MORAL & RELIGIOUS New Spring and Summer Goods.

The Heart Supreme.

Nothing in the wide world is worth half so much as love and peace. Riches, and station, and rank, and learning, and polish, and genius, are vanity, and less than nothing when weighed in the balance with a kind, genial, and unselfish heart. Have them all, if you can; the first things are good additions to the last, but they are wretched substitutes for it. It cannot be from necessity they are so often parted ; there surely is no sufficient reason why the good and noble heart should be chilled, and hardened, and inflated with pride, by the acquisition of the things that make men great in the eyes of their fellow men.

The most elaborate culture, the most subtle refinement, ought not to render men selfish and vain. Better blunder with the intellect than with the heart, for in the heart, not in the head, lies manhood, and the days will come when the heart will be crowned and walk before, while the understanding goes behind to do its errands .--"A new commandment I give unto you that ye love one another.'

Visions of Eternity.

Time is short, and eternity is long ; yet in this short time I must prepare for a long eternity. Oh ! what a duration is before me ! but what an infatuation is within me, that I should mind the triffing things of time, and forget the interests of eternity ! Truly, when I compare eternity and time, I am astonished that eternity does not swallow up my time concerns and meditations. With what night visions, perceptive fantasies and delusive dreams are we entertained here in comparison with that divine understanding, intuitive knowledge, noonday discoveries, vigor and activity of soul we awake to immortality from all slumbers of transitory life! And yet (woe is me !) am I not more anxious to grow in earth than to grow for heaven? Will not fear of temporal losses at times out balance the joy I should have in believing? While God and glory have a passing meditation in my heart, have not the vanities of the world a permanent mansion? Does not worldly sorrow take deeper root in my soul than spiritual joy? And, were my thoughts counted one by one, while vanities reap the tithe? Is this, alas! behaviour of a candidate for bliss, the practice of an expectant of glory? One mournful conclusion ! that I love God least, since he is least in my thoughts! But let me rise in my contemplation, and see the godly hosts of ransomed nations, dwelling in the noonday displays of his glory, possessed of pleasures free as the fountain whence they flow, and SPRING & SUMMER GOODS full as their unlimited desire. Their souls are replenished with the most refined satisfaction, sacred delight, and substantial joy. What an assembly are the inhabitants of the better country ! rearing crowns, holding sceptres, reigning on thrones, walking in white, exalted in their natures, their conceptions bright, their visions cloudless, their thoughts elevated, their songs transporting, their happiness confirmed, their love burning, and all their powers entranced forever !

THIS remady is offered as affording a means of speedy sure for the large number that die annually in our land of that fell scourge Consumption, to which, unfortu-nately, so many previdapoing causes exist. Youth and age are alike subject to its ravages.

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is sub-ject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably consigns the suf-ferer to a premature grave. To such, help is at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope —the har-binger of brighter days.—may be awkened without fear of chilling disappointment. Dr. O. PHELES BROWN'S ACACAN RAIXAN does just what is claimed for it, and may be relied upon by the sick as heing the most success-ful in curing lung and throat disorders, of any remedy known at the present day. The many phases assumed by Consumption justifies the approbension of those who have reason to fear its approach, either from constitu-tional or hereditary tendency. While the discoverer of this remedy does not believe that people should be constantly dosing themselves with medicines

there are many cases where disease is too long allowed to remain unchecked in the system ; and a slight cough, regarded at first as simply an annoyance, ceases only with the life of the patient. An impure state of the blood, through debilitation of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or acceler-ated to a forerish intensity—the heart, liver, and kid-neys, separately performing functions of vital necessity to our well-being, are impeded in their regular action— the digestive organs falter in their task, and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mental being is well-nigh ready to sink under the burden of life. The patient so afflicted, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resort to medication, from his thorough dis-belief in any prospect of cure. To such of the ACACTAN BAISAM, as thoroughly worthy the confi-dence of all. Every symptom of Consumption is surely and permanently eradicated by its use. General Debility, are effectually cured by its use. Night-Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appelite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Liver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Diff-culty of Breathing--all these affections disappear in an incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acacian Balsam. It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles, and inflammation. It strength-ens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying electricity or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and prostrate body. It meeds no lengthy trial to convince any that the ACACIAN BAISAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight and forty hours after trial. Is the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most grafifying character. The ACACIAN BIASIAN is propared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spared to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age, in at all seesons, with perfect zafefy ; and it is the eases which sap the foundation and destroy the lives of so many in our midst.
