LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Rev. J. G. Kerr will preach in the Lutheran Church, in Lewistown, on Sabbath morning and evening, February 3d, 1861, and at Yeagertown in the afternoon joined companies : of same day at 2 o'clock.

EXHIBITION .- The pupils of the Lewistown Academy purpose holding an exhibition on Friday evening next, when a numher of original and selected pieces will be performed. From the Thespean acquirements of both male and female papits, we predict an interesting evening to the audience.

FRIENDLY RECEPTION .- The friends of Rev. H. Baker, late pastor of the Lutheran Church of this place, will be pleased to learn that himself and family met with a most agreeable reception last week on their removal to Newville, Cumberland county. On reaching their residence there, they found the cupboards and pantry well stock of wood at the door, and an ample supply of provender in the stable for "Jim." A number of the members of the congregation also assisted in arranging the furniture, &c., in the house, making a removal as pleasant as it could be at this season.

PRODUCE .- Large quantities of produce are daily coming to town from the valleys of this and adjoining counties, the sledding being remarkably good. On Monday and Tuesday, long lines of sleds were continually arriving and departing. Most of the grain however was stored, so that our merchants did not derive as much benefit from this influx as when produce is sold for eash.

OUR MILITARY .- The Adjutant General's Report, for a copy of which we are above Vine, Philadelphia. indebted to Mr. Gibboney, sets down the whole number of organized volunteer companies in the State at 476, averaging about forty men to a company, making an aggregite of about 19,000 uniformed volunteers.
