The Washingtonians held a temperance meeting in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. Woods, Rev. Mr. Bowers, C. Stratford, and others.

EDUCATIONAL .- The Teachers' Institute inst., should not be forgotten by the teachers of the county. All that possibly can, ers of the county. All that possibly can, should be in attendance, as every effort urer is hereby directed to give to such huckwill be made to make it profitable to those engaged in the profession. The examination of teachers for Wayne township will take place at Newton Hamilton on the 9th instead of the 7th inst., as heretofore advertised.

EVANS' GIFT BOOK STORE .- The purchase of a book at this establishment by generally pays, as we have abundant evidence at hand. A few catalogues can be had at this office, by which those at a disance can learn how to send for such works s they may want. In addition he will procure any work published, at publisher's price, on receiving the amount and cost of postage, or forward by express. See adertisement.

The advertisements announcing the arrival of Van Amburgh's Zoological and Equestrian Company at this place on the 7th September and at Belleville on the 16th, have created quite a commotion among the juveniles, both old and young. for the next four weeks "Young America" ill no doubt stand on their heads, turn mersets, and perform other feats of ground and lofty tumbling that will astonish someody. Errands will also be run with more herity than usual, rags and bones gathera and sold, and the whole tribe become conderfully saving, dispensing with long ines and chewing cigar stumps instead of wist, in order to raise a quarter at the apinted time.

REV. DR. WOODS .- We copy the followg notice from the Harrisburg Daily Tele mph of Monday:

This venerable Divine preached yesterday the Senate Hall for the old school Presby rians. He has been in charge, as pastor the Lewistown congregation, for about ety years; and many years ago administered ordinance of baptism to the writer of this aragraph, whose parents were members of During a long, active and usea ministerial life, Dr. Woods has stood high the affections and esteem of the people of ewistown, both as a pastor and a private izen. Although far advanced in years, he tains a remarkable dogree of physical and ellectual strength and vigor; and is the same ble, logical, pleasing and impressive speaker when, in early boyhood, we were accustom to listen to his eloquent teachings in the old stone church" on the hill, where a now nted father and mother were wont to worhip. May it be a long time before the peo-le of Lewistown lose the services of this arned and eminently good man.

> For the Gazette. COMMUNION.

A very interesting communion season was held during Saturday and Sunday last in the Lutheran church under the pastoral charge of Rev. H. Baker, in Lewistown. The preach ing was done by Rev. P. Rightmyer of Juni ata county, and more than ordinary interest was manifested during his series of sermons. The last sermon, delivered on Sabbath even-ing, was remarkable for its searching character, and the power and eloquence with which it was delivered. He searched out sin in all its hideous forms, and made a severe onslaught upon the Devil and all his works, and depicted the utter ruin that must inevitably overtake all his followers. He presented in glowing terms, Christ, as the great Captain of our Salvation, and held up to view the honor and glory which would be the portion of all who put their trust in Him. The people were much stirred up, and many were convinced that renewed efforts must be forth, if we wish to see the floods of sin rol led back and vital religion prevailing in our midst; and if we wish to see the people of God in the ascendant, we must indeed gird on the whole armour of salvation.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE.

On the last day of August, 1858, I, in company with Rev. II. Baker, started for Snyder county, to be present at the laying of the cor ner stone of the Lutheran Missionary Insti-tute. After a pleasant ride of forty-five miles over a good road, we reached the beautiful town of Selinsgrove. The country around the town is very beautiful, and in a high state of cultivation. The people are intelligent, hospitable and kind, and taking all the advan-Le Gr tages the town and country affords into view, Br think the Institute could not have been lo-Ar ated at a more suitable place. The building s located about one-fourth of a mile west of the town, on an elevated site, commanding a slight view of the town and surrounding eountry. The building will be 86 by 50 feet, Oli De three stories high, of brick. The laying of the corner stone took place on Wednesday morning, Sept. 1st, and afforded an occasion for a great gala day in Selinsgrove. The procession was formed at ten o'clock a. m., ander the direction of Col. Simpson, as Chief Marshal. After the speakers, officers of the Institute, clergy, &c., were formed, the gallant Col. came down street with a procession of about three hundred ladies, headed by a splendid band of music. The ladies marched past the head of the column with a stately step, and then counter-marched to the place those who participate in the execises of the Institute will go to their homes improved, and better able to administer government by "moral suasion." It will also learn teachers market on any one of the stated days, then the provisions relative to fines for peddling shall have no effect to the fines for peddling weighed in the balances" by all teachers who are indifferent about attending the Institute. Now if so much benefit can accrue from the profitable use of so little time, what bles, and agricultural productions generally, reason can teachers offer for not assisting to make a consolidation of the materials which constitute the cause of education in this coun-

Mr. F. A. Allen, whose lectures of last year seemed to impart new life to many teachers, we understand, has been secured to lead the exercises. The practicability of Mr. Allen's teaching cannot be once doubted, if we but observe the originality he has of obtain-ing subjects for illustration, and the impressive manner that he relates them. There is no obscurity; everything is made as plain as a whistle; and we may profit thereby in practising it through the winter. Come one, come all, and let us see if we cannot bring out as large and as well disciplined a corps of teachers as some of the proud counties of this state, and thus we will raise the cause to such a height that many will be coming out and striving to attain an eminence in it which would guarantee to teaching the name of a profession.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN

COOKING STOVES! Consumption of Smoke & Gas & Saving of Fuel!

THE subscriber takes pleasure in offering to his customers a new Patented Gas-burning Cooking Stove, undoubtedly the best stove made. It is well known that all inflammable matter requires a certain amount of air to support combustion, and if the supply is insufficient it is impossible to produce a flame. The heat of the fire, in ordinary cooking stoves, decomposes the fuel, and as all the fresh air is admitted under the grate, its oxygen is exhausted before it has passed through the fire chamber. The close flues at the top of the stove then act as an extinguisher, tending to put out the fire instead of assisting the combustion. A large portion of the fuel, therefore, passes off in the shape of smoke, clogging up the flues of the stove so as to impede the draft and interfere with the baking,-or of invisible gas which combines with the lime and so destroys the mortar of the chimneys, loosening the bricks, and exposing the dwellings to the danger of fire. The introduction of an additional supply of 27 cold air would cool the gas below the igniting 28 temperature, but by the proper application above the fire of air previously heated to a tem-perature of several hundred degrees (which is 29 one of the prominent features of the patent the gases are inflamed in numerous jets, and their combustion is sufficient to heat the oven, even if the draft through the fire chamber is The hour of commoncing will be 91 a. m., recisely. Teachers, Directors and all others chamber, the gas-burner has an additional draft through the top plates, which is of itself sufficient to maintain combustion. The upper draft not only consumes the gases, but it helps to strengthen and preserve the centre pieces which are most exposed to the direct action of the fire, and which are made double instead of the pursuance of an order granted by the usual single plates. By means of this draft
