A Family Burned to Death. One of the most appalling calamities that ever occurred in Kent county transpired on Tuesday night. A dwelling house and its contents, including a man, his wife and children, were totally destroyed by fire, without any living person knowing anything of the matter until the next morning, when the house had disappeared. The facts of the case are as follows :

Hiram Robinson recently exchanged a farm in Georgetown, Ottawa county, for a farm in Gaines, eight miles from this city, on the Kalamazoo plank-road. Monday and Tuesday Robinson was engaged in removing his family and goods. The neighbors saw nothing of him at nightfall. It is supposed that he and his wife retired early on account of the very fatiguing labors of the day. From the evening of Tuesday to the morning of Wednesday, everything remains an impenetrable mystery. Probably the building caught on fire from the stove-pipe, and as the tenement was of boards was soon in a blaze.

Owing to fatigue, Mr. Robinson and his family were probably not awakened until too late to escape. That they attempted to escape, is shown from the fact that the bodies of both man and wife were found lying partially beyond the door-sill of the house, and the youngest child, an infant, outside the location of the house.

It is believed that when they ascertained their danger they rushed to the door and forced it open, but in so doing, some of the upper heavy timbers fell upon and cast the pair to the ground, covering the entire family with a horrible, inextricable bath of fire, and soon destroying life .--From the Grand Rapids (Mich.) Enquirer of Oct. 20.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

A German laborer in the employ of Mr. Frankland, Rector of Emmanuel Church, New Castle, Del., the other day walked into Mr. F.'s room, and presenting a pistol, demanded $600. The Rector told him he had not such a sum, but proposed to the robber to go with him to the village, and ascertain what could be done towards getting the money. To this proposal, made to gain time, and perhaps relief, the simple fellow assented. They therefore started together, wending their way professedly to wards the bank after the money. In their progress a friend of the Rector was seen approaching, to whom he contrived to make known his danger, or at least by help of signs, and an occasional word, such as the significant one of sheriff, succeeded in putting him on the track for an officer. One or two other friends arriving about the same time, with the officer, the German footpad began to suspect he was betrayed, or that all was not working well for him, and determined to carry his threat into execution, attemping to fire his pistol. At this moment one of the gentlemen opportunely stepped forward and prevented the explosion of the cap, thus saving the life of a fellow being. The robber was then ta-ken into custody and safely lodged in jail not far from the scene of this strange transaction. He will, of course, be tried for intentional murder, and, of course, too, the plea of insanity will be set up by inge-
