Our State Senator.

The resolutions adopted by the Senate of this State relative to the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union, met with a singular opposition on the part of a few patent democrats, among whom was our Senator, Dr. Crawford The 3d, which passed unanimously, endorsed Gen. Jackson's views against the right of secession. The 5th is in the following words :

5. Resolved, That all plots, conspiracies and warlike demonstrations against the Uni ted States, in any section of the country, are treasonable in their character, and whatever power of the government is necessary for their suppression, should be applied to that purpose without hesitation or delay.

We had not supposed there was within the length and breadth of Pennsylvania a man who would raise a single objection against such a resolution, yet we find that four so-called democratic Senators-Blood, Crawford, Schindel and Welsh-recorded their names against it, thus impliedly saying that plots, conspiracies and warlike

The news of the firing into the steamer Star of the West by the South Carolinians has greatly excited our neighbor up street, and he calls upon all Union loving citizens to 'arouse and teach these miscreants that there is a point when forbearance ceases to be a virtue." All we have to say is this: we are a Union loving citizen, and if necessary, would shed the last drop of our blood to de-fend or preserve the Union. But in this we fend or preserve the Union. But in this cri-sis, we shall expect those who brought the country into the difficulty to come forward and remove it. Our voice has been and shall be for peace; but if war must come, we shall call upon those chivalrous gentlemen who last fall paraded our streets with red capes and tin lanterns, to "shoulder arms" and march to the scene of battle. Afterwards it will be time enough for Democrats to consider whether or not they too should enter the field.

We copy the above from the Lewistown Democrat of last week, which are the only comments thus far made on the insult to the American flag by the South Carolina tories. Those who will remember its course during the John Brown raid, when it published all the silly stuff set afloat and labored for weeks with charges that the Harper's Ferry affair was instigated by prominent republicans, and aided and abetted by the republican party-when it was ready with fire and sword to preserve the Union by hanging those who incited civil war-will perhaps wonder why its note few northern fools, who rightly paid the penalty of their crime-now it is a Southern plot-the scheme to the letter of that arch-traitor and tory Yancey (that same Yancey whom the Democrat upheld a few months ago as not a disunionist !) Why this change? Is treason less a crime in the South than in the North?

But the Democrat don't want to fight, and expects those who brought the counpublicans are not in power-no law is in in existence years ago-they did not take possession of the government arsenals, custom-houses and forts-they did not haul down the stars and stripes and substitute a loathsome snake or a foul bird in its stead -they did not fire at a flag which in times past was upheld whether "right or wrong." All they did do was to exercise the constitutional right of voting for whom they pleased, a right which none but tyrants or traitors would deny them.

As for the "chivalrous gentlemen" "who paraded our streets with red capes and tin lanterns" (little boys it seems no longer) they are ready whenever called on, and if war will come, will do no more discredit to their country in upholding the constitution and laws than they did to their party. At the commencement of the Mexican demonstrations against the United States war, when many whigs deemed it unnecesare not treasonable and ought not to be sary if not unjust, as soon as the constitusuppressed ! Whatever the motive that ted authorities declared its existence, they urged the Senator from this district to re- did not say "you go first, we'll consider cord a vote in effect endorsing the South about it." He had been led to suppose by the representations made by his brother that he would receive no aid; and he is said to have repeatedly telegraphed to the Administration that it would be useless to send down to Fort Sumter any vessel which was not armed, as it would certainly be attacked, but these despatches never reached their proper destination. #### CURRENT FACTS AND RUMORS. THE PRESIDENT AND THE SOUTH CARO-LINA COMMISSIONERS.

The President informed Col. Hayne, in his interview last week, that any communication he had to make must be made in writing. Col. Hayne has therefore been since engaged in preparing a letter to the President, setting forth the complaints of his people, and their demands respecting Fort Sumter. As I have repeatedly said, the President has taken his position in regard to the af- the world from knowing some things that fair in Charleston, and has deliberately are going on in those States. Yesterday, made up his mind as to the course he intends to pursue, and under no circumstances will he surrender Fort Sumter to just starting for Mississippi to endeavor to the authorities of South Carolina. Unless the surrender is made, Col. Hayne says ceans of blood will be spilt.

The instructions to Major Anderson were completed to-day. Quite a number of unless the tax should be paid within a few Southern men have called upon the Presi-dent to know what the nature of the in-cated to the public use; and that his nestructions were, and to urge upon the President to prevent a collision between the Federal and State authorities. The President required no urging to adopt such a policy. In no instance, or under no circumstances, will the government be the aggressor. They will act strictly on the defensive. If, however, the authorities repeat their offence, as in the case of the Star of the West, there will be no alternashould now be changed. Then it was a tive left but to open the batteries and silence them at whatever cost. His instructions are clear and implicit. There is no ambiguity in them.

Lieut. Hall has left for New York. He will return on Friday.

MAJOR ANDERSON AND THE MAIL SER-VICE.

The Postmaster General has written to Governor Pickens notifying him that un- ence with Mr. Lincoln. His object is supless Major Anderson and his command are allowed free access to and from the post office, the mail service will be cut off entry into the difficulty to do it! The re- tirely. While it is pretended that his correspondence will be delivered, no messenexistence respecting slavery which was not Postmaster at Charleston says he delivers the letters as "opportunity occurs," which means when a flag of truce is occasionally sent to Fort Sumter. The Government is paying nearly $150,000 annually, above receipts, for maintaining mail service in South Carolina, and yet has not been allowed to communicate with its own officers.

All the rumors of mutiny or disaffection mong Anderson's command are fabricated, and without the least color of truth. Lieut. Hall and Talbot, who are just from Fort Sumter, speak in the highest terms of the devotion and affection of the garrison to their commander, and the expressed willingness and desire of every man to share his fate, whatever it may be. He has resorted to no punishments, as charged, but on the contrary has had every reason to extend the utmost liberty consistent with the rules of the service, so faithful and ready have the soldiers been in discharging every duty.

TELEGRAPHIC MISREPRESENTATIONS.

The telegraph is burdened with communications to the South, warning people there to abandon all hope of conciliation. Virginia and Kentucky have been particularly appealed to. On the other hand, the Northwest is urged to stand by the Union now more firmly than ever. Despatches to will set the war spirit already aroused into by the South Carolina authorities, but was undoubtedly taken at their dictation.

On the other hand Mr. Merriman, Collector of the port of Georgetown, is arrested for treason, because he acknowledges allegiance to the United States. The Postmasters certainly are just as much guilty of treason as the collector, for their position is precisely similar.

OPPRESSION IN MISSISSIPPI.

The Secessionists of South Carolina and Mississippi are particularly anxious to keep a gentleman, formerly a member of the Kentucky Legislature, stated that he was relieve his brother in that State. The brother had written to him that a tax was imposed upon every slave-owner in the State of twelve dollars for each negro; that, gro tax amounted to $1,500, which he had no means whatever of paying; and that hundreds of slave proprietors are hurrying their slaves out of the State to escape the intolerable oppression. He moreover wrote that this was known to be only the beginning of a terrible system of taxation, and added the expression of his perfect conviction that the people would not stand it -that within thirty days they would rise up in their wrath and their strength and crush oppression and oppressors alike beneath their feet .- Louisville Journal, Jan. 7.

CONFERENCE WITH MR. LINCOLN.

ST. LOUIS, January 21 .- A special despatch from Springfield to the Republican, of this city, says that Mr. Kellogg, member of Congress from Michigan, arrived there on Saturday night, and is in conferposed to be in reference to a compromise in regard to the national difficulties. It is believed that the Republicans, with Mr. Lincoln's sanction, will propose holding a National Convention, and the restoration of the Missouri Compromise line to California.

FROM CHARLESTON.

Governor Pickens sent, on Sunday, a supply of fresh provisions to Major Anderson, with his compliments. The Major, however, refused to receive it, but returned thanks for the courtesy, and stated that he would decline to receive anything until he knew what course the Government at Washington intended to order.

Great Snow Storm in Europe .--- The advent of Christmas brought to Western Europe one of the most severe snow storms ever experienced. Accounts of its ravages have been received from the United Kingdom, France and Italy. Mr. Lowe, the well known meteorologist, says that the cold which ensued was perhaps the most extraordinary ever known in England. On Christmas day the thermometer was eight degrees below zero near London, and elsewhere it is reported as having been still lower. The rivers were full of floating ice, and skating was as common in London as in New York. The quantity of snow which fell in places is said to have exceed ed two feet. The storm appears to have travelled over all Western and Southern Europe. At Turin the Raumur thermometer indicated eight degrees below zero (the freezing point). That city is nearly under the same parallel of latitude as Montreal; but its winter usually corresponds rather with that of Richmond. In England numerous steam boiler explosions happened about that time in private houses, apparently owing to the intense cold.

.... Remarkable Case-A Lady in a Trance .- The Pittsburg Gazette gives an account of a remarkable case of suspension of vitality in Wheeling. A lady, residing in that city, who had been lying ill for a long time, died to all appearances on Saturday night of week before last, and the necessary preparations were made for interment. It was discovered, however, when the body was about to be placed in the coffin, that it still retained its natural warmth. and efforts were made to restore animation, and as yet no signs of decomposition have appeared, although some six or eight days have elapsed since death was supposed to Monday to consider the object of ex-Presi- have taken place. The case has excited no little interest among the leading physi-....

The foreign Ministers at Washington have requested the Government to inform them whether clearances of vessels issued by South Carolina will be recognized as sufficient, and whether foreign vessels could properly pay duties to South Carolina officials. It was re ported that the answer was in the negative. The Arkansas Legislature have finally passed the bill submitting the Convention question to the people. The vote will take place on the 18th of February.

The Army and Secession .- It is report ed that some one asked the veteran Gen Wool, the other day, if the army would be likely to divide in case of sccession, and fail to obey orders from the new President. The gallant old man drew himself up proudly and replied, "Do you think, sir the army is going to fail the country at the moment it is needed ? No, sir. Further more, I will allow no officer under my command to admit the possibility of disunion and if I hear that any one has spoken in favor of it, I will court martial him with all possible expedition; and Gen. Scott feels as I do, sir."

Among the items of news from Charleston floating around loose in secession circles here is a story that the Honorable in aid of the cause much against his will,

Mr. Dawes, a Representative from Massachusetts, after a violent debate in the House the other day, asked a conservative Southern man, who was appealing to the Republicans to come down from their Chicago platform and help save the Union, whether he (Mr. Hill) would take the platform of the party with which he acted during the late campaign, (the Bell party,) viz; "the Constitution, the Union, and the enforcement of the laws."

Mr. Hill said he stood by that platform, but added, that it would not do as a basis of settlement, and asked Mr. Dawes whether he would take it, to which Mr. Dawes replied, amid great enthusiasm, "Yes, sir; every letter of the Constitution, every obligation of the Union, and every feature of the law."

The stricken parents and two little sisters are not the only ones whose hearts weep over this bereavement. A kind and watchful aunt, who nursed and cherished him as her own, with the most tender care, maternal love and affection, together with many loving friends, are called upon to mourn the loss of one whose gentle and lovely disposition and happy smile inspired the fundest hopes in all who saw him-hopes which the icy hand of death has crushed in their budding. Yet we cannot repine. "It is well with him." It is well that this lovely bud should be transp anted to paradise before the chilling blasts of earthly selfishness and sin had withered its opening leaflets.
