A Virginian on Lincoln.

The Hon. William L Goggin on Thursday evening addressed the Bell and Everett party in Petersburg, Va. His views upon e stability of the Union were clearly exhe stability of the Onion words: "There pressed in the following words: "There pressed in the following words: "There He also purposes forming a I'nion, no matter who was elected." His opinion of Mr. Lincoln finds no less clear ession in the following language: to meet in Lewistown, on Saturday afternoon with him in the House of Representatives I must say that I have ever known him to be a gentleman. He is not what the Breckinridge party insinuate him to be. I wish to do justice on all sides. [Cheers.] If you want to know who Mr. Lincoln is go and ask S. A. Douglas with whom he stump ed every county in Illinois. [Cheers] Yes go and ask Mr. Douglas, whether Abe Lin-In is a rail splitter or not. [Loud Laughter.] Ask him whether he is a Democratic manuller or not. [Continued Laughter, and Cries of "Good!" "Good!" It was my The great and unceasing demand for this good fortune while I was a member of the House of Representatives to be on a Committee with him. I was chairman and I will say that no man on that Committee worked more industriously than he did .--He is a man of a high or ler of talent, and when he spoke no man was listened to, by those who were in that House as visitors. with more apparent satisfaction. His prirate as well as puble character was free from stain or blemish."

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS AND

PHCENIX BITTERS.

THE reputation of these very celebrated veg-etable remedies is now unequalled by any others in this country or in Europe. They are fully established as the most universal family medicine now in use, and they will maintain their pre-eminent renown by the intrinsic and comprehensive virtues which acquired it. The usual modes of puffery would be unworthy of them and is unnecessary. Thousands and tens of thousands of persons now living in perfectly restored health can testify, as thousands have testified, to their prompt and decided efficacy not only in all ordinary derangements of health, from Impaired Digestive Functions, Costiveness, Bilious and Liver Complaints, Rheumatic and Inflammatory Colds, Coughs, Nervous Weak-ness, Loss of Appetite, Failure of Flesh, Head-ache and Impure State of the Blood and other fluids, but also in Rheumatism, Fever and Ague, other Intermittent Fevers, Asthma, Bronchitis.

Cholic, Pleurisy, Palpitation of the Heart, Rush of Blood to the Head, Settled Pains in the Joints, Limbs and Organs, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Jaundice, Dropsy, Piles (however inveterate), Habitual Costiveness, Serous and Bilious Looseness, Obstinate Headache and Giddiness, and an immense number of other maladies, They require no dieting nor confine-ment, are perfectly mild and negesart in their ment, are perfectly mild and pleasant in their operation, but will powerfully restore health--the greatest of earthly blessings--to the most exhausted and dilapidated constitutions.
