LECTURE .- Rev S. Kepler vill deliver. lecture before the Apprentice's Literary Seciety on Saturday exening ne t-subiect "The Drapery of Winter.', The public are respectfully invited to attend.

Ice.-The ice houses, are being filled with a good article from, 10 to, 12 inches in thickness.

THE WEATHER .- Saturday night was the coldest of the season thus far, and with a snow several inches in depth brought out everything in the shape of horse and sleigh in the neighborhood. Monday and

Two young girls, residing in Derry township, who had been recently committed to jail, were released on Friday evening last, and were either met or followed by some persons who induced them to drink liquor, probably of the worst kind. One of them was afterwards heard screaming murder in the alley leading to, Marks & Willis's mill, and when found by the sheriff and his assistant was in a half-frozen condition. She was taken to the jail, where every assistance was rendered her. The parties we learn are known, and will hardly escape prosecution for a similar offence.

The remains of John R. McDowell, Esq., formerly Prothonotary of this county, who died at the Asylum near Harrisburg some time ago, were brought to this place on Saturday last and interred in the Lutheran burying ground.

Three companies of U. S. troops, 238 men and 121 horses, passed eastward on Saturday morning, occupying 22 cars. They consisted of company H, Second Artillery, Colonel Brooks commanding, 67 men; company A, Light Artillery, Captain Barry commanding, 88 men; company J, Light Artillery, Lieutenant James B. Fry, 84 men. Company H proceeded to Washington, and the other two to Fort McHenry, near Baltimore. These troops came from Fort Leavenworth, and are being con-

Treason Against South Carolina. The Charleston Mercury of the 10th has the following:

"J. N. Merriman, collector of the port of Tuesday it moderated considerably, with rain on Tuesday evening, which continued during Wednesday. just cleared vessels in the name of the United States, and that he would continue to do so. The letter calls upon the President to send a boat and men to collect the Federal revenue, and informs him of the progress made in the construction of the works near Georgetown, and promises to keep him posted from time to time in relation to the same. The letter is signed by his initials, J. N. M. Wh n arrested he acknowledged having written it .-Lopse, his deputy, was also arrested. He said he had been in the habit of writing out Merriman,s letters, but had not done so in this case, as he considered it treason. Both have been committed for trial."

> The North Carolina House of Delegates on Monday passed a resolution similar to that adopted by the Virginia Legislature in favor of maintaining the statu quo in, the seceding States pending negotiations for a peaceable solution of the difficulties. The Convention bill is still under consideration in the Legislature.

Fresh From The Machine.

For a machine I had often sought, Till I heard one sing sign of Coffee Pot, Thinks I to myself she'll suit me fine, I'll make her sing news of things in my line.

I took her forthwith and wound her up. And the first thing whistled was one tin cup; Oh, dear me, I am afraid she'll not do, So I oiled her some and away she flew !

To Sad Irons she went in a good strain, And about Coal Buckets I couldn't complain, But she soon tamed down and of the Cash, She said some things I didn't think trash.

Still she went on and would have you know it, A Cook Stove I have and ready to show it, The best in the market, with all complete, Warranted to bake and cook all you can eat.

Gas Burners I have that can't be beat, For saving of fuel and raising of heat, All sizes and kinds with prices so low, Should wife need one you cannot say no.

Tin Ware I'll not sing--that all of you know--But Lard Cans that hold a hundred or so; And a Lard Lamp of very neat style, And Spouting he'll put up within ten mile.

Improved Fat Squeezers I have for sale, That'll squeeze Mr. Hog from head to tail, With nothing to do but turning the screws, 'Tis just the thing the people use.
