Stinson, Esq , of Eyansville, Indiana, and eldest daughter of Hon. Ephraim Banks, of this place. No partieplars were given, the dispatch simply announcing that she was burnt to death. She leaves a husband and two children, a deeply afflicted father, a sorrowing sister and two brethren, to mourn her early and sudden departure from the seenes of earthan affliction in which they have the heartfelt condolence of this entire community.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Arthur Adamson, residing above Allenyille, met with a very for him, and he was found lying dead in the barn yard. We hear it stated that N. J. Rudistil, of this place, has been or will be returned as a Juror to the District Court at Pittsburg. The marshall was here a few weeks ago looking round for a deputy to tike the census, and most folks now think that the old applicants will have to stand back and make room for J. M. Stoner.

THE CANAGE Supervisor Burns has a number of hands employed making repairs at acqueducts, &c., (the Jack's creek having been considerably injured by the ice gorging at that point, having raised the flooring at least two feet,) so as to be ready for admitting the water whenever the weather will permit. The officers are making economical reforms all along the line, having determined we believe to dispense with determined we believe to dispense with collectors proper at all the ports where it can be consistently done. We infer this from the fact that at this place that office has been in a measure abolished, and Lafayette Webb appointed to general duties at a salary considerably reduced from that formerly paid to the collector alone.

By J. Stewart McEwen has an article on the Gazette's imonition to the colored people in which he contrasts it with our erticle "What does the South want." Since Stewart's location among slavery advocates, (who we understand occasionally give him a lesson by stoning his office,) the rights guaranteed by the constitution have undergone a wonderful change with him: No-body objects to the arrest and punishment of slave abductors, murderers, or any others guilty of real of-fences, but northern men do object to the arrest and punishment of peaceable travelers by such mobs as can only be found among nigger-breeders.

Frozen to Death on the Prairies. The St. Paul's Minnesotian and Times of Pebruary 10th extracts from the Nor'wester, published at the Red-river settlements, a sad parrative. A party, including Mr. McKenzie, farted from Georgetown, at the mouth of the Buffalo river, to cross the prairie to Fort Lar-ry. They started December 23d, taking mules.

The latter gave out in three days, the distance only half done, and provisions getting short. reached Pembina the same evening. Mr. M. Two men were sent, and they fell in with the remnant of the party shortly after mid-night on Tuesday, and, after supplying their urgent needs, went off in search of Mackenzic. On Wednesday they came upon traces which brought them to his corpse. After leaving his companions, he seemed to have followed the trail for a considerable distance, and then to have lost his way. Night came upon him, and, bewildered by the growing darkness and the drifting snow, he made to wards a clump of trees, with the intention, probably, of kindling a fire. If such was his object, he seemed to be unable to accomplish and his beaten track showed that to keep himself from freezing he had speat the hours of that lonesome night in running round in a circle. With the break of day he again started across the trackless waste, every step that he took carrying him further and further from siding above Allenville, met with a very sudden death a few weeks ago. It appears he had gone to the stable to feed his cattravel was followed by a second night even more dreary than the first. Reason and Common Sense.

Our readers may remembe, we have on several ocasions spoken in very enlogistic terms of a prepara on which Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street altimore, Md. has discovered for the cure of Epilepe Fits. Now, in doing so, we have been actuated by the very best motives, viz; the alleviation of human the Fits. Now, in doing so, we have been actuated by the very best motives, viz: the alleviation of human suffering. From circumstances which have lately come to our knowledge, we fear there is a certain class of persons who are not disposed to try this remedy in a common sense manner. We allude to the fact of selecting a particular case in a town where perhaps there are six or eight cases, and trying it on one case. Now, perhaps the case selected might be the only one of the whole number that it would not cure. This is neither doing themselves nor the medicine justice. If a dozen persons were stricken down with cholera in one town or neighborhood, would they all send for a physician, or would only one employ him, and all wait and see if he cared the first patient? That plan of procedure would be most absurd. So in the case of Dr. Hance's remedy, every one who has Fits should try it for a reasonable length of time. It will not cure in a day or week; nothing worth doing can be accomplished at once. What is easily done, is as easily undone. The growth of time is enduring. From the most respectable testimony we have examined, we feel assured that by a proper perseverance in this remedy, nine cases of Epilepsy out of ten may be cured. The Pills are sent by mail free of postage to any part of the world. Price, one box $3, twe $5, twelve $24. You will find the address above.

Janua Worms! Worms!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermiftige of Dr. M'Lane, prepared by Fleming Bros, Pittsburgh. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of snocess when tried.
