been attended by two physicians for about six weeks, from which attendince she received no relief. I recently procured your Elixir for her, and after taking one bottle she is com Elixir for her, and after taking one bottle sne is completely cured. I can safely say I never knew of a medicine having so quick effect in so short a time.

Very respectfully yours, RUDOLPH D'ARNI,
Teacher of Drawing and Music, 267 Broadway, N. Y.

Extract of a letter from Mr. H. N. Winans, New York to his friend in Philadelphia.

Do you recollect that bottle of Williams' Elixir that was leaking in your trunk, and you gave to me to get rid of? Well, for curiosity, I thought I would try if it would relieve me of the Dyspepsia, which I have had for some time, and for which it is recommended, and I am happy to say it has quite cured me, and would recommend it any one similarly affected. Signed,
H. N. WINANS, 94 Water st., N. Y.

Dr. J. Williams-After suffering from Dyspepsia for a considerable time and failing to obtain any permanent relief, I was induced to try your Elixir. I must confess I had not much confidence at first, but in about two weeks was most agreeably surprised to find I was rapidly im proving in health; I am now much fatter than ever before and I am in as good if not better health than I ever was in my life. Very truly yours, &c., WILLIAM YARD, 6 City Row.

An Invaluable Remedy for Dyspepsia. Read the testimony of the wife of Mr. John Stiles, or the Frankford Road, near the first toll gate. FRANKFORD ROAD, Oct. 25, 1849.

Dr. James Williams-Having recently understood tha is your intention to resume the preparing of you Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, and being anxious that others ma be benefitted by its use as I have been, I herewith send you for publication, if you think proper, a statement of the effectual cure produced on me by it. For a number of years I have been suffering to such an extent that became so much debilitated, and the digestive powers so much destroyed, that it was with difficulty I could take and retain sufficient nourishment to support life. Neither myself nor my friends were aware that my suffering proceeded from indigestion; in the year 1839 my attention was directed by my husband to your advertisement, at that time published in some of the city papers, explaining the causes and symptoms of dyspepsia, and confidently offering a remedy. I immediately procured and usesome of your medicine with the most signal success; from a state of debility, languor, and nervousness and complete loss of the power of digestion, so great tha I could take at first only five drops of the Elixir at a dose I was in a few days much relieved, and by continuing I a short time I have been restored to health, strength and vigor, which I still retain. I take great pleasure, sir in making known the efficacy of your Anti Dyspeptin Elixir, and sincerely hope it may be the means of induc ng others to go and be benefitted like myself Very respectfully, &c., HANNAH STILES
