The Mercantile Appraiser's List—An Administration Notice—a runaway Apprentice.

Foster and his Friends.

The Lewistown Democrat copies a paragraph from the Clinton Democrat, alleging that the extracts we gave a few weeks ago were forgeries.

As for Gen. Foster and his friends, although they did not vote for the opposition candidate, their course, in declining to go in caucus, and subsequently refusing to support Col. Forney, was extraordinary and unwelcome.

Such has been the course of the Democratic party heretofore, and it should not be departed from now.

Mr. Covode inquired whether the witness knew of any combinations among the Federal office-holders in the State of Pennsylvania, to control party politics, and whether any removals had taken place because collector's subordinates would not obey the dictation of the collector?

A Southern Bully Nonplussed.

Almost from the first week of the present session of Congress a nigger democrat from Virginia who figures under the name of Roger A. Pryor, has been endeavoring to keep up his name as a professed duelist, or would be murderer, by insulting remarks or conduct towards republican members.

It is understood that after Mr. Potter replied to Mr. Pryor's first note, that he would receive any message that might be sent to him in the District, Mr. Pryor asked him if he would accept a challenge, to which Mr. Potter replied that he would inform him whenever a challenge reached him.

bowie knives. This was declined on the ground that the weapons were barbarous, and not usual among gentlemen.

The chivalrous Pryor ended this matter by publishing an acceptance of Mr Potter's terms which was not delivered!

Among the surprising things in all these transactions, is, that although there are severe laws in the District against sending, carrying, or receiving a challenge, no effort is made by the officers to put a stop to it.

The Covode Investigating Committee. George Plitt, late Clerk of the Circuit Court of the United States at Philadelphia, in his examination before the Committee, said that as Treasurer of the Pennsylvania State Central Committee of the Democratic party in 1856, he disbursed seventy thousand dollars.

James C. Vandyke, of Philadelphia, testified that he was still United States District Attorney for the Eastern district of Pennsylvania, not having had official notification of his removal, although he understood that the name of his successor had been nominated to the Senate.

Mr. Vandyke stated that all the public duties, between the different officials and himself, had necessarily to be conducted by correspondence, since, unless it was so conducted, the successors in office could not know the condition of any cause pending; and that his political differences with the collector never interfered, either on his part or on the part of the collector, with the proper discharge of official duties.

Mr. Covode inquired whether the witness knew of any combinations among the Federal office-holders in the State of Pennsylvania, to control party politics, and whether any removals had taken place because collector's subordinates would not obey the dictation of the collector?

Mr. Vandyke replied that he had always considered that there was a thorough combination among Mr. Buchanan's office-holders in Philadelphia, with a few exceptions, for the purpose of controlling inside party politics in that city, and that many persons have been removed because they would not obey the dictation of the collector.

Potter and Pryor have been arrested and given security to keep the peace.

There are 165 soldiers of the Revolution still living. The youngest of them is 89 years old.

The Rock Island Bridge over the Mississippi, has been declared by the U. S. District Court to be a nuisance, and ordered abated.

Gov. Stewart, of Missouri, has been hung and burned in effigy in Independence, Mo., for vetoing the free negro bill.

The Clearfield Journal says that on the fifth inst., Mr. Robert A. Hall, of Unionville, captured a young bear near the plank road, about a mile and a half north of Julian Furnace.

A man named Samuel P. Smith, for a long time a resident of Tyrone, was arrested in that place, a few days ago on a warrant charging him with forgery.

Proceedings of Congress.

The bill admitting Kansas into the Union passed the House of Representatives on Wednesday last week by a vote of 134 yeas to 73 nays—more than two-thirds of the patent democrats having voted against it.

Among those who perished in the Hungarian war was the Rev. James Stuart, a young divine of great ability and promise, whose untimely demise is much lamented.

The office holders convention, alias democratic, will meet at Charleston next week. Among the politicians from this State who will figure as delegates, are Arnold Plummer, Israel Painter, Gen. John Ross, and a number of others who understand canal navigation.

A man named Wood, for using some language relative to the John Brown foray, received thirty nine lashes, in the public square of Abbeville, S. C., a few days ago, under legal sanction, and was then shipped off to the cars.

Chas. Morton, a tavern keeper, deliberately shot Wm. Riley, a young man, in Alexandria, Kentucky, on Monday. The act was without palliation, and aroused great indignation among Riley's friends, who spoke of summary vengeance.

We learn from the Cumberland (Md.) papers that the recent flood in that section was the greatest that has been known since the year 1816. From the Pittsburg, Pa., papers we learn that the damage done there, and in Allegheny city and environs, surpasses anything ever known.

On the 1st inst., after a short but severe illness, PAULINA E. daughter of Elias and Sarah Hummel, aged 8 years and 11 days. The funeral took place on the Tuesday following, when a large number of people with her schoolmates and teacher followed her remains to the Cemetery.

God in His boundless love looked down Upon His gentlest child, And His omniscient eye beheld A bud of promise rare;

At New Oxford, Adams county, Pa., on Thursday morning, April 5th, Mrs. ELIZABETH, wife of John Barnitz, aged 60 years, 1 month and 8 days.

The death of this estimable lady has left a void in the community in which she so long resided not easily replaced. The residences of the poor and needy, the wayfarer by the roadside, will sadly miss the kindly heart that was ever ready to minister to their wants, both temporal and spiritual, for so long as she was able to be about on call of this kind which was ever made in vain.

WILLIAM LIND, has now open A NEW STOCK OF Cloths, Cassimeres AND VESTINGS, which will be made up to order in the neatest and most fashionable styles.

Our readers will bear in mind that Billy Johnston, who served them long and well in the "understanding" business, has returned to his old quarters on East Market street, where he is again prepared to furnish Boots and Shoes to ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, children and babies, of all kinds of leather, &c., and at prices varying from next to nothing to $6 or $7.

We have been requested to state that Prof. Price, the celebrated wire walker from Columbia county in this state, will walk a tight wire one half inch in thickness in this place on next Saturday between 12 and 2 o'clock, without regard to weather.

The heavy rains last week caused a considerable flood in the Juniata, the water having continued to rise until Thursday morning last, at which time it had reached some of the back buildings on Elizabeth street, causing a general removal of furniture, &c. from the lower stories.

On Saturday we had a regular snow storm, followed by a cold night, ice having formed in various localities to the thickness of half an inch. On Sunday afternoon it was again warm and pleasant—on Monday a cold rain fell during a great part of the day—on Tuesday and Wednesday it was again cool, but otherwise pleasant.

Mr. Editor—Permit me through the columns of your paper to give an account of an Exhibition held on Tuesday evening, (April 3d,) at school No. 5, Menno township, known as Weiler's Schoolhouse taught by Mr. M. J. Davis. The school room was decorated in a handsome and tasty manner; wreaths, flowers, and festoons were strung around in all directions, which in the glare of the numerous lights presented a picturesque and beautiful spectacle.
