NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

From among the hundreds of favorable notices, from the most respectable journals of the country, of our cheap edition of "Livingstone's Travels and Explorations in Africa," we take the following:

"It abounds in descriptions of strange and wonderful scenes, among a people and in a country entirely new to the civilized world; and altogether we regard it as one of the civilized world; and altogether we regard it as one of the most interesting books issued within the past year."

—Daily Democrat, Patterson, N. J.

"It is emphatically an edition for the people; and, judging from the rapid sale with which it is meeting, it is fully appreciated by them "-Christian Freeman, Boston. The book is having a great run, and will be read b every reading man, woman and child, in this as well as other lands."—Ashtabula, Oh o, Telegraph.

"The work is tinely illustrated, well printed, and firmty bound, thus answering in every respect the demand for a popular and cheap edition of the Journeys and Re-searches in South Africa.' Thoses of our readers who would have a delightful book for reading at any hour. whil not be disappointed in this work."-U. S. Journal.
"With truth we can say, that seld in is presented to the reading public a work containing such a vast amount of solid instruction as the one in question. The volume is handsonely illustrated, and presents that unique appearance of exterior for which Mr Bradley's publications are noted."—Family Magazine.
"This interesting work should be in the hands of every one. Its interesting pages of adventures are full of in struction and amusement. Ten thousand ropies, it is said, have been sold in one month."—Auburn American. "Dr. Livingstone's Trivels and Researches in South Africa appear to great advantage in this edition, which is undoubtedly the edition most acceptable to the reader who reads for practical instruction and amusement."—

Saturday Post, "The edition of Dr. L'vingstone's Travels, published "The edition of Dr. L. vingstone's Fraveis, published by J. W. Bradley, is just what it purports to be. Like all Mr. Bradley's publications, it is excellently gotten up?" "Troya Agitator, Pr.
"We can recommend the edition of Dr. Livingstone's Travels, published by Bradley, of Fhiladelphia, as every way worth of public patronage. Its excellence and its cheapness recommend it over all others."- Frank Les-
