Arrest of the Murderers.

On Sabbath last, our town was thrown into much excitement by the announcement places and times, viz : that Henry Auker, an old and well known At Lewistown, at N citizen of this county, residing in Fayette 29th day of March inst. township, had been cruelly murdered on the At Reedsville, at Mrs. evening previous. Amid the many rumors afloat, we have been able to gather the fol-lowing particulars of this dreadful affair :---On Saturday evening Mr. Auker, an old man in the neighborhood of 80 years of age, was at home with his grand daughter, aged 14 years, and a crazy woman. About seven o'clock two men came to the house and rapped, and Mr. Auker directed his grand daughter to open the docr. One stepped in and took a seat behind the stove, and the other was seated at the door at which they entered. After a few minutes conservation, Mr. Auker inquired of the one behind the store what he wanted. IIe replied his money.-Mr. Auker said that he had no money, and they might search his house. He afterwards said that he had only $10, and that he would get it for them. He rose from his seat and as he was entering the other room he reached for his gun, and while in the act of reaching for it, the man behind the stove fired at him, the ball striking his arm at the elbow, and inflicting a wound to the wrist. He immediately rushed upon Mr. Auker and inflicted several blows on his head with the pistol. The murderers then left, and the grand daughter locked the front door, ced a pillow under the head of her grandfath er, washed his wounds, and with the crazy woman started for her father about a mile distant. Where Mr. Auker lived it is a very lonesome and secluded spot, and it was about an hour afterwards before the neighbors ga hered to witness the dreadful scene.
