+ + + + + + + The Democrat and Judge Hale.

The Democrat is in trouble just now. the exposures of the villainies and corrupdering it necessary to do something towards saving the "onion," and it therefore attacks Judge Hale. Hear it :

this district are as dumb as oysters on Judge Hale's vote in favor of Blake's Abolition resolution in the House of Reprentatives at Washington. Come, come gentlemen, there's no use in attempting to shirk the question. There it is in black and white, and its the meanest kind of cowardice to attempt to evade it. Do you approve or condemn Judge Hale's vote? Let's hear from you.

Well, let us see what was Clark's resolusuch an ecstacy. Here it is :

Whereas, The chattelizing of humanity and the holding of persons as property is con principles of our political system, and is noteriously a reproach to our country through it the civilized world, and a serious hinddrance to the progress of republican liberty among the nations of the earth ;--therefore, tempted to produce any such pretended of Nessus; and that, in the name of the President, he defied Mr. Walker to produce any such letter. When this testimony was shown to Gov. Walker, he was very indignant and much excited. He declared that although he had heretofore refused to produce it, now that its contents were made public, and that he had been thus defied by the President through the Attorney General to produce the letter, whose existence was denied, bis own honor demanded that it should be produced and published. He then produced to the committee the original letter of the 12th of July, 1857, which, together with the signature, is all in the handwriting of Mr. Buchanan. A copy was taken by the committee.

The letter fully sustains all that Mr. Walker did in Kansas as Governor, for it says : ' The point on which your and our success depends is the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas. * * * On the question of submitting the Constitution to the bona fide resident settlers of Kansas I am willing to stand or fall. In sustaining such a principle we cannot fall. It is the principle of the Kansas Nebraska bill, the principle of Popular Sovereignty, and the foundation of all popular government. The more it is discussed the stronger it will become.'

The President then proceeds to censure the resolutions of Georgia and Mississippi disapproving of Gov. Walker's course in under our rule. Those therefore who will Kansas, and as regards those of Mississipnot receive the paper after this date, can pi, he says: 'In answering them, I would advise you to make the great principle of the submission of the Constitution to the candidate whom the freemen of this counbona fide residents of Kansas conspicuously prominent. On this you will be irresis-tible.'

After the reading of the letter, Mr. tions of the Buchanan administration ren- Walker proceeded to give a historical account of his appointment as Governor of Kansas, and of his action there under the views and instructions of the President, demonstrating that he had been fully sus-Nothing to Say .- The opposition papers of tained by the President until the latter the Lecompton Convention had been prepared here in Washington, and transmitted to Kansas, and his co-operation asked and refused : first, because it did not submit the Constitution to the people; and, second, because it did not even submit the slavery question to the people, but only to those tion which has awakened the Democrat to who were willing to vote for the Constitution, being a very small minority of the whole

Governor Walker then declared at that trary to natural justice of the fundamental date, in the fall of 1857, in Kansas, that this device was a wretched fraud and a base counterfeit, designed to prevent the people of Kansas from voting even on the question of slavery. On being then informed that it was the programme of the President and of the Administration, he denied to enquire into the expediency of reporting a that it could possibly be the programme of bill giving freedom to every human being, the President, and read Mr. Buchanan's letassertion. Mr. Walker was assured that the President had changed his opinion and that all the Cabinet went with him. Mr. Walker said that, whatever the President he would forever denounce this programme as base and dishonorable, and as forfeiting the pledges which he (Mr. Walker) had made in his own name and that of the sas for ratification or rejection, upon the faith of which pledge the people had ac-wiser than those on the spot. It is, beyond letter, he would be covered with the shirt of Nessus; and that, in the name of the great Democratic party there to maintain the Constitution and the laws, composed of Pro-Slavery and Free State Democrats, and if the majority should be against Slavery, to obtain such Constitutional provisions as will secure the rights of slaveholders in Missouri and other States, and maintain all the laws guarding the just rights of the South.

You are right in your conjecture as to the cause of Judge Williams' appointment. We supposed it would be peculiarly acceptable to yourself, and that he might aid in carrying out your policy.

Colonel Cumming has been appointed Governor of Utah. This will cause his place to be vacant after the brief period required for settling up his business, and I certainly shall be disposed to fill it by the appointment of Mr. Stevens

General Harney has been ordered to command the expedition to Utah, but we must continue to have him with you, at least until you are out of the woods. Kansas is vastly more important at the present moment than Utah.

The pressure upon me continues without intermission. I pray the Divine Providence, in which I place my trust, may graciously preserve my life, and my health until the end of my term. But God's will be done in any event

With every sentiment of esteem, I remain always sincerely your friend, [Signed] JAMES BUCHANAN. To Hon. Robert J. Walker.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT .--- We have received a communication from a gentleman who considers the publication of a communication in the Democrat of last week "as an outrage on common decency," but submits the propriety of noticing the matter and its author to our judgement. In our opinion Mr. Smith will not be injured by articles of the malevolent character referred to, and we doubt whether there is a School Director in the county who will be so stupid as to be influenced by them in his choice of a County Superintendent. If we have native talent in this county capable of filling the office satisfactorily, no one will object to his appointment; but as at New York about two weeks hence. this native talent has never yet exhibited eral academies when standing open for servants. such smart chaps, and raising them to the standard of first class, there would seem to be some doubt whether it does exist. One thing is certain, namely, that no man who would offer to fill the post for $100 is fit for it, nor would such a proceeding be recognized by the State Superintendent, as is foreshadowed in the following extract from the School Journal for April:

"These two duties of Superintendents .-examination of teachers in their proper dis-tricts, and visitation of the schools in the school houses,—are primary and of absolute obligation. They can neither be dispensed with by the consent of the electing convention, nor neglected or slighted by the officer without forfeiture of office. Being the law, they are above all its officers."

"During the ensuing term of the County Superintendency, the full duties of the office must be performed in every county, without regard to the salary, and it is well for candi dates to know that fact in advance. In answer to inquiries which have been received at the Department, it is proper to state, that the one inevitable effect of a successful attempt, on the part of the convention in any county, to vote down the salary to a low fig ure, so as to prevent the acceptance of the office by competent men, would be to place it it will be impassable for wagons or other out of the power of the in coming State Suvehicles. ## Buchanan's Hypocrisy Exposed.

The Covode investigating committee has been bringing to light some rich disclosures respecting Buchanan and his union savers, and disturbed the equanimity of the President so much that it is said he has threatened to veto any appropriation for paying the committee's expenses .---Among other facts brought to light is the shameful and disgraceful one that Buchanan himself, his Attorney General, and others high in office personally superintended the distribution of corruption funds.

WASHINGTON, April 18, 1860. Governor Walker's appearance before the Covode Committee, this morning, created a great sensation. He spoke about two hours, was easy, cool, and collected, and laid bare his whole relation to Mr. Buchanan on the Kansas question with a master hand. It ought to be recollected that the recent course of Governor Walker has not given satisfaction to the rebels. They regarded him as having caved in to the blandistiments of the Administration, and they have always demanded that he should justify them and himself by exposing Mr. Buchanan's pretended private instructions to him on the Kansas question. Incuch free in letting the contents of this letter be ni known to his friends, he refused to make The more it is discussed the stronger it will it known to the public until the proper time arrived. This time has arrived, and Walker stands vindicated to his country and to his friends.

Governor Walker having been shown the Governor Walker having been shown the testimony of several witnesses who had sippi Conventions will then pass away and be testified to the contents of the letter shown to them in 1858 by Governor Walker, un-der no confidential restrictions but to vindicate himself from the charge of violating the President's instructions in regard to his official action in Kansas. One of these witnesses swore positively that, a few days since, he had mentioned to Judge Black, Attorney General of the United States, the existence of this letter, and stated that Gov. Walker had read it to him. Judge Black, the witness testified, went into a violent rage, and declared that no such letter existed ; that if it had, Gov. Walker would who have no practical acquaintance with the Governor Walker said he had never reuttered, or one line he had ever written on this subject, and never should do so. [Mr. Walker, in consequence of Black's denial that such a letter was in existence, challenged Judge Black, but Jerry declined to be shot at.]

BUCHANAN'S LETTER.

WASHINGTON, July 12, 1857. My Dear Sir :-- I duly received your letter of the 28th ult., on Friday last, and read it to the Cabinet then in session. The views which it contained were not calculated to as sure us of your success, though we did not despond; hence you may judge with what satisfaction we received an account of the proceedings of the National Democratic Convention held at Lecompton on the 3d inst. The point on which your success depends is the submission of the Constitution to the people of Kansas; and by the people, I mean, and I have no doubt you mean, the actual bona fide residents who have been long enough in the Territory to identify themselves with its fate. The Legislature determined three months as the period of residence to entitle individuals to vote for members of the Con-vention, and if the Convention should think adopt the same period, to entitle individuals to vote for or against the constitution, it appears to me this would be reasonable.

On the question of submitting the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas, I am willing to stand or fall. It is the princi-ple of the Kansas Nebraska bill; the princi ple of popular sovereignty, and the principle as the foundation of all popular government. become. Should the Convention of Kansas adopt this principle, "I will be settled harmon-iously, and, with the blessing's of Providence, you will return triumphantly them your arduous, important and responsible station. to hear much from Mississippi. Should you answer the resolution of the latter, I would advise you to make the great principle of the submission of the Constitution to the bona fide residents of Kansas conspicuously prominent. On this you will be irresistable. DISREPUTABLE HOUSES .- The penal code, as passed by the late Legislature, contains the following stringent provisions against the keeping of bawdy houses, or the renting of tenements for that purpose, which we publish for the benefit of all persons interested :

MIFFLIN COUNTY BANK .-- We learn that the Governor has appointed John Scott and John G. Miles, Esqs , of Huntingdon county, and Andrew Parker, Esq., of Juniata county, Commissioners to appraise the real estate of the Mifflin County Bank, in pursuance of the act incorporating the said Bank, passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Farewell, dear Sammie, thy short life on earth is ended, and God has removed thee to a better home than this world can offer. Although thy merry laugh will no more gladden our hearts with its childish glee, and we have laid thy little form in the grave to mingle with its mother dust, we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for Jesus has said, "Suf-fer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven," and we believe that when Christ shall appear, thou shalt ap-pear with Him in glory. Friends, weep not the more will our opponents upge that we are violating the principle of non interference at the foundation of the Kansas and Nebraska bill.
