THE HAPPY FAMILY.

The democracy is at present a most hapy family, quite as much so as the one in Barnum's menagerie some years ago. It true they snap and snarl at each other, did Barnum's, but they seem to console hemselves on such occasions that if one etion has no prospect of loaves and fish-, of bones to pick, or even a herring to eat, neither has the other-in short they cem to be decidedly pleased that Lincoln few specimens of their love for each other. from which our readers can see how the harmonious are progressing in brotherly ave-all too caused by that "nigger in he wood pile," put there by Douglas in Douglas will be abandoned. It says: " Before many weeks the true Democracy will give incontestable evidence that they will recognize but one organization, and the Albany Atlas and Argus must either come out openly for Lincoln or Breekinridge. This indirect support of Lincoln, by advocating Douglas, will not be tolerated by the true Democracy of New York or any other State. The trick of 1848 cannot be successfully reenacted. The contest is Lincoln or Breckenridge, and every man of common sense must see it; and those men who proclaim it shall be Douglas or Lincoln find little objec to make. An inebriate by habit ; a low, vulgar man by instinct and association ; has become intoxicated by position, and will natur ally be tickled with the straw of candicacy for Vice President, even though there is less than a ghost of a chance for election. They are men whose names are known to the country; they need no enlogy from me. They have served their country in peace and in war. They are statesmen as well as soldiers, and in the day and hour of danger will ever be at their post. They are conservative men; and in the course of their administration they will be equally just to the North and to the South, to the East and to the West, Above all, and first of all, they are friends of the Constitu-tion and of the Union, and they will stand by them to death.

The Selinsgrove Times, the organ of the Snyder county democracy, hoists the Breckenridge flag with the following remarks :

" Blind adherence to one man and a deter mination to triumph in his nomination by fair means or foul, even at the sacrifice of the democratic organization of the nation, and regardless of future success, has done its work. From the moment it became evident that the north and northwestern delegations marshalled by the trickery of the old Buffalo marshalled by the trickery of the old Buffalo Regency, were determined to strike down the regular democratic organizations of sovereign States, and to admit from the South, as delemarshalled by the trickery of the old Buffalo uglas in Pennsylvania, or elsewhere, can gates, men who were applying in utter violach an electoral ticket which contains upon the single name of a Breckinridge Disun-ist. CANS & JARS. Patented October 25, 1859.

The Exclusive Right of Making & Selling these Cans and Jars in Mifflin and Centre counties is held by the undersigned.

THESE Cans and Jars being perfectly simple in their arrangement, and requiring no cement or solder to make them air-tight, are the most reliable and convenient vessels that are in the market for preserving Fruits and Vegetables of all kinds.

They possess the following advantages over all other Cans and Jars that are in the market :

FIRST - All that is required after the fruit has been put in hot, is simply to screw the eap down tightly.

SECOND—They can be opened by a single turn of the cover, and the contents taken out in one-fourth the time required by other ves SPIS

THIRD--Besides their simplicity and ease f adjustment and the impossibility of steppers blowing out, they show at all times the exact condition of the fruit by simply looking at the top of the cover: if the gum gasket is concave, the fruit is good ; if convex, the fruit is going to spoil, but will always show tself in time to be saved.

For sale by JOHN B. SELHEIMER, at his in, stove, and sheet iron manufactory, East Market street, Lewistown, Pa., also by coun-Ja 28 try stores generally.

Pond's Fxtract of Hamamelis, OR PAIN DESTROYER.

IS one of the few domestic remedies which have come into general use and favor, without puffing. It is the product of a sim-ple shrub, harmless in all cases, and as a domestic remedy unequalled. For Burns, Cuts, Bruises, Soreness, Lameness, Sprains, Rheu-matism, Boils, Ulcers, Old Sores and Wounds, it has not an equal. It is also used, with great success, for Toothache, Headache, Neuralgia, Sore Throat, Colic, Diarrhoea, Hoarseness, and other similar troublesome and painful affections, while it promptly arrests all Hemmorhages. Hundreds of physi-cians use it daily in their practice, and give t their unqualified recommendation. Sold

The fact cannot be disguised [Cestar's State House Yard, after a nap of four years. The men who were the gods of the idolatry persistently urging the nomination of Step-or A Dandas recorders of results and who of the party in 1856 were the best abused in dividuals spoken of, and from J. B. down to the humblest postmaster or port collector of of the present crisis. They it was who bent the opposing faction, all came in for a good upon driving from the convention the regular sound berating. As for Mr. Buchanan, he was fairly a stench in the nostrils of the Doug lasites; the orators spit upon his name as they uttered it, and the rank and file shouted out bjurgations and execrations whenever the 'favorite son" was referred to.

The next night the other side assembled ventions instead of being called upon to rally es may be inferred from the following choice morsel, which we extract from a published call for the meeting:

" Democrats be not misled; the arch traitor Forney has sold you to the Black Republican party. Rescue, rescue the old Democratic flag from the hands of traitors. One of the speakers at the meeting on last Saturday night said, 'we had better elect the 'Rail Splitter' than John C. Breekenridge,' and another, 'that we had better join the friends of Bell,' to defeat the gallant young Soldier of Mexico. Cursed be the recreant words-palsied be the tongue that says amen to such sentiments. Let every democrat who loves principles better than men attend the Democratic

The Ohio Statesman, speaking of Breckenridge and Lane, says :

"These two gentlemen have seen fit to allow themselves to become the instruments of a base and wicked conspiracy to destroy the old National Democratic party, and hence have lent their names to the disunionists to head their ticket for President and Vice President. At every stage of our party history, it is to be observed that men have bolted off from us, gone after false gods, and for the time being have become objects of adoration and worship by the arch enemy who seduced them from their propriety. The names of Breckenridge and Lane will have a brief air-ing in the seduced of the setuction and then they ing in the press and otherwise, and then they will go down upon the scroll of infamy into the lowest deep.'

> J. W. Gray, the editor of the Cleveland Plaindealer, who was turned out of the office of postmaster by Mr. Buchanan, speaks as follows of the Anti-Douglas Administration forces at Baltimore :

"The secessionists, the refugees from Charleston, morally known as "sneaks," but politically known as the "Cotton-Democracy of the South," are all here too, begging admission back to the Convention they base ly tried to break up. They are high minded and honorable gentlemen though, compared with those political pukes from the North, who, with Administration bribes in their pockmeeting to night, in Independence Square, and save the old Democratic flag from dishon-or." ets, come here to oppose the known will of their constituents. We have some bowels of compassion for these Hotspurs, born and educated under the influence of the peculiar institutions of the South; but for these pampered, hot house pets of a cursed and corrupt Administration, there should be no forgiveness either in this world or the world to come. The mark of Cain is upon them.

"O what a retribution awaits the scoundrels, who, for paltry pay, are opposing Doug-las and his principles. And of the mean, miserly, lean, lousy, corrupt and contemptible sons of iniquity engaged in this dirty and demoralizing work, the political Hessians from Massachusetts, with one Ben Butler at their head, and one Mr. Loring at their tail, are the lowest and the lousiest."

The Jun ata Register says :

As soon as we heard of the actions, and misrepresentations of the delegates at the Baltimore Convention, and without waiting to know what course would be pursued by the Democratic press throughout the State and Union, we quickly, promptly and unhesita-tingly placed at our mast head the names of Breckenridge and Lane, as our first choice for able on and after the 14th inst., on presenta-Breckenridge and Lane, as our first choice for President and Vice President; and in this we GEO.
