at Birmingham, on the charge of high treason. For nearly two years he was confined in prison for his alleged politi-cal offences. In 1801, soon after his release, he embarked at Liverpool for Baltimore, where he safely arrived, and proceeded at once to Northumberland, Penna., where, in 1802 he commenced the publication of The Republican Argus, which soon acthor great influence with the tion, in Philadelphia, of the Democratic Press, which speedily became the leading democratic paper of the state, and continued to occupy that position until 1824, when Mr. Binns earnestly opposed the election of General Jackson to the Presidency, and supported John Quincy Adams. In Novem-ber, 1829, after the election of General Jackson, he aban-doned his editorial career. In 1854 he published an ausketched, entitled, "Recollections of the life of John Binns: twenty-nine years in Europe, and fifty-three in the United States." It is quite an interesting work.

We learn from the Lan. caster Express that on Saturday night last about twelve o'clock one of the most coldblooded and unprovoked murders ever committed in that > MIFFLIN COUNTY BANK BILL .- This bill appears in another part of our paper to-day, and will no doubt be perused with eare by most of our readers. Its general features, so far as note holders are concerned are good, and if the institution can or will be conducted with reference to the public good, we see no reason why it should not secure public confidence, The stockholders were nearly ready to go into operation, but the Auditor General having deeided that the directors could not increase the capital after the functions of the commissioners ceased, it has been determined we believe to increase it to $200,000 at once. The lands thus far appraised are regarded as ample security, the only fault being found with the mill property, (appraised at $50.000,) but as the farm is included in this estimate, and an insurance required equal to the appraisement, it is perhaps not much above the mark.

POISONOUS CANDY .- A little girl in our neighborhood was taken dangerously ill night before last from eating candy which contained peach kernels instead of almonds. This shows the adulteration resorted to by manufacturers, and hence none colored or purporting to contain nuts of any description ought to be purchased for eating. Better give them a lump of sugar at once.

A limb from a tree completely smashed up the street lamp on the corner city was perpetrated by a of Brown and Water streets during the man named Avin Kendrick, thunder storm on Tuesday afternoon. All trees near lamps ought to be removed.
