Rich Bride or Christening Cake.—Take five pounds of the finest flour, dried and sifted, three pounds of fresh butter; five pounds of picked and washed currants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of loaf surants, dried before the fire, two pounds of blanched almonds, pounded with orange flower water, one pound each of candidated the consistency and lemon peel, cut in neat slices. Mix these ingredients in the following manner: Begin working the butter with the hand till it becomes of a cream-like consistency, then beating in the sugar; for at least ten minutes whisk the whites of the eggs to a complete froth, and mix with it butter and sugar. Next, well beat up the yolks for full ten minutes, and, adding to them the flour, nutmegs, mace and cloves, continue beating the whole together for half an hour or longer, till wanted for the oven. Then mix in lightly the currants, almonds, and candided peels, with the addition of a gill each of mountain wine and brandy; and, having lined a hoop with paper, rub it well with butter, fill in the mixture, and bake it in a tolerably quick oven, taking care, however, not by any means to burn the cake, the top of which may be covered with paper. It is generally iced over like a twelfth-cake on coming out of the oven, but without having any ornaments on the top, so as to appear of a delicate plain white.

Fresh From The Machine.

For a machine I had often sought, Till I heard one sing sign of Coffee Pot, Thinks I to myself she'll suit me fine, I'll make her sing news of things in my line. I took her forthwith and wound her up.

And the first thing whistled was one tin cup; Oh, dear me, I am afraid she'll not do, So I oiled her some and away she flew!

To Sad Irons she went in a good strain, And about Coal Buckets I couldn't complain, But she soon tamed down and of the Cash, She said some things I didn't think trash.

Still she went on and would have you know it, A Cook Stove I have and ready to show it, The best in the market, with all complete, Warranted to bake and cook all you can eat.

Gas Burners I have that can't be beat, For saving of fuel and raising of heat, All sizes and kinds with prices so low.

Should wife need one you cannot say no. Tin Ware I'll not sing-that all of you know-But Lard Cans that hold a hundred or so; And a Lard Lamp of very neat style,

And Spouting he'll put up within ten mile. Improved Fat Squeezers I have for sale, That'll squeeze Mr. Hog from head to tail,

With nothing to do but turning the screws, 'Tis just the thing the people use.

Gold and Silver Plating I also de, For Carriage Makers and others to-But here she stopped, I forgot her to wind, But don't you forget the Big Coffee Pot sign. J. IRVIN WALLIS.

Pinples, Pastules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Discases.

ORLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859.

J. C. Ater & Co. Gents: I feel it my duly to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Uteers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and leathseme beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejeiced to read in the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejeiced to read in the disorder grew worse. At length I was rejeiced to read in the disorder grew morse, them from your, reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnatiand got it, and used it it ill it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scale, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has goine from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the aposites of the age, and remain ever gratefully.

New Orleans, 25th August, 1850,
Dr. J. C. Aver: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects truly wonderful in the cure of Teneced and Mercaried Disease. One of my patients had Syphillic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his paties und the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his localis and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla: the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by more array was suffering from this poison in her bone. They had become so remediately by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your beforeard gave me, that Printernally yours,
