Globes for Schools

Mr. Editor: -1 wish through your columns to call the attention of Teachers and Direc tors to the following facts:
1. No person of ordinary intelligence doubts the utility of having Geography taught in our schools.

2. It requires altogether extraordinary skill globe.

3. Cheap globes, costing only $1.50, delivered in Lewistown, can be procured, which would greatly increase the teacher's success in explaining, and the pupil's in comprehending Mathematical Geography.

4. In almost every district this amount can be raised, even in these hard times, by prop er, intelligent appeals to the common sens and generosity of school patrons.

5. To derive much benefit from globes this winter, it will be necessary to take immediate

I have ascertained the terms on which globes can be obtained from the Holbrook Ap paratus Company, and the price is as I have stated above, instead of one dollar. Will not teachers and those interested in the prosperiof schools act in this matter speedily? Please let me hear immediately from every one who wishes a globe at this price—from those whose names I have, as well as others; and, if you please, send along the requisite money. AZARIAH SMITH.

THE TIME FOR ACTION HAS COME!

ATTACK OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA Assassins on a Government Vessel!

The Star of the West was dispatched from New York on Sunday last with provisions, stores, and 250 troops for the relief of the gallant Major Anderson, and reached Charleston Bay on Monday even- two or three exceptions only, voted to reing. A telegraphic dispatch announces ject all propositions for a compromise of importance is the seventh, which proposes which he may safely refer to sustain his the sad intelligence that she was fired into by the South Carolina assassins, and all hopes therefore of a peaceable solution of our present difficulties are at an end. It now only remains for all Union-loving citizens to teach these miscreants that there is a point when forbearance ceases to be a virtue. The North, slow to anger, will now arouse, and wee to traitors North or South when the strong arm will take the

It is now well settled that EDWARD BATES of Missouri and Gen. S. CAMERON have been tendered cabinet appointments by Mr. Lincoln-the latter it is said in the Treasury Department. The selection of Gen. Cameron will be entirely satisfactory to the masses, his well known tariff views giving assurance that they will have an able advocate of judicious protection to American industry in that important post; while his acknowledged financial abilities ties and appoint Consuls. will do much towards restoring eredit and confidence in the government.

The Blue Lights of 1860.

There are a good many locofoco papers just now, as well as a few patent democrats, who either palliate or openly justify the rankest treason that ever was attempted in | ginia. this country. They forget the fate of Anron Burr, who did not go half as far as the Southern disunionists before he was arrested, and they also forget the Hartford Convention, almost every man of which, without doing more than talking of treason, was consigned to a political grave as unenviable as that of Arnold's. The true lovers of their country will now mark who aids and abets traitors, and if the hell-born succeed in dismembering this Union, the streets in terms of greater obleauv than was the hired Hessian in the revolutionthan was the deserter in Mexico. Palsied be the arm, accursed the tongue, of him who sides with traitors now.

Charleston, now at the best chanan's reign. season of the year for her trade, is almost deserted, and commerce is seeking another and safer channel. If a revenue cutter be sent to Charleston to collect the duties, with the new Collector, there is no necessity, as is supposed, for a collision with the State authorities, unless they should choose to invite it. The Harriet Lane might easily keep guard at the entrance of the harbor, and be entirely out of range of the guns of Fort Moultrie. In twenty days more there will be little revenue to collect, as foreign vessels will shun Charles ton like a pestilence. The threats of Governor Wise, which have been re-echoed in other quarters, that the Capitol must be taken possession of and the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln forcibly prevented, have not been unheeded by the President. Orders have been issued to thoroughly organize the militia of the District of Columbia, who are all for the Union, and it is said that ten companies of U. S. troops will be taken to Washington at an early day, as an additional precaution. General Scott will remain there and and take command of the whole force.

It is said that the President will make no nomination for Postmaster General in place of Mr. Holt, now acting Secretary of War, but will continue Assistant Postmaster King at the head of that Department, that gentleman being well qualified by long experince in the Department to discharge the duties of the office.

The reports sent from Washington that the Republican caucus, on Saturday, with the slavery question, are wholly untrue. have the best authority for saying that there were not more than three or four in the caucus who declared themselves against concession and compromise. The great body of the Republicans present were for peace and reconciliation, and willing to accept any fair adjustment of existing difficulties.

The sovereignty of South Carolina is being fully organized, and the Governor is assuming his position as head of one of the independent nations of Christendom. He has formed his Cabinet by dividing the duties of the Executive administration among the members of his Council, who were appointed as his advisers by the Sovereign Convention a few days since. The following official announcement to this effect was made on the morning of the 4th inst :-Secretary of State-A. G. Magrath, late Judge of the United States District Court. His duties are to regulate intercourse with ether States and foreign powers, to make trea-

The members of the Cabinet have entered on their duties, and are preparing to organize their several departments. The rumors of vessels of war having started for Charleston harbor, and the appointment of a Collector, created great excitement.

"We are told by the leading spirits in the South Carolina Convention that neither the election of Lincoln nor the non-execution of the fugitive slave law, nor both combined, constitute their grievances. They declare that the real cause of their discontent dates as far back as 1833. Maryland, and every other State in the Union, with an united voice then declared that the cause was insufficient to justify the course of South Carolina. Can be expected that this people, who then unanimously supported the course of Gen. Jackson, will now yield their opinions at the bidding of the modern secessionists?

The Border Proposition.

The committee of the Border States (of 60 years old. which Hon. James T. Hale is a member) comprising Senators and Representatives from Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Missouri, in caucus on the 5th, adopted the following propositions as a basis of compromise for the settlement of the difficulties between the two sections:

1st. Recommending a repeal of all the personal liberty bills.

2d. That the fugitive slave law be amend d for the prevention of kidnapping and so as o provide for the equalization of the commisioner's fee. &c.

as to prohibit any interference with slavery in any of the States where it now exists. 4th. That Congress shall not abolish slavery in the southern dockyards, arsenals, &c.

nor in the District of Columbia, without the consent of the inhabitants of the District, nor without compensation.
5th. That Congress shall not interfere with the inter slave trade. 6th. That there shall be a perpetual pro-hibition of the African Slave trade.

7th. That the line of 36 degrees 30 minutes shall be run through all the existing ter ritory of the United States; that in all north of that line slavery shall be prohibited, and that south of that line neither Congress nor the Territorial Legislature shall hereafter pass any law abolishing, prohibiting, or in any manner interfering with African slavery; and that when any territory containing a sufficient population for one member of Congress in any area of 60,000 square miles, shall ap-

There are a few provisions in these propositions altogether superogatory, but we suppose were adopted to suit the views of ful in business, as is attested in the ercesome members. The only thing of real tion of the Freedom M. E. Church, to to restore with an extension what Mr. reputation. Clay's giant mind conceived forty years ago, and which the little minded democrats of 1854 repealed. Fortunately, by making it a constitutional provision, it will be beyond the reach of political tinkerers hereafter, and we therefore hope it will be adopted by Congress and ratified by the requisite number of States. Coming, as it does, from those most interested in living amicably together, being divided only by an imaginary line, it ought to carry weight with it to others less interested, for if Pennsylvania and Maryland can live together in peace surely Virginia and New York ought to.

Proceedings of Congress. In the Senate on Monday, Mr. Crittenden introduced his resolutions which are designed to harmonize the conflicting political elements of the country. He made a few remarks upon them, urging their careful consideration and ultimate adoption by Congress, as the basis of our future fraternal existence as a Confederacy. In the House a very exciting scene ensued upon the introduction of a resolution sustaining the action of Major Anderson, and pledging the support of the country to the President in all constitutional measures to enforce the laws and preserve the Union. Many members who voted against it gave their reasons. The resolution was passed by a vote of one hundred and twenty-four to fifty-six.

DEDICATION. - According to notice in our issue of December 13th, the Freedom M. E. Church was dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Sunday, the 16th of December. We are glad to note this evidence of good taste among us. Too little attention is generally paid to architectural 3d. That the constitution be so amended taste in our buildings, both public and private. The influence of good taste is happy in its effect on morals as well as on refinement. The crection of so perfect and beautiful a building is therefore a cause for general congratulation. It is a gift to the community, and offers just cause for praise to the persons interested. The building is 38 by 54, with a tower at south west corner 12 feet square at base and 84 feet high. The style of architecture adopted is the Romanesque, peculiarly well adapted to churches located among our mountains .-We have earefully examined the workmanship which has been faithfully executed according to designs made by J. M. Grier, Esq., Architect, of Philadelphia. It was built by W. C. Vines, Esq., a citizen of our town, and is a pertinent refutation of the necessity of going abroad for builders when we have among us those so able and skill-

An old friend of ours, politically differing with us, after reading the article in the last Lewistown Democrat headed "The State of the Union," said the secessionists at the south need no better advocates of disunion at the north than just such articles. When treason is at a premium, and open traitors like Toombs and others walk the streets of Washington City undisturbed, people may well ask themselves whether we have a National Government at all?

In the published correspondence between the South Carolina rebels and Buchanan, the latter said, speaking on the withdrawel of the troops from Charleston, "This I cannot do; this I will not do."

The Helena, Ark., Shield, in its number of the 15th inst., intimates that in case of the formation of a Southern Confederacy the 'foreign element' will be placed beyond the reach of any intermeddling in public affairs. That journal remarks as follows: 'It is a gratifying reflection to know that the great majority of the Southern democracy favor the exclusion of foreigners from the right of suffrage, in ease a Southern Confederacy is formed We have convers ed with a great number of sensible, influential democrats, on this subject, of late, and they almost universally concede the necessity of such restriction; it being so perfectly palpable that the foreign element of the country, combined with native antislavery votes, secured Lincoln's election.'

Among the singular coincidences of the day is the fact that H. A. Wise now proposes to do an act against the United States precisely similar to that for which he hung John Brown. Has fite doomed him to the same end, and if so, will he, like Brown, die

Professor Longstreet of South Carolina has issued a pamphlet in which he begs his fellow citizens to "let the first shot come from the enemy." The silly old man don't seem to know that the only enemy the South has is the traitorous band of disunionists.

The Charleston Mercury, of the 19th ult., pays its respects to the venerable Lewis Cass, as follows:

"For the hoary headed trickster and hum bug, who has just retired from the Cabinet because war is not made on South Carolina, we have only to say, that his present imbecilequals his past treachery to this section. Had he been early absent from the President's councils his Administration might have been more successfu!

For a week or two past, adds the Courier, Northern vessels have brought all kinds of supplies for forts, from cannon to cement.

ONLY PREPARATION Worthy any Confidence for RESTORING

THE BAILID AND GRAT. Many, since the great discovery of Prof. Wood, have attempted not only to imitate his restorative, but profess to have discovered something that would produce results identical; but they have all come and gone, being carried away by the wonderful results of Prof. Wood's preparation, and have been forced to leave the field to a resistless sway. Bath, Mainre, April 18th, 1850.

Prof. O. J. Wood & Co.; Gents:—The letter I wrote you in 1856 concerning your valuable Hair Restrainty, and which you have published in this vicinity and eisewhere, has given rise to numerous monitives touching the case. The inquires are, first, is it a fact of my habitation and name, as stated in the communication, second, is it true of all therein coutained; third does my hair still continue to be in good order and of natural color? To all I can and do answer, invariably yes. My hair is even better than in any stage of my life for forty years past, more soft, thrifty, and better, colored; the same is true of my whiskers and the only cause why it is not generally true, is that the substance is washed off by frequent ablution of the face when if care were used by wiping the face in does connection with the whiskers, the same result will follow as the hair. I have been in the receipt of a great number of letters from all parts of New England, asking me if my hair still continues to be good; as there is so much fraud in the manufacture and sale of various compounds as well as this, it has, no doubt, been basely imitated and been used, not only without any good effect, but to absolute injury. I have not used any of your Restorative of any account for some mouths, and yet my hair is as good as ever, and hundreds have examined it with surprise, as I san now it years old and not a gray hair in my head or on my hair taken oif the past week. I received your favor of two quart bottles last summer, for which I am very grateful: I gave it to my friends and thereby induced them to try it; many were skeptical until after trial, and then purchased and used it with universal success. I will ask as a favor, that you send me a test by which I can discover fraud in the Restorative, sold by many I fear, without authority from you. A pure article

I remain, dear sir, yours,

Prop. O. J. Wood: Dear Sir.—I would certainly be doing you a great injustice not to make known to the world the wonderful, as well as the unexpected result have experienced from using oxebotice of your Hair Restorative. After using every kind of Restorative extant, but without success, and finding my head nearly destitute of hair, I was finally induced to try a bottle of your Hair Restorative. Now, candor and justice compel me to antiounce to whoever may read this, that I now possess a new and beautiful growth of hair, which I pronounce richer and handsomer than the original was. I will therefore take occasion to recommend this invaluable remedy to all, who may feel the necessity of it.
