Recipes.

[The following nine good recipes are taken from a copy-righted pamphlet issued by Mr. Crozer, of Mercer Co., N. J., who was formerly largely engaged in the baking business, preparing cooking extracts, etc. We doubt not our readers will find them valuable .- Ed. American Agriculturist.]

Almond Cake .- Mix together until very light, 1 lb. of sugar and 7 lb. of butter; then add gradually 1 pint of white of eggs, well beaten up; mix until light, and flavor with extract of bitter almond; then add 11 lbs. of flour; mix it in carefully until smooth. Put in a greased and papered pan; bake in a moderately hot oven. If baked in smaller cakes they need a hotter oven.

eratus, then add enough flour to enable it to be rolled out. Cut in cakes, and bake in a hot oven. Too much flour will spoil it. By using only a little more than half the flour, an excellent soft ginger cake can be made.

Ginger Nuts .- To ? of a pound of butter mix 1 quart best molasses; add 2 eggs; flavor with extract of ginger, and add 12 ounces of saleratus dissolved in 1 pint of water or milk ; then add about 31 pounds of flour. After mixing, make them up into small balls; put on greased pans, flatten them slightly, and bake in a moderate heat.

or lard; flavor with extract of clove, (extract of ginger will improve it); then add $\frac{1}{2}$ a pint of water in which is dissolved $1\frac{1}{2}$ ounces of saleratus; then add about 31 pounds of flour. Make the dough up in small round balls, put on pans, flatten them slightly, and bake them in a moderate heat.

Delicate Cake .- Mix 11 pounds of fine white sugar and 1 pound of good solid butter until light; then beat up to a stiff froth 1 pint of white of eggs, add a few at a time, and mix carefully; flavor with extract of vanilla, and add 11 pounds of sifted flour, and mix it through very carefully. If made in small cakes, bake in a hot oven or stove. If made in one cake, a cooler oven is required.

them on greased pans, and press them very flat; bake in a moderate oven or stove.

Domestic Cake .- Mix together 8 ounces of sugar and 6 ounces of butter; add 2 eggs; mix, and flavor with extract of cinnamon ; add # of a gill of water, in which is dissolved 1 a teaspoonful of saleratus, then sufficient flour to have it rolled out and cut in cakes. Pan close, and bake in a hot oven or stove. Too much flour will spoil either of these recipes.

Tea Cake .- Mix together 1 pound of sugar and 1 a pound of butter; add 2 eggs; mix, and flavor with extract of celery, or other articles to suit the taste; add 1 a pint of milk in which is dissolved a teaspoonful | The following is a list of the kind and quanof saleratus, then flour until stiff enough other parts may be glued or cemented to the pasteboard, but they look neater when sewed. The separate parts when finished, are joined, and the inside of the basket lined with pink or other bright colored silk, quilted in. Open seams left where the edges of the pieces meet, may be covered by a beading of allspice berries strung on strong thread or fine wire. Similar trimming is sewed around the edges of the basket, and of the handle. Four large acorns inverted and glued to the bottom, form neat supports. Picture frames, can also be made of the same materials, the pasteboard being fastened to the woodwork; or, the cones might be glued directly upon the wood. For such larger objects, larger cones are appropriate. Those of the white pine split lengthwise with a knife, and the

PHIENIX BITTERS,

THE reputation of these very celebrated veg-etable remedies is now unequalled by any others in this country or in Europe. They are fully established as the most universal family medicine now in use, and they will maintain medicine now in use, and they will maintain their pre-eminent renown by the intrinsic and comprehensive virtues which acquired it. The usual modes of puffery would be unworthy of them and is unnecessary. Thousands and tens of thousands of persons now living in perfectly restored health can testify, as thousands have testified, to their prompt and decided efficacy not only in all ordinary derangements of health, from Impaired Digestive Functions, Costiveness, Billious and Liver Complaints, Rheumatic and Bilious and Liver Complaints, Rheumatic and Inflammatory Colds, Coughs, Nerrous Weak-ness, Loss of Appetite, Failure of Flesh, Head-ache and Impure State of the Blood and other fluids, but also in Rheumatism, Fever and Agur, other Intermittent Fevers, Asthma, Bronchitia, Challe, Pleurisy, Palnitation of the Meast P. other Intermittent Fevers, Asthma, Bronchitia, Cholic, Pleurisy, Patpitation of the Heart, Rush of Blood to the Head, Settled Pains in the Joints, Limbs and Organs, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Jaundice, Dropsy, Piles (howgrer inveterate), Habitual Costiveness, Sprous and Billiogs Looseness, Obstinate Headache and Giddiness, and an immense number of other maladies, They require no dieting nor confine-ment, are perfectly mild and pleasant in their operation, but will ovwerfully restore healthment, are perfectly mild and pleasant in their operation, but will powerfully restore health-the greatest of earthly blessings-to the most exhausted and dilapidated constitutions. to roll out. Cut in small cakes, put on greased pans, a little distance apart, and bake in a very hot oven or stove. Be careful not to get too much flour.

Spanish Biscuit .- Mix 1 a pound of sugar and 6 ounces of butter together; add 3 eggs, and when well beaten add t of a pint of milk or water in which is dissolved of an ounce of saleratus; work this well in, and flavor with extract of lemon; then add 14 ounces of flour, work it in well, and drop the dough on greased pans, in small lumps, a little distance apart, flat them slightly, and bake in an oven hot enough for bread.

Lemon Pie .- The best we have tasted, made by Mrs. H. M. B., Kings co., N. Y., after the following recipe, and contributed by her to the Agriculturist. Take two lemons, four eggs, two spoonsful melted butter, eight spoonsful white sugar. Squeeze the juice of all the lemons, and grate the rind of one. Stir together the yolks, sugar, butter, juice and rind. Cover a plate with pastry, pour the mixture in, and bake till the pastry is done. Then beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth, stir into it four spoonsful of sugar, put it on the pie, and bake a delicate brown. This quantity makes two common sized pies.

Delicious Corn Bread .- By the same. Boil a teacup of rice. While scalding hot mix it with a little less than a quart of corn meal, four eggs, well beaten, a tablespoonful of lard, a teaspoonful of soda a little salt, and enough sour milk to make a thin batter. Bake quick.

Evergreen Cones for Baskets, &c.

Pieces of pasteboard are cut of the right shape to form a basket, when sowed togeth-A small wire, properly bent and sewer. ed around the edge of each piece, holds it in shape. Then the more ornamental part of the work as wreaths, rosettes, &c., are made by sewing to the pasteboard small whole cones of hemlock, acorns in their cupe, walnut shucks, &c., disposed to suit the taste of the maker. The interstices left, are filled with the scales of the pine cones; yellow pine are the neatest. These GLASS and Stoneware Fruit and Tomato like shingles upon a roof, thus hiding the stitches.
