Who are the Friends of Protection? In the U. S. Senate the vote on the new Tariff Bill stood as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Party and Votes. Includes Republicans, Democrats, and Anti-Comp. Democrats.

In the House of Representatives it was: For the Bill--Republicans 91, Democrats 23, Anti-Comp. Democrats 2.

Resolved, That there are questions connected with the foreign policy of this country which are inferior to no domestic questions whatever.

Notices of New Advertisements. The Freehold Institute, a Boarding School for Boys, at Freehold, New Jersey, is highly recommended by those who have a knowledge of it.

G. G. Evans' Gift Book Establishment, 450 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, has the reputation of being a strictly honest business, with advantages to the purchaser not to be had at any other house.

Berhave's Holland Bitters, for sale by Charles Ritz, is said to be a safe and pleasant remedy for various ills.

Foster and his Tariff Record. The last Democrat contains a speech delivered in 1844 by H. D. Foster, the patent democratic candidate for Governor, and that paper has the effrontery to hold this up as proof that Foster is now a tariff candidate for that office.

There are other Niggerisms in the Democrat's article, but really so trifling as not to be worth notice.

Frightful Railroad Accident--A Boy Killed and Another Injured--A frightful accident occurred on Friday morning, on the Pennsylvania railroad, a short distance this side of Gap station, Lancaster County.

Fallen through--the fusion in New York. Bigger it is said has raised some money in New York to be spent in this State.

The Daily News says the Bell leaders in Philadelphia have sold out to the locofocos. The rank and file kick against the arrangement.

The locofoco papers are beginning to abuse Carl Shurz and the other Dutch. Foreign born citizens are fast learning the love these patent democrats have for them.

Wm. F. Shaw is editing a new paper started at Huntingdon called the "Defender." It supports Curtin and a portion of the county ticket.

Abolition, Negro Equality, &c.

One of the favorite humbugs of locofocoism is the above cry, than which a more senseless one could not well be imagined, but having heretofore succeeded in gulling some well meaning men, we propose briefly to examine it, and for this purpose will give a few choice quotations from last week's Lewistown Democrat:

"This country is now owned, enjoyed, and ruled by white men, and hence those who think it was made for white men have no cause to complain. But the Black Republicans are not satisfied with this condition of things, and hence are striving to effect a change. They want to place niggers upon an exact equality with white men."

In several of the Black Republican States, at the present time, negroes are permitted to vote, hold office, sit on juries, and otherwise to stand upon an equality with white men, and in New York the Republicans are now agitating the question of altering the State Constitution, so as to make a nigger at any time and anywhere "as good as a white man!"

The great ruling idea of Black Republicanism, therefore, is to place the negro upon an equality with the whites. If it were in their power they would set free all the slaves in the South to-day, and then encourage them to emigrate, not only to the territories, but also to all the Northern States. Thus we would soon have thousands of nigger carpenters, nigger blacksmiths, nigger wheelwrights, nigger shoemakers, &c., overrunning the North, seeking employment, at the same shops, where white journeymen are employed.

We submit it to the candor of our readers whether the above are not magnificent specimens of argument and logic, as in truth is the whole article. If this country is now owned and ruled by white men, why does the Democrat want niggers in all our territories? Every five slaves are good for three votes, so that the man who owns that number in reality exercises the same prerogative as four white men do here; and this is what the Democrat considers democratic equality! Besides, wherever slavery goes, polygamy goes with it, for we suppose the Democrat knows or ought to know that there is not now and never was a Christian marriage among slaves.

But in some States it appears negroes are allowed to vote, hold office &c. In most States where this privilege is given it is a property qualification, and thus far we have never heard that it injured society. Up to 1838 the negro race in this State was allowed to vote the same as white men, and we never heard of one elected to office, and of but one who was drawn as a juror, and that was in the democratic county of York, a commissioner or sheriff having put old Sam Hays into the box, Sam having always been a sound democrat!

In the South the very state of things exists which the Democrat wants to make its readers believe Republicans are in favor of here. There blacks do the mechanical work to the exclusion of white men. The Republicans say they do not want this system in the territories, alleging that those territories are for the benefit of free white men. On the other hand, the Democrat says they are for niggers as well as white men!

That paper it seems is unable to comprehend the difference between justice and equality. A Republican says it is wrong to spread slavery, because it is contrary to natural law, is oppressive and anti-democratic, but in doing so he no more makes the negro race his associate than does the editor of the Democrat should he employ Green-top or Jude to do some work. There is a vast difference between doing justice towards our fellow-beings and oppressing them. If negroes are mere brutes, the Democrat's logic might do, but if they have souls they are men and women, responsible for their actions, and consequently entitled to our sympathies. In giving them these, no one makes them either equals or superior. We give the same thing to the unfortunate drunkard, to the thief, to the fallen woman, all of whom enjoy "equal rights," yet who but the editor of the Democrat ever dreamt that in doing so he was making these outcasts of society either their equal or superior?

There are other Niggerisms in the Democrat's article, but really so trifling as not to be worth notice.

Frightful Railroad Accident--A Boy Killed and Another Injured--A frightful accident occurred on Friday morning, on the Pennsylvania railroad, a short distance this side of Gap station, Lancaster County.

Just after the 10.54 mail train west had passed the station two small boys were observed ahead, one of them walking between the track, and the other outside, and before they could be warned off the locomotive thundered down upon them, the cowcatcher striking the boy on the track and throwing him off and injuring him so seriously that he was about breathing his last when the train left. The boys were named Baldwin and reside at Bethenia, two miles this side the Gap. The eldest was between six and eight. The attention of the boys at the time was diverted by the approach of a train in an opposite direction. The eldest boy had his brains knocked out and was otherwise injured, while the younger was injured by being struck by the body of his brother as it flew from the track. The accident caused a detention of the train for an hour.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Folks in want of Meat, pudding, sausage, &c., will find a supply on market mornings at the stall of Joseph A. Major. Give him a call.

B. K. Firoved, Agent, is now in the Eastern cities laying in a large stock of Fall and Winter Goods, which will be open for inspection the middle of next week. He invites all Cash buyers to call, as he will sell at low figures for cash or in exchange for Country Produce.

A Foster Club, composed of Breckinridgeism, Douglasism, and the other isms, organized in the Apprentices' Hall on Saturday evening. It created about as much enthusiasm as a Dates and Waream Club would awaken.

A temperance meeting was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening, which was addressed by John A. McKee and Dr. A. T. Hamilton.

The Logan Guards will leave for Huntingdon Encampment early on Monday morning next in the packet boat. Next week will probably be an exciting one at that place if it don't rain all the time.

The streams are lower now than they have been this summer.

For some time past, the boys of this place have been indulging in a practice of suspending themselves by their toes on the limbs of trees, awnings, &c., which last Saturday resulted in the breaking of an arm of a boy named John H. Reiley.

A boy who was tending a wagon with fruit--a practice deserving some strap oil--fell down the other day and made a narrow escape from being badly hurt.

The Wide Awake Club--Since information the conduct of this club has been such as to elicit general commendation, and there was certainly nothing in the proceedings on Thursday evening a week to call for such a misrepresentation as was made in the Democrat of last week. There are some "boys" 18 years of age and over belonging to it, and we suppose their sin consists in the eyes of the Democrat in not following the democratic march of slavery. The principal of those who are stigmatized as having gone through a "negro delineation," are "boys" who will not suffer by comparison with the Democrat office. Its attacks on Mr. Cowan are of the same stamp. He made no such assertion as that given, namely, that "brains and capital were arrayed against ignorance and muscular development." On the contrary, he divided manufactures into three heads, knowledge, capital and labor, and then went on to show that all these were essential and bound together, not arrayed against each other. Truth and the True Democrat have evidently become strangers.

CONFERENCE MEETING--The Conferees of the People's Party, for the 15th Congressional District, met at Lock Haven, in the Club Room, on Tuesday, the 11th inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., and organized by choosing Judge Harvey, President, and Col. William Shortridge, Secretary, after which the following delegates presented their credentials and were admitted:

Centre County--John Irwin, Col. J. Irvin Gregg, and Col. William Shortridge; Clinton County--Judge Harvey, Col. John Calvert, and George H. Spang; Lycoming County--Hon. Lindsey Mahaffey, Geo. W. Youngman, Esq., E. D. Trump, Esq.; Mifflin County--Geo. W. Sault, and Col. John Hamilton.

Hon. James T. Hale was re-nominated for Congress by acclamation. [Applause.] George W. Youngman, Esq., Col. J. Irvin Gregg and Col. John Hamilton, having been appointed a committee on resolutions, reported the following, which were adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That the distinguished services of our worthy Representative in Congress, Hon. James T. Hale, entitles him to the gratitude of the people of the State of Pennsylvania. His position on the Tariff question so ably maintained, proves him to be true to his constituents, their interests, their resources and their labor.

Resolved, That the people of this Congressional District have unbounded confidence in the honesty of Judge Hale, and are ready and willing to elect him to the high and honorable position in which he has distinguished himself as a man and Representative.

On motion of John Irwin-- Resolved, That we recommend, (in order that there may be no misunderstanding as to time and place.) to the Conference meeting of the People's Party, for the 15th Congressional district to put in nomination a candidate for Congress in the year 1862, that they meet at Williamsport, on the 24th Tuesday of September, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Judge Harvey, G. W. Youngman, Esq., and Col. J. I. Gregg were appointed a committee to inform Judge Hale of his nomination. Adjourned sine die.

THE GREAT HOLLAND REMEDY! Berhave's Holland Bitters--Persons subject to nervous or sick headache, will find in Berhave's Holland Bitters a safe and pleasant remedy. It soothes the throbbing head, corrects acidity of the stomach, assists digestion, and creates a healthy appetite. It is, without doubt, a most delightful preparation, and an efficient remedy. The fact that it is now a very popular medicine throughout all the Holland settlements in Wisconsin, New York, Illinois and Indiana, speaks much in its favor. See advertisement in another column.

PHONOGRAPHY.

A more rapid method of committing thought to paper than is afforded by the present system of writing, is a want universally felt. For the purpose of making extracts from books--for the rapid expression of thought in composition or correspondence--for occasional notes and memoranda--or for securing the eloquence of the orator--our present lengthy method of writing is altogether inadequate.

These wants are supplied in Phonography, in which the written expression of our language is made to correspond with the ease and rapidity of vocal utterance. This new system of writing combines the legibility of longhand with more than the brevity of ordinary shorthand. It is capable of supplying every requirement of the man of science or business, as well as the professional reporter; yet it is so simple that its principles may be mastered in a few hours; and an hours daily practice for a month, in reading and writing, will enable the student to use it with certainty and some degree of freedom; while the same amount of practice continued for six months, will enable him to follow a speaker verbatim. Such are the brevity and certainty of this system, that it is now almost exclusively used by the reporters in Congress and by those in the British Houses of Parliament, by reporters for the Press, and by legal reporters, to secure verbatim reports of speeches and debates. But it is not in this that its greatest usefulness may, perhaps, be said to consist. It is used by ministers for making notes, or for the writing of elaborate sermons; by the common uses of correspondence; by lawyers, for the recording of evidence, or rough briefs by authors, for composition; to the last it affords a means of rapid expression and revision unequalled by any system of writing, ancient or modern, and, finally, to all who have thoughts to preserve, diaries to keep, or memoranda to make; it offers a means of saving two thirds of the time and labor required by the ordinary long hand.

I use Phonography for reporting the lectures of the professors, while the students look on with wonder, possibly with envy. Most of the students here, save the half dozen who practice the art, would consider no price too great to possess themselves of so admirable a means of securing the information daily presented to us."--E. E. BRADLEY, Amherst College.

Mr. Rieman, who comes here with high recommendations, is now teaching a Phonographic class at the Academy.

WE clip the following items from the Seaside Grove Times:

A child of Samuel Millhoff's, of Monroe township, was accidentally drowned, by falling into some water collected in a hole where a well had been started.

On Tuesday a week, William Christ, employed in the machine shop in Selingsgrove, was caught by a pulley and wound up in such a manner as to inflict a serious wound, laying open the major and minor pectoral muscles in front of the right shoulder. He was considerably bruised otherwise.

The wife of Samuel Woody, of Penn township, while engaged in grinding apples to make cider, got one of her fingers into the apple mill and had it completely smashed. The finger was amputated by Dr. Wagonseller, and the woman is doing as well as could be expected.

Several southern papers are grumbling about whether Bell or Breckinridge owns the most niggers.

Holloway's Pills--Much Truth in a small compass--Development of the Stomach and Bowels--Few people are conversant with the manner in which the food is prepared, or that the stomach with its gastric juices, the secretions of the liver and the action of the lungs are the chief agents for converting the food we eat into blood, hence the great necessity for preserving the stomach in a sound and healthy condition. Nothing has yet been discovered more effectual for this than Holloway's famous Pills, which act directly on the stomach, liver, bowels and circulation. In bilious disorders, indigestion, constipation and all consequent complaints, headache, piles, and various other ailments, these pills are used with certain and beneficial results.

Godey's Lady's Book for October, with accented punctuality, has already made its appearance. It is published with a splendid steel engraving entitled Our Own Correspondent, and a Fashion plate which excels in elegance and beauty of coloring anything we have lately seen. Beside these there are numerous other plates of considerable interest to those for whom they are designed. The letter-press is inimitable. The moral tone which pervades this work is a strong inducement to those who desire a good magazine for the family circle. The Lady's Book will be furnished with the Gazette, each one year, for three dollars.

A Good Indication from California--Those who have had occasion to pass the Times Buildings during a few days past, will have noticed a new occupant in the commodious premises adjoining the publication office of this paper, and extending from No. 41 Park street through to No. 131 Nassau st. The American Agricultural, now closing up its nineteenth year, has deserted its ancient habitation among the agricultural Warehouses on Water st., and taken up its abode for the next ten years, at least, in the very centre of the great newspaper establishment of the City that have for some time past been concentrating around "Printing House Square." The eminent success of the American Agricultural, which now contains the extracts of the publisher, viz--to get up the best possible paper without recourse to extras, and then to make it widely known by liberal circulation--is an indication of the greatly increased desire on the part of cultivators for information upon the best method of tilling the soil. The present circulation of the paper exceeds 100,000 copies, and is greater than that of the entire agricultural press only a few years ago. When the journal started there were but two other agricultural papers marked, viz--the "New York Farmer" and the "New England Farmer." The former is now published only once a month, and the latter only once a week. The American Agricultural is now published weekly, and its circulation is increasing rapidly.
