TO THE PUBLIC.

THE decision of Judge Nelson, at Cooperstown, (this day announced) having been circulated broadcast over the country, we deem it our duty to state that this decision of an inferior and petty Court, extending its influence over only the Southern District of New York, has been virtually annulled or reversed, so far as the Sloat Sewing Machine Company is concerned, by the recent decision of the Hon. Chief Judge Wagoner, of the Circuit Court of the U. S. at Washington, which establishes clearly the fact that the Akins & Feldhausen Patent is the only original and valid one upon which reliance can be placed or Sewing Machines manufactured in the United States.

Under this Patent the Sloat Sewing Machine Company are the only licensees, and consequently, despite the decision at Cooperstown, all other manufacturers are infringers according to the highest legal authority in the land. This decision of Judge Nelson is already appealed from even in the limited district it affects.

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE, AND the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER.

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Pharmacy, Berhave. Its reputation at home produced its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Federalist extended over the face of this mighty country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the medicinal virtues of its truly wonderful medicinal virtues to be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been weakened by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening the system, and inducing a drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

Whoever expects to find this a leverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY! The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is made in the city of Philadelphia, and is sold in the ONE DOLLAR BOTTLE, or six bottles for FIVE DOLLARS. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced unscrupulous dealers to sell cheap imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing.

I BEG leave to call the attention of the citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Udolpho Wolfe, of New York, and to inform every part of the country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedam Schnapss. Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liqueurs, says: "I will stake my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines that I bottle are pure as nature and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser. Every bottle has the proprietors name on the wax, and a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia. GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 82 Market St., Philadelphia. Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier: "FURNISH BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant can go and purchase pure Wines and Liqueurs, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22 North Second Street, between Market and Arch Streets. His stock of Schnapss on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases, and his Brandy some ten thousand cases. Vintages of 1858 to 1860, and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in cases under the Custom House key, ready for bottling.—Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapss last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful and his Brandy and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liqueurs for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, and they will be sent to the land made up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liqueurs.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liqueurs. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness. sep13-ly

A New Book And One Destined to Create a Sensation. JUST PUBLISHED THE SUNNY SOUTH, Or the Southerner at Home;

Embracing Five Years' Experience of a Northern Governor, in the Land of Sugar, Rice, Tobacco and Cotton. Edited by PROF. J. H. INGRAHAM, of Mississippi. Handsomely bound in one volume, 12 mo., 525 pages. Price $1.25.

Literary Notices from the Press throughout the Country. THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is composed of a series of letters, written in an interesting style of a narrative, embodying the most romantic features of social life on different kinds of plantations. We never bear testimony from our own personal observation of similar scenes in the South, to their fruitfulness as here depicted. They are portrayed in a very interesting style, and we would like to see the book in the hands of thousands of devoted people who have no personal knowledge either of Southern life or Southern life, except those who have gained from partial narrations, or those who have read the "Gleanings in Europe."—Daily Republic, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This book is in the form of letters. They give, so far as we can judge, a fair picture of Southern life, and are penned without prejudice. They present scenes quite different from an "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The portions presented here are graphic, and we think the portrait painted is a very nearly natural colors.—Boston Daily Bee.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—We have rarely peeped within the covers of a more appetizing volume. Although not intended as an answer to the foul and filthy "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of the last ten years, it nevertheless does unmercifully hunt back to their source all lies of such a nature, and we are glad to believe that the book will be read in thousands of Northern homes. The South should also take to heart the fact, that the president of the Southern States is a man of the highest intellect and the most entertaining books of the year.—Times, Greensboro, N. C.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The enterprising publisher, G. G. Evans, of Philadelphia, is weekly issuing new works of interest, and spreading them over the country, and his system of transacting business may be looked upon as one of the most interesting, and we think the most judicious, of any in the country. We commend this book to all.—Daily News.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—This is a captivating volume, strongly illustrating of Southern life. The heart of the author is with her theme, and she carries the interest of the reader along with her, as she is in her own official style, delineates the peculiarities of a Southern life.—Press.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.—Whatever bears the name of Professor Ingraham is sure to involve the elements of striking effect and a wide popular success. This is just the case with "The Sunny South," which is just the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" of the South, and which appears in the press of G. G. Evans, under the editorship of the graphic pen of J. H. Ingraham. It is a most interesting and interesting in plot, and in purpose and manner it obviously springs from a warm heart, and will be a warm welcome by a host of readers.—The New Yorker, followed by a host of readers.—The New Yorker.

THE THRONE OF DAVID;

From the Consecration of the Shepherd of Bethlehem to the Rebellion of Prince Absalom. Being an Illustration of the Splendor, Power, and Dominion of the Reign of the Shepherd King in a series of Letters, wherein the magnificent case of Judah is shown to be the work, as if by an eye-witness, by the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, LL. D. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 657 pages. Price $1.25.

This is the third volume, and the completion of a series of works by the same author, on the history of the Israelitish monarchy. The origin under Moses, was treated in the "Pillar of Fire," and the glory under David, is treated in this work. (The Throne of David) while the decline of Hebrew power and the opening of the new dispensation meet with their delineation in the "Prince of the House of David." These books are historically valuable, as handbooks of information relative to the scenery, geography and manners of the Holy Land. The style is interesting and powerful and the work leads us to the contemplation and study of the sublime language of the Bible, and the grand doctrine of the incarnation, without being such as such books too often are, either manly, stupid, dogmatic or connected.—Boston Daily Atlas.

THE PILLAR OF FIRE Or Israel in Bondage.

By the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, author of the "Prince of the House of David." One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 609 pages. Price $1.25.

This work is designed to sketch the Hebrew history during the bondage in Egypt, and to present a central figure, and is a free and striking history of the period, in which the writer gathers first, from the Bible and then from the traditions of Jewish antiquity, a mass of material, which by his genius, is thrown into a fanciful narrative of the most attractive character which carries the reader along without diminution of interest.—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

THE PRINCE OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID; Or Three Years in the Holy City.

In a series of letters relating as if by an eye-witness, all the scenes and wonderful incidents in the life of Jesus of Nazareth, from his baptism in Jordan to his crucifixion on Calvary, by the Rev. J. H. INGRAHAM, Rector of the Church of the Holy Spirit, St. Thomas' Hill, Holy Springs, Mississippi. One volume, 12 mo., cloth, 472 pages. Price $1.25.

In this work the author has succeeded in the bold and daring task of presenting the great leading historical parts of scripture in a clear and lifelike picture, so as to present the clear and lifelike picture of those events as they might be supposed to appear to a casual observer. The descriptions of rites and ceremonies, are spirited and comprehensive. The style is highly imaginative and attractive, and we predict that this volume will be popular as the "Prince of the House of David."—Presbyterian and Evangelist.
