The Central Press says: We were made acquainted with a circumstance that lately transpired in Ferguson township, which we shall publish for the benefit of the public. A Jew pedier called at the house of a Mr. Musser, and with tears in his eyes bewailed the hardness of his situation. He had a sister and a child in the West, that were suffering all sorts of privation, and he had not the funds to bring them East; but he had a first rate gold watch, that he would pawn for a small sum of money, until he could redeem it. His loud lamentations aroused the sympathies of the family and they advanced him 40 dollars, and received the watch as a pledge. Of course he was to retarn in a way tow days. course he was to return in a very few days darising from defective management, and redeem it. The time elapsed but no Jew returned. This excited suspicion, and the valuable watch was put to the test. It proved to be a base article worth about 10 dollars. We have been apprised of two similar circumstances of recent occurrence, in which unsuspecting people were victimized by the hy-poerisy of these swindling seruls. Such scoundrels should meet with a warm reeption. Look out for them.

Clyde, Wayne Co., N. Y., March 1c, 1857.

Messrs, S. W. Fowle & Co.—1 am happy to state that I have used the Oxygenated Bitters in my practice for the last three years in the treatment of Dyspepsia, General Dobolity, Indigestion, and Affections of the Liver, with the most satisfactory results, and would cheerfully recommend to those suffering from these distressing diseases to give this valuable medicine a trial. Respectfully yours, Exeter, Me., Sept. 39.—This certifies that I have recommended the use of Wistar's Bulsam of Wild Cherry for Diseases of the Lumgs for two years past, and many bottles, to my knowledge, have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases, where it was thought confirmed Consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure.

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is subject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably consigns the sufferer to a premature grave. To such, help is at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope,—the harbinger of brighter days.—may be awakened without fear of chilling disappointment. Pr. O. Fireirs Brown's Acacian Baisan does just what is claimed for it, and may be relied upon by the sick as being the most successful in curing lung and throat disorders, of any remedy known at the present day. The many phases assumed by Consumption justifies the apprehension of those whe have reason to fear its apprehension of those whe tional or hereditary tendency.

TO PREVENT SICKNESS,

there are many cases where disease is too long allowed to remain unchecked in the system; and a slight cough, regarded at first as simply an annoyance, ceases only with the life of the patient. An impure state of the blood, through debilitation of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or accelerated to a feverish intensity—the heart, liver, and kidneys, separately performing functions of vital necessity to our well-being, are impeded in their regular action—the digestive organs failer in their task, and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mental being is well-nigh ready to sink under the burden of life. The patient as afflicted, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resert to medication, from his therough disbelief in any prespect of cure. To such of the Acadan Baisam, as thoroughly worthy the confidence of all. Every symptom of Consumption is surely and permanently cradicated by its use. Its effects are none other but strengthening and renovating to the satire system. Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility, are effectually cured by its use. Night-Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appetite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Laver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficulty of Breathing—all those affections disappear in an incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acadian Balsam.

incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acacian Balsam.

It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles, and inflammatien. It strengthens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying electricity or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and prostrate body. It needs no lengthy trial to convince any that the ACACIAN BAISAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight and-forty lours after trial.

Let the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most gratifying character.

The ACACIAN BAISAM is prepared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spired to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age. It may be taken by either sex, of all ages, and at all seasons, with perfect safely; and it is none the less powerful in conquering those disceases which sap the foundation and destroy the lives of so many in our midst. Every family should have it, and regard to as longshold treasure.
