bruised severely. He died about an hour after the accident.

Union and Snyder Counties.

On Saturday the 26th of May, a Battalion will be held in Mifflinburg. Five or six com anies are expected to be present, and a livey time expected. The Selinsgrove Times says a serious and ainful accident occurred to Judge Menges a few weeks ago. He was to Freeburg and pur-chased a new top buggy and took it home. For this purpose he used a young horse; the orse, however, had been regarded the trust-est beast he owned. When he came near nome he met his wife, who was also returning towards the house, and urged her to get into the new buggy; but she declined, as she was within a few steps of home, and said she was firred to walk so short a distance. When the Judge arrived at the gate he alighted to open the gate, holding the rein at the same time; but the horse got a sight of the buggy, after which he became entirely unmanageable. He rared and ran on to a pile of posts with his fore feet, and, whilst standing in this al-most erect position, he got the Judge under his hind feet and stood directly upon his abdomen with his whole weight. The horse then ran away, broke the buggy and harness, leaving the Ju'g in a state of insensibility.

He is again setting up and improving. The appointment of Peputy Marshals to the census in Snyder county has been made by dividing the county into two districts. Hearge Eby is the Deputy for Monroe, Middecreek, Penn, Washington and Chapman twinships and the borough of Selfnsgrove. Franklin Weirick is the Deputy for Perry, West Perry, Beaver, West Beaver. A coroner's inquest was held, and a ver-dict rendered in accordance with the above. dict rendered in accordance with the above. It was ascertained that the stab in the tem-ple had penetrated to the brain, and in his side the knife passed entirely through the liver. McDowell was arrestsd, and on exam-ination, committed to await trial. His broth-er Edward McDowell, was also in some way concerned in the affair; he was bound over in $300 bonds, and committed in default of bail.

From the testimony of some of the witnes-ses, and an examination of the wounds, it ap pears that the knife used by McDowell was a pears that the knife used by alcowen was a terrible weapon. It is represented as having a blade some six inches long and over an inch wide. The knife, however, which he gave to the constable, and which he and some of the witnesses swear was the one he used, is a very ordinary pocket knife. About forty persons have been converted this spring. A lad very nearly lost his life, on Tuesday morning, says the Journal, by that most foolish of foolhardy tricks, hanging to the cars while they are in motion. He had caught hold of the platform railing, as the cars start-ed, and held fast until they were under considerable headway, when attempting to let go, he was pitched forward on his head and shoul ders, and his legs fell across the track. By a trange and miraculous occurrence, instead of crushing them the wheels of the car merely shoved them off the track.

Another Tragedy-A Young Man Killed.

[For the Taewell (III.) Republican, April 27.]

We have just learned from Hopedale, in this county, the particulars of a tragedy which occurred in that township on last Thursday night. The parties in the affair were a young ian by the name of McDowell, and another A. J. Finley. It appears that several young indies of the neighborhood had met some time previous to put a church in trim for some kind of meeting, and several young men as-sisted them. After this was a singing school, which Finly was attending on Tuesday night, when McDowell called him out and accused him of mehical school of the second school of the school of him of making some depreciating remarks concerning certain ladies engaged in the church decorating above referred to. This Finley denied, when a quarrel ensued, and McDow-ell threw off his coat and swore he would have the affair this to a start of the second start of the s the affair "settled" then and there.
