The Fathers on Slavery

A Column of "Black Republicans." It will not be conceived, from these observations, that it is my wish to build these unhappy people (negroes) in slavery.

I never mean, unless some particular circumstances compel me to it, to possess another slave by purchase, it being among my first wishes to see some plan adopted by which slavery in this country may be abolished by law.

Slavery is detested; we feel its fatal effects; we deplore it with all the pity of humanity. I repeat it again, that it would rejoice my very soul that every one of my fellow beings were emancipated.

It is a debt we owe to the purity of our religion to show that it is at variance with that which warrants slavery.

Would any one believe that I am master of slaves by my own purchase? I will not, I cannot justify it. However culpable my own conduct, I will so far pay my debt to virtue as to own the excellence and rectitude of her precepts and lament my want of conformity to them.

It is a debt we owe to the purity of our religion to show that it is at variance with that which warrants slavery.

What an incomprehensible machine is man! he can endure toil, famine, stripes, imprisonment, and even death itself in vindication of his own liberty; and the next moment be deaf to all those motives whose power supports him through his trial, and inflict on his fellow men a bondage, one hour of which is fraught with more misery than ages of that which he rises in rebellion to oppose.

Slavery stifles industry and represses enterprise; it is fatal to economy and Providence; it discourages skill, impairs our strength as a community, and poisons morals at their fountain head.

It is wrong to admit into the Constitution the idea that there can be property in man.—James Madison.

We have seen a mere distinction of color made the ground of the most oppressive dominion of man over man.—Madison.

Slavery is an atrocious debasement of human nature.—Dr. Franklin.

Slavery is contrary to the law of nature and nations.—William Wirt.

Modern Democracy on Slavery. I care not whether slavery is voted up or voted down.—Stephen A. Douglas.

I believe that capital should own its labor.—Herschel V. Johnson, candidate for Vice President.

Look at the slaves in your workshops! they are driven to the mills at the beck of their masters, under penalty of being discharged.—Herschel V. Johnson, candidate for Vice President: speech at Pittsburg a few weeks ago.

The real cause of the agitation in the public mind is the anti-slavery sentiment of the North.—Speech of J. M. S. Curry in the present Congress.

The Democratic doctrine is that every man shall mind his own business; and that the people of Utah or Kansas have a right to adopt evil constitutions if they prefer them.—Senator Pugh.

Slavery is rightful because it is instituted and sanctioned by the Bible, and because it is consonant to the nature, practice and legislation of man.—Richard Empie.

I say it is wrong to be sending two or three millions of dollars annually from our pockets and sacrificing thousands of lives upon the coasts of Africa. In that terrible climate, to prevent our going there to get a few negroes.—Speech of Wm. B. Goulden of Georgia, a Douglas Delegate to the Baltimore Convention.

The Democrats of the South in the present canvass cannot rely on the old ground of defence and excuse for Slavery, for they seek not merely to maintain it where it is, but to extend it into regions where it is unknown.—Richmond Enquirer.

Slavery exists in Kansas under the Constitution.—James Buchanan.

If the Constitution carries slavery there (in the Territories) without affirmative law, no power on earth can take it away.—Douglas, at Chicago.

Make the laboring man the slave of one man instead of the slave of society, and he would be better off.

Two hundred years of liberty have made white laborers a pauper banditti.

Free society has failed, and that which is not free must be substantial.—Senator Mason, of Virginia.

Shall the Democratic party for this issue oppose the extension of Slavery?—No, indeed! THERE IS NOT A SINGLE DEMOCRAT IN THE WHOLE OF THE NORTH OPPOSED TO THE EXTENSION OF 'SLAVERY,' OR SO CALLED EXTENSION OF 'SLAVERY,' AND THEY ONLY await the truth spoken out, and things called by their right names, to sweep the Abolitionist's sphere from the republic, and to bury its besotted tools in the profoundest depths—the lowest depth of public contempt.—N. Y. Day Book, a Dem. paper.

Nor will it avail us aught to show that the negro is most happy and best situated in the condition of slavery. If we stop there, we weaken our cause by the very argument intended to advance it; for we propose to take into new Territories human beings unfit for liberty, self government, and equal association with other men. We must go a step farther.

We must show that African Slavery is a moral, religious, natural, and probably, in the general, a necessary institution of society.—Richmond Enquirer.

Free society is a monstrous abortion, and Slavery the beautiful, healthy, and natural being which they are trying to adopt.

The slaves are governed far better than the free laborers of the North. Our slaves are not only better off as to the physical comfort than Free Laborers, but their moral condition is better.—Richmond Enquirer.

Men are not entitled to equal rights. It would be nearer the truth to say that some were born with saddles on their backs, and spurred to ride them, and the riding does them good.

FREEHOLD INSTITUTE, A BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

At Freehold, Monmouth County, New Jersey. Oliver R. Willis, A. M., Charles A. Walters, A. M., Charles J. Johnson, A. M., George Corlies, A. B., Edward H. Bell, A. B.

THE School is divided into four departments: The Classical, Middle, Agricultural, and Preparatory.

IN THE CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT the pupils are instructed in Latin, Greek, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, and such other mathematics as are required to fit boys thoroughly for any class in college.

IN THE MIDDLE DEPARTMENT the pupils pursue Geography, History, English Grammar, Arithmetic, Algebra, and such other studies as are necessary to fit young men for business, and the practical duties of life.

IN THE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT young men are instructed in Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Botany, Geology, and such other departments of knowledge as are calculated to make intelligent farmers.

THE PREPARATORY DEPARTMENT was established for younger boys, and is intended to fit them for the other departments. A separate room is provided for this department, and a competent instructor devotes his whole time to it.

BERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS.

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR DYSPEPSIA, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, LIVER COMPLAINT, WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND, FEVER AND AGUE.

Also the various affections consequent upon a disordered STOMACH OR LIVER, Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Bilious Affections, &c. In all Nervous, Rheumatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Berhave. Its reputation as a house hold medicine has increased since its introduction here, the demand commencing with those of the Fatherland scattered over the face of this country, many of whom brought with them and handed down the tradition of its value. It is now offered to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues are well established.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continued use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

NOTICE.—Whoever expects to find this a leverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and low spirited, it will prove a grateful, aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.

READ CAREFULLY! The Genuine highly concentrated Berhave's Holland Bitters is put up in half-pint bottles only, and retailed at One Dollar per bottle, or Six Dollars Free of Charge. The great demand for this truly celebrated Medicine has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Beware of Impostition. See that our name is on the label of every bottle you buy.

Sold by Druggists generally. It can be forwarded by Express to most parts.

WOLFE'S TONIC, DIURETIC, AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

To the Citizens of New Jersey & Pennsylvania, and Private Families. Wolfe's Pure Cognac Brandy, Wolfe's Pure Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Wolfe's Pure Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, Wolfe's Pure Scotch and Irish Whisky. ALL IN BOTTLES.

I BEG leave to call the attention of the Citizens of the United States to the above Wines and Liquors, imported by Col. John Wolfe, of New York, whose name is familiar in every part of this country for the purity of his celebrated Schiedan Schnapp, Mr. Wolfe, in his letter to me, speaking of the purity of his Wines and Liquors, says: "I will stand my reputation as a man, my standing as a merchant of thirty years' residence in the City of New York, that all the Brandy and Wines that I import are pure as imported, and of the best quality, and can be relied upon by every purchaser. Every bottle has the proprietor's name on it, and is a fac simile of his signature on the certificate. The public are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. For sale at Retail by all Apothecaries and Grocers in Philadelphia.

GEORGE H. ASHTON, No. 87 North 2d Street, Sole Agent for Philadelphia.

Read the following from the New York Courier: "Economic Reserves for six New York Merchants—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physicians, apothecary and country merchant can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will repay any stranger or citizen to visit Col. John Wolfe's extensive warehouse, No. 13, 21 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Market street. This stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy some ten thousand cases—Vintage of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whisky, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large casks, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c. in casks under the Custom House, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope its less number for he will be equally successful with his Brandy and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medicinal use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wine and Liquors.

We understand Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, put up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruminous alike to human health and happiness. sep15-ly
