Arming the State.

A message was sent to the Legislature on Monday by Gov. Curtin recommending an appropriation to furnish the volunteers with improved fire arms, and to take steps for filling up companies with the requisite number of men. After being read, committees of conference were appointed in both houses with instructions to report a bill. We believe the true policy for Pennsylvania would be to put at least 10,000 men under camp duty, ready to march at a moment's warning.

"The Sneaking Traitors of the North"

The New York Atlas, one of the ablest old line Democratic papers of the North, has an article with the foregoing heading, and though stronger in language than we can approve, yet doubtless, in its facts, substantially true. It calls things by their right names, and may be the only way to meet a "class of persons, who under a thin veneering of pretended love for the Union are profoundly steeped in treason." They talk of patriotism, and at the same time are chuckling at the humiliating position in which the Administration is placed by being obliged to give up Fort Sumter, and to tolerate other acts of secessionists which weaken our government at home and renders it contemptible abroad. These Northern secessionists, in their disguise, are the very men that the Southern secessionists rely upon for encouragement and assistance in their resistance to the general government. They are cunningly poisoning the public mind, and continually infusing the people of the South that the North will be divided in case of a collision between the secessionists and the general government.

Governor Houston's Appeal.

The address of Sam Houston to the people of Texas is a curious production.—While the Governor refuses to recognize the authority of the Convention which has deprived him of office, and rebukes the madness of the traitors, he contents himself with a pathetic remonstrance, and explicitly declares that he will neither inaugurate civil war nor endeavor to maintain his authority as Chief Executive of Texas. The prospects of Texas under the new Confederacy he does not regard as at all flattering, but, on the contrary, gloomy in the extreme. The reasons for this belief are very clearly set forth in the following passage:

"You have been transferred like sheep from the shambles. A government has been fastened upon you which is to be supported from your pockets, and yet you have not been consulted. You are to be taxed in the shape of tariffs on the necessities and luxuries of life, which you have hitherto purchased free of duty. You are to have high postage and all else in proportion, and to forego the freeman's privilege of electing your own President and Vice President, a Provisional Congress taking the matter out of your hands.—You are to support a constitution which ignores the very name of the people, and to go into a government where you are to pay tribute to King Cotton and enjoy the privilege of equality, until you are involved so far that independence will be impossible, and you will be ready to put the State of Texas, with her territory, equal in extent to all the other sections States, at the rear of the Confederacy on the terms of the slave basis. This is the program marked out for you. You were told the Union must be dissolved, that it might be reconstructed. Now you are told that reconstruction is impracticable and impossible."

Governor Houston retires from public life in a quieter way than those who knew him believed it to be possible. Advancing years, however, have probably abated his strength, and whereas in earlier life he would have been a fierce stickler for the rights of his official station, he now follows the example of the majority of the public men of the country—and yields.

Cardinal Wiseman and the Bible.—In his tract on "The Catholic Doctrine of the Use of the Bible," the cardinal uses the following language: "It (the Bible) is the school boy's task book; it is the jailor's present; it is the drunkard's pawn pledge; it is the dotard's text book; it is the irreverent jester's butt; it is the fanatic's justification for every vice, blasphemy, and profanation which he commits."

LATEST NEWS.

The past week has again been prolific of stirring reports from the seat of government, but as the Cabinet is free from traitors and composed of men who keep their counsels, the sensation correspondents of city papers are spending column upon column in guessing at the meaning of those in power. The warlike rumors are so numerous and variant, and the surmises built thereon so conflicting that it is difficult to arrange them in an intelligible form. The one fact that has manifested itself so indubitably as to be beyond contradiction is that a sudden and very energetic activity is displayed in the military and naval departments of the government, the chief developments of which are seen at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, at Boston and Washington City, and the various stations in and about New York. The government has concentrated nearly three thousand troops, and is preparing to despatch them somewhere upon some service of importance. In addition to the active preparations of several of the first class vessels of the Navy, the steamships Baltic and Ariel, both commodious and swift vessels, have been chartered to convey troops under sealed orders, and expected to sail on Sunday. The United States frigate Powhatan, recently ordered out of service, has been hastily prepared for a cruise and has sailed from New York with three companies of artillery on board. The revenue cutter Harriet Lane also went to sea. She is not reported to have any troops. Upon these facts various surmises are built up. Forts Sumter and Pickens it is said are to be reinforced, the mouth of the Mississippi and all the ports of the Confederate States are to be blockaded, whilst one guesser, disregarding these probabilities as a too easy solution of the problem, suggests that the troops are destined for Texas, and are furnished in response to a call from Gov. Houston. Which, if any of these surmises is true, our readers have as good grounds for arriving at a determination as ourselves. There can be no doubt, however, that some serious movement is on foot, and that the government is adopting its measures with equal celerity and secrecy.

We add such items as come to hand in an authentic shape:

The States of Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan were represented at Washington city last week through their respective Governors, all of whom have had interviews with the Cabinet on the subject of placing these Commonwealths on a war footing. The Governors of these States prospectively agree as to the necessity of at once arming, and have returned to their Capitals resolved to recommend such arming of their States.

The sloop of war Pawnee sailed from Washington on Saturday last with sealed orders. She carries ten heavy guns, and two hundred men. Her sailing, it is believed, is in the direction of Fort Pickens, on which the Government has information of an apprehended attack.

The Secretary of State replied to the communication of the Wise Men of the South on Monday, in which they requested an interview with the President, as accredited Ambassadors from the Seven Nations. The Secretary refused to acknowledge them in any other way than he would country squires from Lancaster county, or Philadelphia lawyers with white cravats and eye-glasses. He flatly objects to recognize them in an official capacity, but assured them of the freedom of the White House, as Southern gentlemen.

The determination of General Cameron, Secretary of War, to strike the name of every officer of the army off the list who inquires into, or refuses to obey, the orders of the General Government is generally approved.

However much the reports of the Southern designs on Washington may be discredited, it is certain that officers high in authority are taking precautionary measures for the safety of the Capital.

We subjoin the latest dispatches from Traitordom, by which it will be seen, if true, that the Southern traitors are about to inaugurate bloodshed and civil war.—Should this unfortunately prove to be the case, a few weeks will determine whether we still have a government and a people who can maintain the Constitution under which all have lived happily and prospered, or whether we have sympathizing traitors enough at the north to aid the southern hell-hounds in their schemes of ambition:

CHARLESTON, April 8.
General Beauregard has ordered out 5,000 troops.
Companies are constantly arriving and being put in position.
New batteries have also been constructed.
Major Anderson's mail facilities have not been cut off, as reported. Only his supplies have been discontinued.
Considerable activity is being manifested in military quarters, indicating that affairs are approximating a crisis.
CHARLESTON, April 9.
Everything is now prepared for action.—

All vessels have been ordered to keep out of the range of fire between Fort Sumter and Sullivan's Island.
The famous floating battery is expected to sail at 7 o'clock, P. M. for a point somewhere near Fort Sumter.
A house has just been blown up near the five gun battery.
Business is entirely suspended, and the most intense excitement prevails.

Two or three hundred fugitive slaves have escaped to Canada during the past week.
Messrs. Lane and Pomeroy have been elected United States Senators from Kansas.
William Gingrich has been appointed Postmaster in Mexico, Juniata county.

The South Carolina Banks which, before secession, were among the strong institutions of the country, now make a beggarly show of empty raucis.
Michael D. Miller, of Waterloo, whilst cutting down a tree at the foot of Tuscarora Mountain, received a severe wound in his head, by a limb weighing several pounds falling on it.

The stable of Dr. Abner Osborn, at Rippon, Jefferson county, Va, was fired on the night of the 26th ult., by a negro woman in his employ, and entirely consumed, together with a carriage, two horses, harness, and all of his provender.

A Russian ship, having on board one thousand tons of Welsh steam coal, blown up in the British Channel, in consequence of the accumulation of gas. She went down almost immediately, and twelve of the crew are believed to have perished.

Four fugitive slaves from Mississippi, a negro, with his wife and two children, were arrested at Chicago on Thursday, and sent to Springfield for examination. Considerable excitement ensued at Chicago among the negro population, after the arrest became known. The commissioner adjudged them slaves, and they were returned to their owners.

A correspondent of the Steele Paris, the Government organ of France, writes from Tunis, Algeria, as follows:

Our College of philosophers at home, may, and probably do accomplish a great deal for the cause of science, but the Americans are the people to turn these discoveries to practical account. Many of the modern inventions in use here are American, and one American chemist, Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, supplies much of the medicine consumed in this country.—His Cherry Pectoral, Pills, Sarsaparilla, and Ague Cure constitute the staple remedies here, because they are of easy application, sure in their results, and have the confidence of the people. While the science of Medicine is carried to a higher perfection in our own country (France) than any other, it strikes a Frenchman as singular that an American physician should furnish the medical skill and resources for our principal Province.

We are happy to inform our readers that these superior medicines which the Emperor's principal Province is obliged to get from America may be had by our neighbors, at Charles Ritz's Drug Store, Lewistown, Jacob Metz's, Altoona, H. S. McNabb & Co's., Belle-ville, R. M. Kinloe's, Ross-ville, B. Graf's, White Hall, and by Dealers generally.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The drawing for the three splendid Oil Paintings, got up by Mr. Roosen, will take place at the Town Hall, on next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE WEATHER has been cold and blustering during the past week, with occasional snow squalls on the mountains and rain in the valleys.

FOOT BALL.—The principal amusement in vogue just now, after supper, is foot ball on the public square, in which a large number of young men and boys daily participate. It is rather violent exercise, some shins, fall, and scratches being quite common among those over-anxious to get a kick at the ball.

Weber, who continues to supply our citizens with fresh shad, pike, &c., last week had a lot of cress for greens and onions.
CHEESE.—A really good article of cheese is not always to be had, as those who use it on the table can testify—the same lot frequently containing good, bad and indifferent. The best article of this kind we have tasted for a long time was procured at E. J. Hoffman's, its color, flavor, texture and taste being just what cheese ought to be.

John L. Porter has been appointed an agent for receiving subscriptions to Mitchell's new General Atlas, comprising about 50 maps, quarto size, and 20 or 30 plans of cities. Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Gazette, dated MONTICELLO, Ind., March 19, 1861.
Mr. Fryinger.—It is almost a year since I left the good old Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and so far I am well pleased with the western country and its inhabitants. My health has been good, with the exception of the liver complaint last August, though chills and fever were in vogue during the latter part of the preceding year.
I don't know of any startling news in this part of the country except the many phases our State and National politics are taking.—You know that we elected all the Republican State officers last fall and have a majority in the Legislature. At the last session the State was to be aggrandized into Legislative and Congressional districts. The Constitution requires two-thirds of any branch of the Legislature to constitute a quorum, and the apportionment bills came up near the close of the session; all the democratic Senators, except one, "diluted," that is, broke a quorum, and in consequence the State is not re-districted. Many favor an extra session of the Legislature, and it is very probable that Gov. Morton will convene it. The democracy die hard. The leaders of that party resort to every means to retain power. This State is bankrupt—has no credit at home or abroad. Who is responsible for this state of affairs? I answer the democracy. The most unblushing frauds have been perpetrated here, in building the Northern Penitentiary, in managing the Swamp Land fund, the Common School fund, and other funds belonging to the State.
We have a very inefficient school law. No normal schools, no agricultural colleges, in fact we are behind every western State except Missouri in mental and material progress. I look forward for a better state of things under Republican rule. It will take time to right matters.

Indiana has come in for considerable share of the Federal patronage. Caleb B. Smith, as good an orator as the west affords, is Secretary of the Interior; John D. Deftrees, late editor of the Atlas, is Superintendent of the Public Printing; D. P. Holloway, editor of the Richmond Palladium, is Commissioner of Patents; James N. Tyner, of Peru, is Special Mail Agent. Under the State administration no less than three or four editors got lucrative positions. R. N. Hudson, of the Terre Haute Express, is State Agent; R. Deles Brown, of the Lawrenceburg Republican, is State Librarian; Berry B. Sulgrove, of the Indianapolis Journal, is State Printer. Two of your Lewistown chaps are now expounding democracy in this State—McEwen, of the White County Democrat, and Fryinger, of the Jackson Union. No later than to day I saw a paper (the Madison Courier) exhorting the latter (Col. Garber, of Madison, is one of the best writers in this State. Land is worth from 10 to 30 dollars per acre in this country, and any quantity for sale.
J. R. A.

The imports at New York last week, under the new tariff bill, exceed the corresponding week of last year more than a million of dollars.

We learn from the Pittsburgh Chronicle that Mr. Lauffman, a merchant of that city, has instituted proceedings against the Allegheny Bank looking to a forfeiture of its charter, under the banking law of 1850. Mr. Lauffman, it appears, presented $50 in bills of the bank for payment at its counter, and the bank refusing to cash them, a petition was filed in the District Court setting forth the facts, whereupon the usual citation was ordered to be issued.
