"The heathen in his blindness Bows down to wood and stone

From the Lutheran Missionary. Letter from Mrs. Phebe A. Unangst, of the Lutheran Mission in India, to the Ladies of the Lutheran Church in America.

GUNTOOR, Jan. 3d, 1860. My dear Sisters in Christ :- Being assured that I am addressing Christians who love the Lord our Saviour, and who remember us at the mercy seat, I hope I am not undertaking a useless task in endeavoring to write you a short letter. Your thoughts no doubt, often wander to us in our Indian home. Perhaps during these cold January evenings, when you are comfortably seated by your firesides, surrounded by cheerful friends, your train of conversation often turns to those who have left you and their native land, in obedience to our Saviour's last command, "Go ye unto all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." We feel that we have been highly favored by our heavenly Father in preserving us from death, and permitting us to repeat the story of the cross to these poor benighted sons and daughters of India. Pray for us, my dear sisters, that we may be strengthened from on high to perform this work in love and obedience to our Saviour. Our work here is somewhat laborious, but we are not discouraged, and feel truly thankful that the Lord has been pleased to bless our feeble efforts. We have in our compound (yard) a very interesting Girls' School, consisting of fourteen boarders, and about twenty five day scholars. Five of the boarders are communing Christians, six are little girls that are baptized in their infancy, and three are not get baptized. The school house is but a few yards from our bungalow. One of the female teachers-Ruth lives in our compound, and is the wife of Henry, our butler, who is a worthy Chris-The other-Rebecca-lives in the town, and is the wife of Stephen, who is also engaged in teaching a school at his house. The head teacher is Walter, who is always faithful at his post. The school hours are from seven to ten o'clock in the morning, and from two to five o'clock in the evening. Reading a portion of the Scripture, singing a hymn, and prayer are the opening secreises in the morning. I hear the four eldest girls recite lesson every morning in Scripture, geography, spelling, writing and dictation. They generally study well. In the afternoon from two to five o'clock the boarding girls, except ing the quite small ones, and the larger ones the day scholars, occupy one of the verandas of our bungalow, together with Ruth and Walter, for the purpose of sewing, knitsiderable help for the school. Before I close, I must tell you something who have no respect for them, and in conse mence they soon forget their religious instrucn, which they have received from their Christian teachers. To avoid this, we must establish boarding schools, and train up and educate girls in them, and not let them go out until we think they are well qualified for the duties of life. In this way, we are able to furnish teachers, and influential women, who are able to do much good arrang their own ting, crocheting, &c. Rebecca, continues the school during this time with the small schol ars. Our English friends are very kind in furnishing work for the girls, such as making bottle covers, knitting lace, crocheting and different kinds of sewing. Sometimes the girls get work made on hand, which generally ands ready sale, and in this way we get con-

Besides boarding schools, constant effort must be made in other respects, in order to each the female sex among the Hindoos. We have, therefore, a native female prayer meeting, and a Sunday Bible class, which any that wish may attend. My very kind friend, Mrs. Ouslow, frequently assists me at the prayer meeting, which takes place on Saturay evenings before sunset. The Bible class. composed only of school girls at present. Often when my class is scated around me on the floor, I am reminded of the precious truth, that the same Saviour that meets with us here, meets with you teachers in a Christian land, to bless us in our works of love, in teaching oung girls the way of everlasting life. Oh, that we could realize the truth more than we I am sure we would be more diligent in work of our master than we are. My highest aim is to point these poor Hindoo women to Jesus, the chief among ten thousand, and the one altogether lovely. It is a great encouragment, to know that some of them have found him precious unto their souls. But, my dear sisters, I must bring my letter to a close with the pleasing hope, that as you love the Lord Jesus, that you will not orget the poor Hindoo women, and that you will soon let me know that your heart is in the work, by sending us something handsome for the benefit of the school girls. Perhaps you may find it convenient, to send us a box f materials for sewing and clothing, for the use of the girls school. I know that you will be abundantly rewarded, for anything you do for the welfare of these poor Hindoos. May the blessing of the Lord be with you, is the prayer of

Your Sister in Christ, PHEBE A. UNANGST.

Mr. Editor: I recently attended an exhibition of a school at Reedsville, a short description of which I think is worthy of a space in your paper. Mr. H. Norris, the gentleman who has charge of the school, gave me a kind nvitation to attend, and I can truly say, that was not only amused with the humorous reitations and dialogues, but much edified with the display of ability manifested by the quite young as well as the older scholars, in the various orations and dialogues of a moral and religious character. Great credit is due to the teacher for his zeal and devotion in thus training the young idea," as also for his selection of the pieces, so well adapted to properly directing and strengthening the young minds of his pupils.

SPECTATOR.

[For the Gazette.] Mr. Editor.-In looking over some old papers not long since, I came across an "Almanae" published in the year 1823, and in it found a piece entitled "Reflections on Scandal," and thinking the remarks there made not altogether inapplicable to the present time, I take the liberty of sending them to you in hope that you will give them a place in your

"There is no greater enemy to the peace of individuals and society at large, than Scandal. It is the offspring of envy, and the only weapon of listle minds against superior abilities. But, notwithstanding Scandal affects, more or less, every member of the community, it reigns with more distinguished power over some parts of society than others. On inquiry, it will appear that female character sustains the most injury from this bane of human happiness. Often the best characters too, lose the esteem of their friends from the malignant aspersions of ignorance and envy. It is almost impossible for a lady to be seen walking with a gentleman on the street, without the conclusion that they are lovers; and it is not uncommonly added that Miss So and So appears to be in a fair way of securing Mr. So and So. I have seen a company of females thrown into the greatest consternation by the entrance of the lady who was the unfortunate object of Scandal. How busy is the silent whisper on such occasions! It runs with amazing rapidity from ear to ear, accompanied with nods and winks, with a-"You know who," "So they say," "Well, I would never have thought it," and a variety of such phrases."

This, Mr. Editor, is too much the case in our own town. There are those who lay claims to respectability, who desire to be thought "pinks of propriety" and christians, who would resent warmly the name of Seandalmonger if applied to them, yet who, unfortunately for the characters of many, spend much of their time in going from house to house, for the purpose of hearing and carrying news. It is a shame on womanhood. is a shame that they who profess to follow the example and teachings of "Our blessed Lord," should so demean themselves, and "give the lie" to their professions. True, they may not think they are doing any one an injury by repeating what they have heard. and by giving their opinions on the subject. They forget that as Virgil says-" Report increases by motion, and acquires strength by advancing. At first small through fear, soon shr raises herself into the air, and stalks up on the ground, and soon hides her head in the clouds; that she is quick of foot and swift of wing." It is, as all know, Mr. Editor, no very easy matter to gain a good character; but it is ea sy to overthrow one. We should stop and think a moment before we reseat a report, injurious even in a slight degree, to another. We know not how soon our names may be coupled with disgrace, and bandied from mouth to mouth.

AN OBSERVER.

"Let well enough alone,"

Many persons at the present day are still so timid and superstitious that they are near ly all the time taking physic of some kind, either because they imagine that they are sick or because of a superstitious fear lest they should be. Daring the spring, fall, and certain "unlucky tigges," they must have their regular portion of physic. But children suffer most from over medication, being generally well dosed with "soothing syrups" and nauseous nostrums of different kinds. As a certain well known physician has well said, 'No sooner do some mothers imagine their infants sick, than dose after dose of nauseous physic is forced down their throats, with the arbarity of a savage, thus killing them with in India. One would think that day schools would be sufficient to do the work of educating the Hindoo girls. Experience proves, that very few in this way get enough of education to enable them to do much good, as they are taken away from the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the school by their parents, just when they are beginning to read well and married to the schools to manifest indisposition, but at certain signs of the planets, or particular quarteza of the moor, or particular quarteza of the moor, or do days, or when the sua crosses the line, and a host of other unlacky days and critical seasons, their children must swall low calomel, or rhubarb, or oil, or squills, or any part of the world. Price, one box $3, two $5, twelve $24. You will find the address above. kindness—poisoning them, lest they should be sick. Many do not wait for their infants well and married to ignorant heathen men, not." Now what is the effect of this worse than useless medication? Why, thousands of children are either killed or constitutionally ruined for life-made to drag out a miserable existence, a burden to themselves and to their friends.

As to those adults who take physic in health, they are only pursuing the course of a certain Italian count, on whose tomb was inscribed, by his own request: "I was well, wished to be better, took physic, and died."

Belleville, March, 1860.

Huntingden County.

The Shirleysburg Herald says a young lady, named Catharine Ritter, died suddenly at Mill Creek on Friday last. While apparently in the enjoyment of good health, she start-ed to walk across the street, and meeting Sheriff Watson, stopped to speak to him, when she fell down dead. She was engaged to be married some time during the latter part of this month. At her funeral, on Sunday, a man became pale and prostrate, and was thought to be dying in the same manner. He was cared for, and recovered. These sudden dissolutions-even in the twinkling of an eye-are becoming quite frequent in our midst, and should cause as to give the more earnest heed to the admonition, "Be ye also ready."

Centre County. The Press says on Monday evening a man by the name of Charles Smith was arrested in Bellefonte on the charge of stealing $35 in. Lock Haven. He was committed by Justice Welch until next morning for further bearing. On Tuesday morning on investigation it was found by the defendant's attorney—Mr. Mitch ell-that the warrant was a mere search warrant. The money which was described not being found on the person of Mr. Smith, he was discharged. Gov. STEWART, of Missouri, has again refused his assent to the action of the Legislature on the free negro bills. At its recent session he vetoed a bill and the Legislature adjourned without further action. At the present extra session it was again passed, but was again returned by Gov. Stewart with his objections in full. Among others he states that he entertains doubts of the constitutionality of the measure, and is of the opinion that it would be sustained, and that it was uncalled for An effort was made to pass the bill despite the veto, which was unsuccessful, therenot being a majority of the whole number of members elected voting in its favor.

Messrs, S. W. Fowle & Co.,—I am happy to state that I have used the Oxygenated Bitters in my practice for the last three years in the freatment of Dyspensia, General Debility, Indigestion, and Affections of the Liver, with the most satisfactory results, and would cheerfully recommend to those suffering from these distressing diseases to give this valuable medicine a trial. Respectfully yours, J. E. Smirn, M. D. Exeter, Me., Sept. 30.—This certifies that Lhave recommended the use of Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for Diseases of the Lungs for two years past, and many bottles, to my knowledge, have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases, where it was thought confirmed Consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure.

Our readers may remember we have no several occasions spoken in very eulogistic terms of a preparation which Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. has discovered for the cape of Epileptie Fits. Now, in doing so, we have been actuated by the very best motives, viz: the alleviation of human suffering. From circumstances which have lately come to our knowledge, we fear there is a certain class of persons who are not disposed to try this remedy in a common sense manner. We allude to the fact of setecting a particular case in atoms where perhaps there are six or eight cases, and trying it on one case. Now, perhaps the case selected might be the only one of the whole number that it would not cure. This is meither doing themselves nor the medicine justice.
If a dozen persons were stricken down with cholera in one town or neighborhood, would they all send for a physician, or would only one employ him, and all one town or heighnormood, would they all send to physician, or would only one employ him, and all ait and see if he cured the first patient? That plan if procedure would be most absurd. So in the case f br. Hance's remedy, every one who has fits should by it for a reasonable length of time. It will not cure

Worms! Worms!

Various theories have been started relative to the origin of intestinal worms, and yet the question is still a vexed one among medical authorities. Of one fact, however, all are informed, and in which all agree—the fatal nature of the influence they exert on children. At this season of the year, the attacks of worms are most frequent as well as most dangerous. We take pleasure in directing the attention of parents to the Vermifuge of Dr. M'Lane, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh. It is one of the most extraordinary medicines ever introduced to the public, and has never failed of success when tried.
