The Stars on our Banner. Are the stars on our banner less brilliant to-day, Than when in the hour of their trial and gloom, The heroes we honor they led to the 'fray, To conquer for Freedom, or hallow her tomb! Do we love them the less, as they glitter afar, Our herald in peace and our standard in war? By the deeds of the valiant, The blood of the slain,

By the cause that we cherish, The rights we maintain; We'll ever defend, by the souls of the brave, Their honor, wherever that banner shall wave.

Let faction assail, or oppression invade Let treachery waken, or intrigue divide, 'Neath that banner will freemen draw swiftly the blade.

To God, who has kept us, and lengthened our days.

Happy greeting to all! happy greeting to all! Happy greeting, happy greeting, happy greeting to all!

Our Father in Heaven, we lift up to thee, Our voice of thanksgiving, our glad jubilee ; Oh, bless us, and guide us, dear Saviour, we pray,

That from thy blest precepts we never may stray.

Come, Children, Come. Once was heard the song of children, By the Saviour, when on earth; Joyful in the sacred temple, Shouts of youthful praise had birth.

CHORUS. Come, children, come, and tune your voices, Come, children, come, and tune your voices, sing ye aloud while heaven rejoices, Sing, children, sing.

Palms of victory strewn around him, Garments spread beneath his feet: Prophet of the Lord they crowned him, In fair Salem's crowded street.

Blessed Saviour! now triumphant, Glorified and throned on high! Mortal lays from man or infant,

Vain to tell thy praise essay. God o'er all, in heaven reigning, We this day thy glory sing; Not with palms thy pathway strewing,

We would loftier tribute bring. Oh! tho' humble is our offering, Deign t'accept our grateful lays; These from children once proceeding,

Thou didst deem perfected praise.

What is that which the breeze o'er the towering steep.
As it fitfully blows, half conceals half discloses.
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines o'er the stream:
'Tis the star spangied banner—O' long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. Nervous Disorders.

What is more fearful than a breaking down of th nervous system? To be excitable or nervous in small degree is most distressing, for where can a renedy be found? There is one:—drink but little wind beer, or spirits, or far better, none; take no coffee, weak tea being preferable; get all the fresh airy ocan; take three or four Fills every night; eat plent of solids, avoiding the use of slops; and if these go den rules are followed, you will be happy in mind an strong in body, and forget you have any nerves.

Workers and Daughters.

If there is one thing more than another for which these Pills are so famous it is their purifying proper-ties, especially their power of cleansing the blood from all impurities, and removing dangerous and suspen-ded secretions. Universally adopted as the one grand remedy for female complaints, they never fail, never weaken the system, and always bring about what is re-onired.

Mothers and Daughters.

Sick Headaches and want of Appetite. These feelings which so sadden us, most frequent rise from annoyances or trouble, from obstructive erspiration, or from eating and drinking what is u perspiration, or from eating and drinking what is unfit for us, thus disordering the liver and stomach.
These organs must be regulated if you wish to be well.
The Pills, if taken according to the printed instructions, will quickly restore a healthy action to both liver and stomach, whence follow as a natural consequence, a good appetite and a clear head. In the East and West Indies scarcely any other medicine is ever used for these disorders.

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions, and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment yill give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs out of order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm-
