THE HOUSEKEEPER.

Recipes.

[From Mrs. Widdifield's Cook Book.]

Pickled Beans.—Select young beans; string and wash them. Make a brine of salt and water, strong enough to bear an egg. Put your beans into it, and let them remain until they change color. Then take them out and wash them in clear water. Line the bottom of your kettle with green cabbage leaves, put in your beans, and as much vinegar and water, or clear water, as will cover them. Lay cabbage leaves over the top; put them over a slow fire, and let them get scalding hot. When they are green, take them out, and let them drain. Put them in jars with some allspice, cloves, a little mustard seed, and scraped horseradish, and enough vinegar to cover them. Tie them close, and keep them in a cool, dry place.

A quick way to pickle Peppers—To a hundred peppers put three stone salt and as much scalding vinegar, half an ... a small lump of alum them. It is with cold vinegar.—to do in this way, they do not change ...

Pickled Artichokes.—Wash your artichokes; put them in strong salt and water, and let them remain four or five days. Then take them out, rinse them in fresh water, wipe them dry, and put them in jars. Add to them cloves, allspice, and mustard seed. Cover with cold vinegar, and tie them up close.

Pickled Nasturtions.—Lay them in salt and water for two or three days; then wash them in fresh water, and let them drain. Put them in jars, and cover them with cold vinegar. If it should be preferred, a little spice may be added to the vinegar, but it discolors the pickles. A little sugar is a very great improvement.

Pickled Eggs.—Boil one dozen eggs until hard; put them in cold water, take off the shells, put them in a jar with half an ounce of mace, the same of cloves, allspice and whole pepper. Season your vinegar with salt to taste; heat it, and pour it over when cold.

Pickled Cherries.—To each quart of vinegar add one pound of sugar. Boil and skim it; when cold, pour it over your cherries, having first washed and placed them in jars.

Drawn Butter.—Half a pint of boiling water, two teaspoonsful of flour, two ounces of butter; mix the flour and butter together until they are perfectly smooth. Stir this into the boiling water, and add salt to taste. If made with milk in place of water, less butter will answer.

Boiled Onion Sauce.—Select white onions, pare and boil them in milk and water till quite soft. Then drain, and put them in a vegetable dish with a piece of butter, and season with pepper and salt.

Egg Sauce.—This is made like drawn butter, with the addition of three eggs, boiled hard, and chopped fine. Serve this sauce with boiled poultry, or fish.

Mint Sauce.—Take a bunch of spear mint, wash it entirely free from grit. Chop it fine, and mix with it one gill of vinegar, and a quarter of a pound of sugar. This sauce is to be eaten with roast lamb.

Apple Sauce.—Pare and core tart apples, cut them in slices, rinse and put them in an earthern stew pan, set them on the fire, do not stir them until they burst and are done; mash them with a spoon, and when perfectly cool, sweeten with white sugar to taste.

Cranberry Sauce.—Pick from your cranberies all that are defective, wash them through several waters, weigh them, and for every pound of fruit allow a pound of sugar. Put them over the fire in an earthen pipkin, or preserving kettle, to stew gradually. To prevent them from sticking to the bottom of the pipkin, stir them frequently with a silver spoon. When they are done, turn them out in a deep dish, and set them aside to cool. They may be used for pies, tarts, or sauce.

When for sauce, mash them quite fine and put into small moulds suitable for the table; first rinsing them with cold water, which will prevent the cranberries from adhering.

SOMETHING NEW!—B. T. BABBITT'S BEST MEDICINAL SALERATUS

Is manufactured from common salt, and is prepared entirely different from other Saleratus. All the deleterious matter is extracted in such a manner as to produce Bread, Biscuit, and all kinds of Cake, without containing a particle of Saleratus when the Bread or Cake is baked; thereby producing wholesome results Every particle of saleratus is turned to gas and passes through the bread or biscuit while baking; consequently nothing remains but ... salt, water and flour ... saleratus.

... pound papers, each wrapper ... perceive by B. T. Babbitt's Best Medicinal Saleratus," also, picture, twisted loaf of bread, with a glass of effervescing water on the top. When you purchase one paper you should preserve the wrapper, and be particular to get the next exactly like the first—brand as above.

Full directions for making Bread with this Saleratus and Sour Milk or Cream Tartar, will accompany each package; also, directions for making all kinds of Pastry; also, for making Soda Water and Seidlitz Powders.

DAYLIGHT.

A Splendid Large Extended Oven
Gas Burning Cooking Stove.

FOR COAL OR WOOD.

IT has long been a favored object with stove dealers to construct a flat top down draft Cooking Stove that would combine all the advantages of excellent draft, large oven and good baking properties, with the use of a moderate amount of fuel. These desirable qualities have all been combined in the flat top Gas Burning Cooking Stove, the DAYLIGHT. This beautiful stove, the result of many years' experience, and combining all the improvements of the age, is one of the most perfect made. It operates in the most perfect manner, and in situations where other flat top stoves would fail to operate. The Daylight, during the past year, has given the most entire satisfaction, and is surpassed by no stove of the same class. It is new in design, beautiful in appearance, unsurpassed in its operations, and a great saver of fuel. They are warranted to give entire satisfaction. Call and examine the Daylight, at the Tin and Stove Establishment of
