The Patent Democracy.

with which the discordant elements of patent democracy now console themselves, and that is that a sufficient number of old line whigs and others may be mustered together either in New York or Pennsylvania who, by their support of Bell and Everett. might prevent the direct election of Lincoln and Hamlin, and thus throw the presidency into the House. As an old whig, John Bell in our opinion stood by the side through long years fought the common enemy of our illustrious leader, Henry Clay; but John Bell, in 1854, voted for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, thus opening the slavery agitation which has ever since convulsed this country, and aiding to destroy what Henry Clay had battled for from 1820 to the day of his death. Edward Everett was once a whig--what is he now? Why a year or so ago he almost endorsed the infamous acts of James Buchanan's administration! Let all such men pause and reflect. We neither endorse nor approve the Chicago Platform in all its parts, but we do endorse its candidates. Their election will do more to quiet slavery agitation and put down the disunion traitors in the South, who are now and have been infecting the southern people with the idea of establishing a Southern Confederacy, than anything that could occur. Their election will ENSURE THE PAS-SAGE OF A SOUND TARIFF BILL giving Protection to Pennsylvania Industry in common with other sections-for by their votes in the House and Senate on that question the Republicans have bound themselves to aid the representatives of the People's Party of this and other States to pass such a bill. Their election will put a stop to the foul corruptions which have, in a time of peace, increased the expenditures of our government from fifty to from eighty to one hundred millions of dollars per annum, and effect other changes important to the wellbeing of our country. These, aside from aught else, are cogent reasons enough for all patriotic men to lay aside prejudices of all kinds, and vote for those exactly square with their ideas. LIN-COLN CAN BE ELECTED-probably will be-by an overwhelming vote, and the greater that vote the better for our coun- from democratic newspapers showing the try's future; but, let the Presidency be thrown into the House, and the people will witness a scene of corruption, bribery, intrigue, and every species of villainy, such as few have conceived possible, which will end in the election of a Benedict Arnold to the President's chair. Men, Patriots, all who love your country, pause and refleet before it is too late!

Extract from a Letter to the Editor. "I have read with considerable care and interest your editorial strictures on the Charter of the Mifflin County Bank. It appears to me that, if we admit the mortgages on unencumbered real estate to be a sufficient security, then there can be no danger so far as the circulation is concerned. That can never exceed the amount of the mortgages. If mortgages are given to amount of $200,0000, then that amount of notes, and no more, of the Mifflin County Bank would be in circulation. To be sure they might loan-not borrow-the notes of other banks-pass them, and circulate them-if they had them on de posite, received them in payment of debts due the Bank, or otherwise-in the same manner other banks do; but they could never have more than $200,000 in notes of the Mifflin County Bank out in the community.

As to withdrawing the mortgages, that can only be done by surrendering to the Auditor General a corresponding amount of the notes of the Mifflin County Bank. Thus, if a man has given a mortgage for $30,000, he, or his representative after his death, or the Bank, must deliver up for cancellation $30,000 in notes of Mifflin County Bank, before the lien on the real estate pledged can be released. the circulation was $200,000, this operation would reduce the circulation to $170,000 —and so on, toties quoties.

The 13th is probably the most objectionable section in the bill, and made so by the proviso. It may be so worked as to reduce the proportion between specie and specie funds to circulation of Mifflin County Bank notes to less than 1 in 4, by the process of renew ing old paper and discounting bills of ex-64 change at short dates. I am not sufficiently conversant with Bank business to tell exact ly how this would work. Still there is this in it, that under all circumstances the mortgage security to an amount equivalent to the notes issued to the Mifflin County Bank would remain unimpaired for the protection of the note holders; and it strikes me that the requisition of one in specie to four in circulation is a secure one, when the other ecurity is superadded, if we admit that security to be valid, substantial and adequate, which I do not propose to discuss, as it opens too wide a field, and depends upon a great many contingencies and circumstances.'

Although a private letter from an esteemed friend, we give the above extract a place in our paper for public information. The security of the notes in the main we have never doubted, though some loss might be sustained by property failing to bring its appraised value at a cash sale; but our remarks last week had little reference to the relation of note holder and safety. They were principally addressed to those who it is understood have invested their property in a business entirely new to them, and from which they of course expect to realize advantages or they would hardly embark in it. For their benefit we pointed out radical defects in the charter which might be used for evil, and, should There is but one faint glimmer of hope the institution go into operation, and the future prove our opinions to be correct, cause it would not hoist the Disunion flag? these men will have to lay the blame or themselves should their property be sacrificed for the redemption of the notes.

The mere issuing of notes is but a small part of banking. In this case, each note will represent so much land, and the man who pays out $50, $60, or more or less, is handing over an acre of farm land or an interest in other property, subject of Crittenden and other patriotic men who however to what it will sell for, just as other property is held under mortgage. In the meantime the institution is daily liable to be called on for specie for these issues, and if unable to redeem them, it must fail. Now, there is but one way to avoid this, and that is to secure public confidence from the start-that kind of confidence which will induce noteholders to feel secure under all circumstances in laying aside these notes, and when specie funds are wanting that they can be had on > Without at this time entering into any discussion as to the modus operandi by which this bank is to be put into operation, we will only remark that unless this is done, a considerable portion of its capital must be continually absorbed in providing specie to meet its liabilities, and thus instead of having the advantage of banking merely on landed estate, it will have the disadvantage of being thrown on a bona fide cash capital, the interest of which would absorb the profits. When it does go into operation, however, we shall soon see what its management will be, and until then we will withhold further remarks on that score.

THE HAPPY FAMILY.

A DEMOCRATIC TAIL.

We continue this week to give extracts happy feelings existing among the unterrified. The Huntingdon Globe, Douglas paper, has the following:

Who are in favor of a Compromise on a Disorganizing Electoral Ticket?—1st, Bu chanan and his office-holders. 2d, a majority of the office hunters in every county-men who want a nomination and an election to Congress, to the State Senate, to the House of Representatives, and to the county offices. Independent and consistent Democrats-men who can be relied upon when their party is in danger of being ruled to ruin by political desperadoes, have but one opinion, and that opinion for the public ear. We want no cowards in our ranks—we want men to take their positions boldly for or against the regular National Democratic nominees, Douglas and Johnson-no others are worthy of a political trust-no others are deserving of public confidence-no others should receive the support of democratic voters. The great National Democratic party of the Union has enemies in its camp, and he who halts between two opinions as to his duty to his party and the country, cannot expect the friends of Douglas and Johnson to give him their support. the present National Democratic organization should be destroyed, an example will be set by the highest authority to justify disorganization in the ranks of the democratic party in every State, county and township organiza-The democratic party may be defeated next fall by the action of the disunionists and those under their influence; but there will be a future-a future when the Democracy will triumph-then the disunionists and disorganizers of the present day will be remembered but to be loathed and despised as having been enemies to their party and their country.

The Juniata Register, a Breck and Lane sheet, in an article on harmony, says:

We this week strike from the list of Presidential Electors the names of two glorious traitors to the Democratic party, Richard Vaux and Jesse R. Crawford, and their places shall be vacant until they are regularly supplied by the Democratic State Central Com mittee. These men have refused to acquiesce in the compromise, and declared their determination in case of their election to vote for Stephen A. Douglas from first to last. The Democratic party must come out boldly against treason, and we therefore repudiate them and refuse to disgrace our columns and insult the sterling democracy of Juniata county by classifying them among the Democratic

The Lancaster Inquirer, (Douglas paper,) is down on compromise in all shapes. It Never more was compromise the offspring of weakness, than when the opponents of Douglas, who have followed on his track for years with undeviating and pertinacious brutality, after they have suffered defeat at every turn-their falsehoods exposed and their strat agems to defeat the people trampled under foot and broken by the honest enthusiasm of the masses—now, when he has triumphed over his enemies, and all that the ingenuity of malice and the skill of bitter partizanship could devise, ask those who have stood by him in the trials to which his defence of Democratic principles has exposed him, who through good and evil report have sustained him for the sake of the cause which he so nooly advocated, to compromise with them. And what sort of a compromise is asked? It is a compromise that should call the blush of shame to the cheek of any Democrat that would consent to it. What compromise can men who have fought for a principle and won the battle, be asked to have with those who have scoffed at that principle, and asserted desperately and vindictively that they would never give it their support. What compromise can Democrats have with Disunionists who belted from a Democratic Convention bederision and contempt of all honest men in the country.

The Huntingdon Union, a paper still on the fence, gets wrothy at our Jesse and talks of him as follows:

For a Democratic elector to say that "a profound sense of his obligations to the Demo ratic party" constrains him to withhold his assent from the action of the State Committee. and then recognize as his political organ the sheet of John W. Forney, is an act of as cool impudence as a man could well commit. But we will not indulge in the reflections which the course of Mr. Crawford irresistibly calls forth. We had hoped that he would gladly acquiesce in any compromise that would de feat Lincoln, and thus truly represent the wishes of the great majority of the Democrats of this district. But he has thought proper to pursue another course and to declare himself opposed to union and harmony. We have no right to question his motives, but we have the right to question his democracy.— Mr. Crawford cannot be insensible to the fact that his course, instead of benefitting Douglas and the party, tends directly to defeat the one and disrupt the other. He has given his influence-whatever it is-to Forney and his coadjutators in their efforts to prevent a union, upon a fair bas's, of all wings of the party in this State against the Republican ticket, upon him must rest the responsibility of the result. We have but to add, that Jesse R. Crawford will not receive five hundred votes in this county.

The Chambersburg Valley Spirit declares

"The leading men and the leading papers of the party, all over the country, are rallying to the support of Douglas and Johnson. Only a few parasites of the Administration here and there hold out against the regular nomination of the party, and many of these appear heartily ashamed of the mutinous plot be more blind to its own interests, than to differ about men and sacrifice both friends and principles in the quarrel? believe that any great portion of the Democratic party are so stupid as to commit such an egregious blunder, and thus give the power of the government for another Presidential cycle to their political opponents.'

The Lewistown Democrat has an article on Mr. Haldeman, member of the Douglas National Committee, in which that member is switched considerably. From to republish its articles on "Compromises" addressed to the know nothings in 1856, as quite applicable to the democratic factions now. If he wrote the truth then, it is quite clear that compromises are cheats, and that either the Breckites are trying to cheat the Douglasites, or the latter the former: "This movement is made on the ground of great devotion to certain peculiar doctrines of Judge Douglas. Does the representative of the National Committee from this State do for such reasons? He has opposed the doctrine for two years past with all the ability he possessed, during all that time he claimed to be a devotee of Mr. Buchanan and was a familiar pet of the Administration at Wash-During this time, too, he was distin indecency and vulgarity of his abuse of Judge Douglas' leading friends in this State, through the columns of the Harrisburg Pat-riot and Union, of which he was then editor There are few of Judge and proprietor. Douglas' leading friends in the State whom he did not insult through his columns, not onby the grossness of his personalities, but by charging and insinuating the gravest crimes against them. Now he comes forward and asks that the party may be divided, Judge Douglas, Gen. Foster, all the Demo cratic nominees, and the party itself, defeated, in order to vindicate the personal honor and the measures of the men he has so say agely abused and opposed?? Whoever is blinded by such conduct is surely dull of

The only reason for forming another electoral ticket—is the desire of a few disappointed and vindtetive men to give the vote of this State to Lincoln, who have not the nerve to support him directly."

JUDGE HALE .- The Democrat is much exercised at our proposition to put up the name of Judge Hale as the People's candidate for Congress without the formality of a conferee meeting. He considers it doubtful whether Mr. Hale could even secure a nomination, owing to the Judge's affiliation with the abolitionists-(the Judge is about as much of an abolitionist as our neighbor is that adjunct of "coal and iron" referred to by Buchanan in his Washington speech)-and thinks it is neither fair, expedient, nor democratic! As our proposition was based solely on the ground that there would be no opposition to his nomination, we still think it is the most desirable way to put him on the track, especially as the people will be very apt to ratify his nomination by an overwhelming vote. Gen. Jackson was nominated in this manner in 1824-5 as soon as the result of the preceding election was known, and we venture to say that all the arts of politicians could not have prevented his subsequent election. So it is with Judge Hale in this district-he is the People's Man, and if the Democrat has a political bore on hand whom it would like to have well thrashed, let it trot him out.

In the next two or three months various State elections come off, whose results will be significant, as indicating the strength of parties and their bearing on the Presidential election in November .-On the 2d of August in North Carolina an election for State officers will take place, and in Arkansas, Texas and Missouri elections will be held on the 6th of the same month for State officers and members of Congress. In Vermont and Maine similar elections will be held in September, and in Florida, Mississippi, Indiana, Iowa, Ohio and Pennsylvania these contests will take place in October. The first skirmish will be fought in North Carolina.

Holloway's Pills .-- An Indisputable fact. Holloway's Pills.—An Indisputable fact.—Costiveness of the Bowels.—Many diseases which afficit mankind originate in the sluggish nature or impaired functions of the stomach and viscera, viz: indigestion, headache, nervous disorders, piles and cutaneous eruptions, for which catharies are usually prescribed. These may relieve the bowels for the time but will not reach the active cause of the complaint. Ordinary purgatives create a necessity for repetition, until eventually the bowels become powerless. Holloway's Pills not only seek the seat of the disorder, but after evacuating the deprayed humors from the stomach and intestines, so renovate and invigorate them as to prevent a future recurrence. Catarrh, Catarrh, Catarrh, Catarrh. What is it? How Cured?

What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of people suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation, and often enlargement of follicles and consequent thickening of the mucous membrance, lining the nasal cavitives, frontal sinuses, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old-school remedies have never been able to do any thing for it. Nasal injections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet Humphrens's Catarrak Specific, a simple Sugar Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases; cures at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds.
