THE DOG STORY. Infamous Attempt at Lying and Cheat-

Some three or four years ago a French cherry and snitz peddler from Snyder county stopped in Bellefonte, having with him a vicious dog, which he had been warned Papers sent out of the County must be paid for in son from the animal's growling and barking, commenced "insulting" him as the owner says by plaguing and throwing stones, and then running, the whole thing being regarded as play. We do not remember that the account given in the newspapers alleged that a son of Mr. Curtin was one of them, but at all events the dog caught this boy, and as the papers then stated would have inflicted serious injury had he not been released. On this Mr. Curtin took a pistol, went into the street, remonstrated with Mr. Frenchman for keeping such a dog untied, to which the Frenchman gave impertinent and insolent answers, whereupon Mr. C. shot the dog, but did not kill him. The snitz peddler, after a lapse of several years, now alleges that Mr. Curtin called him a "d-d dutchman," &c. and has lent his name for political purposes to cheat the Germans into voting for how it originated In May last I had a trial in court, and Mr. Curtin was my counsel. During the progress of the trial some person remarked in Mr. Curtin or Mr. Wilson's office (who was also one of my lawyers) that it was hard to understand the suit; and I remarked that there was no trouble in understanding it except by the double sculled Dutch. I repeated this after wards in the street, and on my return home told it. Mr. Curtin said nothing of the kind, and I do not know that he was even present when I made the remark. What I said was without malice and intended for a joke. Being a Dutchman myself, I did not expect that it would be charged on an innocent party, to his injury. I trust you will publish this ex-planation and acquit Mr. Curtin of a charge f which he is innocent.
